Wreck of the Fern Glen.

The British bark Fern Glen which went ashore on Clatsop spit last Sunday morning is a total wreck. From Capt. Johnson of the Columbia, we get the following particulars, in addition to what we published yesterday. He got to the scene of the wreck at daybreak and after standing by till two o'clock yesterday afternoon got the crew on board and came up to this place, meeting the Canby with a volunteer crew on board which was going down to rescue them. Yesterday morning the vessel keeled over and the crew took to the only boat they had left, a small affair leaking so badly that it took four men to bail her out. The tide was carrying them over to Sand Island when Captain Johnson got them on board.
