Notice to Fishermen and Others on the Columbia River.
 My youngest son, four years old, blue eyes, light hair and complexion, fell from the wharf at Clifton on Saturday evening, July 24, 1881. A liberal reward will be paid for the recovery of his body.
 VINCENT COOK,
 Clifton, Oregon, July 26, 1881.

Common council to-night.
 Secure your seats for the matinee to-morrow.
 Heilborns store is an attractive place of business.
 Prof. F. P. Hagal will walk the rope again this evening.
 The Fleetwood made her excursion to Multnomah falls on Sunday.
 The residents at Ilwaco are preparing for a grand canal bake soon.
 Dr. Tuttle has left the city for about a week, for rest and recreation.
 That is an elegant mast for the Cousins just completed on Chenamus street.
 Mrs. Sheppards books have arrived, and will be delivered to the subscribers this week.
 Mr. W. W. Parker has been appointed administrator of the estate of Henry Morine deceased.
 Mr. V. F. Finley was to have been married to a daughter of Mr. M. A. Riddle, of Knappa.

The new bar tug building at Coos bay, for the Columbia river, will be named in honor of President Garfield.
 But one case in the Police-court yesterday, that of an obstreperous female from the interior. Surely Astoria is quiet.
 The trustees of the M. E. church of Astoria, have purchased a lot on Jefferson street, and invite proposals to build a church edifice.
 Mr. C. H. Bain is now getting along nicely. He has returned from a Knappa camping expedition and is able to attend to business.
 The Sisters of Portland and Vancouver have contributed liberally for the fair to be held in Liberty hall, in aid of St. Marys hospital.
 Clatsop plains never looked better than it does now, and people over there never had better crops. The hay is now nearly all put up, and oats will follow.
 Mr. A. M. Johnson, at the Astoria sail loft, is making a fine lot of sails for the ship Empire. The mainsail will contain nearly five hundred yards of canvas.

Mrs. Marion, Mrs. Rodgers, Mrs. Fulton, Mrs. Dr. Kinney, Mrs. Worsley, Miss Maria Shay, Mrs. Sovey, Mrs. Goodman, and others, will have tables at the fair.
 Rumors were afloat yesterday concerning important transfers of Astoria property, but we could trace them to no certain reliable source, and await official data from Portland.
 The new steamer Clara Paker gave a first-class excursion to Ilwaco and the cape, on Sunday. She is nicely fitted for excursion parties, makes good time, sits as easy as a duck on the water, and is a favorite with all.
 The government is to build another steam launch as a tender for the work at the Cascade locks. She is to be 160 feet long, 28 1/2 feet beam, 6 feet depth, to have two 20-inch cylinders with 6 1/2 feet stroke, and two steel boilers.

The Chinese theatre is running in full blast every night to big audiences, and will continue for two weeks, in Liberty hall. It will be difficult to get the stink out of the hall, if they keep up their present lick, for that length of time.
 The new steamer Mississippi arrived at Valparaiso on the 10th en route from New York for Portland. A third steamer under the name of the Unatilla has just arrived at New York from the ship yard in Pennsylvania, and will soon sail for Oregon.

Gen. Garfield.
 The new steamer which was built at Rainier, for T. E. Bellingham, and which is now here, being fitted by the Astoria iron works to go to Shoalwater bay, where she is to be employed, is a very creditable piece of work, and her builders, Messrs. Johnson Brothers, may certainly feel proud of their work. We understand that she will be named Gen. Garfield. Messrs. Johnson Brothers have given most perfect satisfaction in this job, and it is a good reference for future work in their line.

Ladies Fair.
 The ladies of Astoria will hold a fair at Liberty hall, in aid of St. Marys hospital, beginning on Friday evening next and continuing daily, Sunday excepted, until Saturday, August 6, 1881, every afternoon and evening.

Bancrofts Book.
 Following are the resolutions unanimously adopted by the Astoria Chamber of Commerce:
 Resolved, That the Astoria Chamber of Commerce fully endorse the work now in preparation for publication by Messrs. A. L. Bancroft & Co., on the commerce and industries of the Pacific coast.
 Resolved, That a committee of five members be appointed by the President to solicit subscriptions towards defraying the expenses of procuring and engraving a sketch of the towns of Astoria and gathering such statistics as shall fully and faithfully represent the industries and manufactures and commercial importance of this city and its vicinity, in order that the same may be incorporated in the proposed valuable work.
 A. L. BANCROFT, Secretary.

Weather in Portland is warm for Oregon - 82° to 90°. This was marked, not by the four-bit machines hung near sidewalks, but by instruments in the signal office.
 The Astoria boot and shoe factory have sent Mr. J. A. Ripperdon out into the field, and Mr. Leinenweber informs us that he is meeting with good success. This is the first commercial traveler that Astoria has put upon the road.
 The Sisters have purchased one of the handsomest silver trumpets that could be obtained in San Francisco, which will be given to the company in the Astoria department which gets the highest number of votes during the fair next week. Here is a chance for the friends of our firemen to do a charitable deed, and confer a double favor.

Messrs. Gill & Clinton protest that the bid for the upper town roadway extension was for piles, and not for posts, and that if posts are to be set up instead of piles driven it will be money thrown away, as they will not stand the blunt and butting of the drift that sets in there in the winter. This work ought to be done substantially.
 Bob Ingersoll must have been standing near Page & Allens corner, when he wrote that apostrophe to a child's laugh: "Your sweetest strains are discordant all, compared with child-hoods happy laugh; the laugh that fills the eyes with light and every heart with joy. Oh, rippling river of laughter! thou art the blessed boundary line between the beasts and men, and every wayward wave of thine doth drown some fretful fiend of care. Oh, laughter, rose-lipped daughter of joy! there are dimples enough in thy cheeks to catch and hold and glorify all the tears of grief!"

The withdrawal of Hazel Kirke, after the longest run known to the American stage, and the introduction of the new farcical comedy, The Pinafore, marks a new era of success in the history of Madison Square theatre, and one which it is reasonably hoped the critics of all cities will regard with a considerable degree of interest. In the approaching season they will have a greater number of traveling companies than ever before. The original Hazel Kirke company will continue its successful tour, and a second representative will travel with this celebrated dramatic work. The Professor with the original cast will, among others, undoubtedly also be offered.
 Charles Gratke has always on hand No. 1 XXX Premium Ale and first premium Lager Beer from the Albany brewery, at San Francisco, at his usual office on the Broadway.

The proprietors of Kondalls Spanish Cure have hundreds of letters on file speaking in the highest terms of the benefits derived from its use, when you find one case where it has failed to give relief there are hundreds where it has proved a success. Read their advertisement.

 The New Testament authorized edition revised, for twenty-five cents at Charles Stevens and Sons City Book store.
 P. J. Goodman, on Chenamus street, has just received the latest and most fashionable style of gents and ladies boots, shoes, etc.

Mr. Fuller has received orders from F. L. Drew to close out the Peck assignment by the coming Saturday, which will necessitate a quick sale of his goods. Several cases of goods still remain to be sold. The most of the goods, however, will probably be sold at wholesale, but it is a little late to sell to merchants, as the fishing season is so nearly over.

$50 Reward.
 Mr. M. A. Riddle, of Knappa, authorizes us to advertise $50 reward for the recovery of the body of V. Kinley, who was drowned with Mr. Lewis in the fishing net near the bar on the 10th.
