

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: TUESDAY, OCT. 4, 1881

ISSUED EVERY MORNING. (Monday Excepted). J. F. HALLOBAN & COMPANY, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

Terms of Subscription: per week, 25 Cents; per month, $1.00; per quarter, $2.50; per year, $10.00.

Advertisements inserted by the year at the rate of $1.50 per square per month.

The Weekly Astorian is a mammoth sheet, nearly double the size of the Daily.

A limited number of small advertisements inserted at established rates.

THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 75 cents a month, free of postage.

The City of Chester went out to sea Sunday morning.

The Nairnshire, Niven master, sailed yesterday for Queenstown.

The foreign exports for the month of September aggregate $443,483.

The Oregon sailed hence from San Francisco yesterday morning.

The steamship Columbia will leave Portland to-morrow at 10 A. M.

The Kate Davenport, Mallett master, sailed yesterday for Melbourne.

The Emily Stevens, from Gray's harbor with lumber, was towed in on Sunday by the Brennan.

There was an $8,000 fire on the corner of Front and Taylor streets, Portland, last Saturday evening.

Desirable rooms for offices are for rent in THE ASTORIAN building.

The British bark Loch Duon, from Portland, cleared for Queenstown yesterday.

The pilot schooner J. C. Cousina, arrived from sea yesterday for the purpose of having a new main-mast placed in her, the old one being sprung.

Capt. Worth, of the Umattila, informs us that the actual number of days steaming from New York to Astoria was 54, which is away above the average.

We would respectfully inform "Outs," that if he, she or it will send a name with the communication received, the document shall be published.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Northwestern Marriage Insurance company, which appears this morning in another column.

On Sunday the new collier Umattila, of the Oregon Improvement company, steamed over the bar, sixty-two days from New York, McVicker pilot.

The walk from the street to the entrance of the post-office is an ornament to the city, as it stands; but if there were a little more order in the arrangement of the planks, so that the ladies wouldn't get their feet muddy, it would combine the useful and the ornamental in an eminent degree.

Upon Villard's arrival at Portland a committee from the board of trade presented him with an address.

A splendid large lot of eastern oysters just arrived by the steamship Oregon at Tom Smith's oyster saloon, on Main street. Call round and try them.

A handsome lance-wood salmon rod to be given away at the Occident for one dollar.

Mrs. Derby is now receiving her fall goods. By last steamer a large quantity arrived, and she will soon be in receipt of a very full and complete assortment.

Williamsport Property.

Great bargains are now offered in the city of Williamsport for any persons wishing to locate from one lot to five acres.

A good advertiser particularly puts his show-windows into the newspaper.

Most people "take a look at the advertisements." If they read those of other people, why will they not see their own?

It costs less to print advertisements than to send out salesmen. A good advertisement is seen and read by more people in one day, than most salesmen call on in a year.

An advertisement tells its own story. It makes no mistakes, as a sales agent might do, and states exactly what the merchant wants to say, neither does it lose time in making excuses for the merchant's goods.

Some men can see things only retrospectively. Instead of looking forward to what they might do, they only look back to what they might have done. They learn from experience, after it has become a little late in the day.
