 —The down steamer State of California grounded about a quarter of a mile below Portland Thursday night and lay there till 10 o'clock Friday morning. Every passing steamer gave her a pull but to no purpose, till finally with "a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether," the Lurline snaked her off. She proceeded on her way but in half an hour grounded again, and after lying for several hours, finally swung into the channel and arrived here at 10:30 A. M., yesterday. The steamer left for S. F., at 3 P. M.
 —Lieutenant-Commander Henry H. Gorringer, U. S. N., now en route with the Villard party, is said to be a most able officer, possessing great mechanical skill, and is highly educated in the learning of the Egyptians. It is to his skill, pluck and perseverance that our country is indebted for the removal of the Egyptian Needle or Obelisk from Alexandria to Central Park, New York, and to the munificence of William H. Vanderbilt, who gave his check for the expenses incurred, amounting to over $100,000, including the use of the special steamer Dussong, in whose hold the caisson containing the obelisk was brought to America. The San Francisco Academy of Sciences have invited him to address them on the subject, after his return from Oregon.
 —Since the swamping of the boat on Friday evening, Sept. 16th, and the drowning of five men, says the Oregonian, efforts have been made constantly to recover the bodies. A sharp lookout was kept along the river, and the stream near where the boat swamped and below that point was dragged. The vigilant search has at length been rewarded, and all the bodies recovered. On the morning of Sept. 23d, the body of Thomas Manning was recovered. The next morning the body of Simon Carl was found. Sunday morning the remains of John Sampson were discovered and brought ashore. The body of Joseph Johnson was found Monday morning, and Alexander Owen on the following day. Two bodies were recovered about one-quarter of a mile below where the boat swamped, two bodies about one mile below, and one about six miles below, where it had been carried by the current.
 The bodies of these unfortunate men were accorded as decent a burial as circumstances would permit. The remains were enclosed in boxes and laid to rest side by side. They were buried near the bank of the Columbia, about one mile west of Multnomah falls. Mr. Felix Owen, the brother of Alex. Owen, who resides near Freeport, Washington territory, was notified soon after the sad occurrence, and came over and assisted in the search for the remains. He has made arrangements to have the body of his brother Alexander removed at once to Freeport for interment.
 —Carl Adler will leave on the outgoing Oregon for San Francisco. Parties indebted to him are requested to call and settle immediately, as he needs cash.

 PUBLISHER ASTORIAN:
 Dear Sir: I am compelled to announce that my branch gallery must positively close business in Astoria on next Wednesday evening, October 5th. Williamsport Property.
 Great bargains are now offered in the city of Williamsport for any persons wishing to locate from one lot to five acres. It is well adapted for gardens, dairy ranches or pleasant homes; well elevated, situated one mile south of Astoria on Youngs bay, with a good graded road to the place. For further information call at my residence near the cemetery.
 JOHN WILLIAMSON.
To the Public.
 The undersigned would inform the public that he has the best San Francisco National Brewery beer, and the best and strongest vinegar made. The reason I have so much vinegar on hand is owing to the fact that I borrowed from a friend eight fifteen gallon kegs of Chicago beer which was impossible for me to sell, so that is why I can sell vinegar so cheap. The vinegar made by myself is from the drippings and what is left in kegs of National beer. I desire to say that the National beer never sours in kegs, but you can't say that of Chicago beer. I can produce just lots of evidence on that.
 MAX WAGNER.
