or A good advertiser particularly ets his show windows into the news-co Most people "take a look at the advertisements. If they read those of some people, why will they not see ments than to send out salesmen. A conductivement is seen and read by more people in one day, than most salesmen call on in a year. mercan advertisement tells its own story. It makes no mistakes, as a solici-tor might do, and states exactly what the merchant wants to say, neither more nor less. Advertisements are honest and taithful servants. 20 "Da logs pay!" asks an agricultural correspondent. We know of some tind don't. They subscribe for a paper, read it for a few years for nothing, and then send it back to the publisher with the P. M.'s inscription, "refused." Such hogs as that pay nothing to anybody, if they can help it.

Clouds speak for themselves," ant it is only after they are bought that they can do so. An object in advertis-ing is to induce people to buy them and test them. If goods speak for them-seives, a good advertisement may also speak for the goods.

common can see things only retrospectively. Instead of looking forward to what they might do they only book tack to what they might have done. They learn from experience, after it has become a little late in the day. Such men are the non-advertisers, "Book-larners" were once despised by the self-called "pra-tical" farmers, but when the latter saw the former's crops, they changed their minds.

to since without advertising." No doubt you are doing well enough for your present needs, but do you forget the panies, the exciting elections, the times of war or pestilence, or any of these many causes which create dall terms of business? These must be calculated for and discounted if you would bridge them over. One must make more than he needs, to make a fortune, and advertising is a powerful auxiliary in money. ing is a powerful auxiliary in money-

Ze No man should deprive his wife and family of a good local paper. They do not get out from home to learn the news as does the husband and father. and the paper serves to relieve the other-wise lonely house of his absence. It is the worst possible enconomy to deprive the family of a pleasure so easily and cheaply procured. And yet there are those who say that they are too poor to take a paper; but they are not to poor to spend twenty times the price of a paper every day for whisky and tobacco.

Dr. B. J. KENNALL & Co., Gents: Reading your advertisement in Turf, Field and Farm, of Kendall's Spayern Cure, and having a valuable and speedy Horse which had been lathe from spayen eighteen mouths, I sent to you for a bottle by express, which in six weeks removed all lameness and enlargement and a large splint from another horse and both horses are to-day as sound as colts. Spayed and both horses are to-day as sound as colts. The one bottle was worth to me one humbred gollars. Bespectfully yours.

ON BUMAN PLESH. Bakersfield, Vt., Dec., 23, 1879. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents: Twish t B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents: I wish to add my testimony in favor of your invaluable himment. Kendall's Spavin Cure." In the spring of 1862 I shipped on the ice and sprained my right halo at the knee joant. I was very fame and at times suffered the most exeruciating pain. I wope a bandage on it for over a year, and fried most everything in my reach, but could find nothing that would give me peroament relief. When I overworked, it would pain me very much. In April 1878 I began to think I should be a crupple for life; but having some of "Kendall's Spavin Cure" thought I would try it. I used one third of a boille, and experienced relief at once. The pain left me and has not frontisted me since. I feet very grateful to you and would recommend "Kendall's Spavin Cure' to all who suffer with sprains or rheumatism. Yours truly, "Mrs. J. BOUTFILL Kondall's Spavin Cure' to all who suffer with sprains or rheumatism. Yours truly, "Mrs. J. BOUTFILL Kondall's Spavin Cure'.

Kendall's Spavin Cure Is sure in its effects, unild in its action as it does not blister, and yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep scated pain or to remove any bony growth or any other enlargement, if used for several days, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callous, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment is used for man or ceast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting unild and yet certain in its effects. It is used full strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year.

Send address for illustrated circular, which we think gives positive posof of its virtues.
