OPIUM SMOKING.

The Other Side - Some Striking

several sketches, occupying a full page, illustrating opium smoking in New York. The work is cleverly done although not quite accurate; and the sentry at the entrance, the adjoinments used in smoking, tray, lamp, box, bowl, pipe, etc., are severally and distinctly shown. In the centerpiece is a black-bordered bit of fine grained work-by the new processlooking very much like a lithographshowing a group of white men in the various stages of opium debauch. The flower and dried poppy heads form attractive side-pieces, and the reproduction in miniature of an alleged Chinese drawing, throws an air of Oriental luxury over the whole.

The effect is too alluring. At least for the sons of the subscribers of Harper's living on this coast. It is very Telegram one-sided; one could almost suspect the talented artist of having a secret sympathy with the "hitters of the pipe." It is not a wholesome set of pictures for any young Californian or Oregonian to look at. Many unfortunate young people living on this coast, in almost every town, have commenced the soul and body-destroy-
