Notice to Fishermen and Others on the Columbia River.

My youngest son, four years old, blue eyes, light hair and complexion, fell from the wharf at Clifton on Saturday evening, July 9th, 1881. A liberal reward will be paid for the recovery of his body. VINCENT COOK.
Clifton, Oregon, July 10, 1881.

—Steamer day to-morrow.

—The barkentine Portland is ready for sea.

—The steamer State arrived in San Francisco on the 19th.

—Mr. Jas. Fisher, formerly of Astoria, is here on a visit.

—Mr. H. B. Litt will be obliged to defer his visit to Astoria on account of a rush of business in Portland.

—It is reported that the Pacific Coast Steamship company have sold to the Oregon Improvement company the steamship Dakota and the new steamship building at Philadelphia, and with them, it is supposed, the Puget-sound and Victoria route.

—Charles Mitchell was not discharged, but Adams was; both were working for Adair. Mitchell had nothing whatever to do with it. He was compelled, in self defense, to fight Adams, but is now under bonds and is attending to his work at Adairs.

—Hills Variety Troupe have volunteered to give another entertainment at Liberty hall, on Wednesday afternoon of next week, for the benefit of St. Marys hospital. Messrs. C. S. Wright and H. B. Parker have kindly volunteered to take charge of the tickets and money. The programme will be published in a short time. The tickets may be secured at various places. This will be the second benefit tendered to St. Marys hospital by this troupe, who will give a first class entertainment, specially intended for ladies and children.

Very Narrow Escape.

Mr. Andrew Schuring, who picked up the boat of Mr. Lewis, on Saturday, saw Wm. Bakers boat disappear twice in the breakers, and he feared that Baker was lost. Once his boat shot high and dry from the crest of a breaker, but when it came down it lit square upon the keel. Baker abandoned his net and pulled for No. 1 buoy, and afterwards returned through the north channel and got it. Mr. Schuring hung to his net. Baker was farthest out to sea. When Schuring came in he met three nets at the whistling buoy going out at the north channel. This side, at the second striped buoy, he picked up Mr. Lewis boat bottom up; hailed a boat near by, got assistance, righted the capsized boat, bailed her out, put his boat-puller into her and sailed into Bakers bay, when the Canby towed her to Astoria. The boat was turned over to the claimants yesterday for the family of Mr. Lewis, the owner, who was drowned.

Auction.

A portion of Jerome Pells consignment of dry goods arrived from Portland on Mondays steamer and the balance on yesterdays. The auction commences this evening at 7:30, in the store under the Occident. This sale created considerable interest in Portland, as it undoubtedly will in Astoria.

—Blanks, Promissory notes, bonds for deed, quit claim deeds, mortgages and warranty deeds, at this office.

On motion of Councilman Spexarth the council adjourned.

Fishermen Lost.

The boat picked up by Andrew Schuring, and advertised yesterday, belonged to Mr. Wm. Lewis who was fishing for Wm. Humes Astoria cannery. Mr. Schuring picked it up on Saturday afternoon outside, and it was identified yesterday by Mr. E. D. Curtis, book-keeper at Wm. Humes, and to make assurance double sure, Mr. Schuring had a book which he found in the boat, which proves to have been Mr. Lewis account with the cannery. Mr. Lewis leaves a family in this county. He was assisted by Mr. V. F. Finley; and both were splendid men. As soon as Mr. Schuring found that the boat belonged to a man who had a family, he made no further charge than the sum of $7 50 which he had expended for help, towing, and advertising, but surrendered the boat he had risked his life and worked from half-past three till eight P. M. in the effort to save. His act deserves special mention.
