

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, JULY 27, 1881. D. C. IRELAND, Editor.

Our Lovely Climate.

Mail and telegraph daily brings us word that men are falling dead in the streets of eastern cities, also in Europe, by sunstroke. The heat has been intense east of the Rocky mountains and fatal in hundreds of instances. It is considerably warmer in the valley than at Astoria, but anywhere the climate of Oregon is cool and pleasant compared with what we hear of other parts of the country.

Exhibit D.

The chief clerk of the house of representatives, has received notification in due form of fifteen seats which will be contested, most of them accompanied by voluminous testimony. Alabama has four. Except one in Iowa and one in Maine, all the contestants are from southern states.

The nomination of Buren R. Sherman for governor of Iowa by the republican convention is a triumph in the moderate wing of the temperance party.

Justice Clifford died at 9 o'clock on Monday. Judge Cooley, of Michigan is mentioned as his most probable successor, and there are some who talk of ex-Senator Conkling for the place, but likely if Conkling should be appointed to the supreme bench he will succeed Hunt, whose retirement is only a question of a few months.

The reception given to Mr. Villard at the Metropolitan, July 15th, was one of the most noteworthy events that has occurred in St. Paul in years. It was a most felicitous blending of social courtesies and business relations, and was carried out in the most pleasant and mutually profitable manner that could have been desired.

A Liverpool correspondent says that the police believe that the story about the discovery of infernal machines in barrels purporting to contain cement from America is a hoax.

It is the general opinion of the press that Mrs. Garfield ought to decline the proposed donation of $250,000; but one editor, more practical than the rest, says the money will be needed to pay the doctors bills.

Four of the persons in attendance upon the president have been seized with malaria since he was confined to the White House. This is the pleasing result of congressional inactivity upon a question of serious importance now, because constant doses of quinine alone will probably ward off some trouble from the president.

Porcelain Making in Clatsop.

A porcelain factory near Astoria is to be a thing of the future. It is now an established fact that kaolin, feldspar and flint, for the manufacture of fine china, are found in inexhaustible quantities in the vicinity of the Sea-side, and it only needs capital to start the manufacture of porcelain.

Gen. Grant has just bought a thousand dollar pair of horses. They are Hambletonian geldings, sixteen hands and one quarter inch in height, respectively; six and seven years old. One has white hind feet, the other is dark all around.

Ex-Queen Isabella, of Spain, is a great admirer of the Paris Figaro, and frequently drops in of an evening to see the staff at work, always ending her call by inviting the force out to a banquet at her expense.

Mrs. Mary Wells, of Sandusky, Ohio, is 17 years of age, and weighs 160 pounds. Her foot is exactly seventeen inches long, seven and three-eighths inches wide at the widest part, and could take a No. 26 boot, though a No. 30 would be just the thing.

The storm of Wednesday night did great damage in Wisconsin. Property was deluged, dams swept away and death and destruction marked its path.

Notice. I WILL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR any damages that may result from traveling over the roadway in front of block 11, Shively's Astoria, or any other property owned by me.
