THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 7 cents a month, free of postage.

Forty-seven vessels in the river.
Steamer day; California up, Oregon down.

Adler still continues to get the latest novelties.
Max Wagner's San Francisco National
Wagner beer can't be beat.

Have you seen those Medallion rings at E. R. Hawes?
The street committee are sheathing Chenamus street east of Hamilton.

Dr. Lockhart, medical and surgical diseases of women. Rooms over City Book Store.

And still the wild geese go south.
It's a way they have, you musn't mind them.

Chas. Stevens and Son have added a new department to their stock: brackets and fancy moldings.

A large and well selected stock of the latest books, now on exhibition at Adler's book store.

The Washington Territory Legislature repealed the act creating a board of immigration.

The Sound oystermen are in considerable tribulation about a new oyster law. The old laws are not adequate for the business.

Fresh oysters in every style at Mrs.
Arrigo's.

The wash which is now cutting across Sand Island is due north of the buoy off Clatsop spit, and is cutting the island into equal parts.

The rate of pilot's fees, in the new Puget Sound law, is eight dollar for all classes of vessels, half fees where pilots are not taken.

Simpson & Co., of Chehalis Co., are preparing to build a large steam saw-mill at the mouth of the Hoquim river, and have commenced driving piles for their wharf.

Frank Fabre has oysters in every style. Stew and pan roasts a specialty.

The demand for homes still continues; we are personally cognizant of two weddings that are postponed because suitable houses cannot be procured. It's too bad, so it is.

Washington Territory is almost ready for women suffrage. That is it will be, by the time it becomes a sovereign State, the thirty-ninth star in the galaxy that glitters on our national flag.

Fresh lard, of their own manufacture, at Warren & Eaton's.

Two million feet of logs have been driven down the Newaukum river the last week, from Winston's logging camp to Haight's saw-mill, the majority of which are cedar logs of the finest kind.

The Cowlitz valley country is settling up fast, and if some assistance were given, in the way of opening a road to upper Cowlitz, the rich valley would soon become one of the most populous settled districts in Western Washington.

Hot, cold, and shower baths at the Occident hair dressing saloon, twenty-five cents.

The Oregon Improvement Company break and seed twelve thousand acres of land near Colfax, in Whitman county, next year. The company will divide these cultivated lands into tracts of various sizes, build houses upon them, and sell them on reasonable terms to immigrants. That's the kind of a way to populate the country.

Seattle P. I.
Eastern letter: "Dear sir: Send me two or three copies of your paper; how much farming land in your vicinity? What is labor worth? I may go out to Oregon in the spring." Ah, indeed. Well, if that's the kind of a man you are, you'd better stay where you are now. A man that wants us to work for nothing is way off his base.

A. W. Berry bought the wreck of the Broughton yesterday.

The Emma Crowell went up the river yesterday, Oklahoma towing.

The Scottish Knight and Philip Nelson were taken down to the bay yesterday.

The finest and freshest candies and French sweetmeats at Adler's. Newest novelties by every steamer.

Quite a number of Knights left for Portland yesterday morning to attend the Pythian parade to-day.

At Sheriff's sale yesterday the house and lot adjoining Dr. Kinsey's was bid in by C. H. Page.

The Coloma and Oracle came down yesterday. The former has a sweet-scented crowd on board, 200 Chinese.

Mr. John Rogers of the Central Market, has made arrangements to keep all the finest fresh fish, etc., in their season

E. P. Muir, of Upper Astoria, will build thirty boats this season, for Booth, Leinenweber, Union Packing Co., and others.

No, we're not in the personal business very heavy at present. If you want to know who is in town, look at the hotel arrivals, they appear every morning.

A Methodist convention, composed of all churches and Sunday schools of this denomination choosing to be represented, convened in Salem yesterday evening.

"Oh, where did you get that beautiful box of French candy?" "Why, at Adler's, of course. He gets a fresh supply by every steamer."

The hop to be given by the Olympic Club in Liberty Hall to-morrow evening, deserves especial patronage because of the purpose for which the funds are to be applied, viz: the Olympic gymnasium and athletic rooms.

Wouldn't it be a good idea to have those tidal observations renewed?
The observer could always determine the state of the bar in advance. It would not only be a matter of convenience, but would also tend to save life, especially in the fishing season.

We send out about 200 extra weeklies this week as sample copies of the kind of a paper we publish in As-toria. If any non-subscriber would like to get the newest paper in the State for one year, a paper that proposes to have an independent opinion on matters and things, let him or her send $2.00, and he or she'll never regret it.

These hats and caps for little fellows are selling rapidly at M. D. Kant's Merchant Tailor Establishment; no wonder, though, they are new and nobby styles and very cheap.

The Walla Walla Watchman says that a great want which remains to be filled is "a bevy of girls that will do housework for $12 or $15 a month." Why, bless you, the Mongolians here demand $40 a month, and as for girls; why, such begging and praying and coaxing you never saw to get one for a month; they're sometimes got for life with less trouble.

Mr. J. D. Mace, a resident of Chehalis for twenty-nine years, informs us that he has 6,000 lbs of butter on board the Emily Stephens, the product of Grays Harbor and vicinity for four months. He ships in bulk to this place and Portland. That country will be wonderfully productive when settled up by immigration. At present, Mr. Mace says they are not at all crowded.

Adler's new stock of goods, now being opened, is enormous. To enumerate the styles and varieties would be impossible. Take a look at them yourself.

Uncle Jessie Applegate of Yoncola, has gone to look after his swamp land interests. Uncle Jessie, as one of the celebrities of Oregon, has been hard at work for his party for upward of thirty years, and about the only thing, says the Plaindealer, he has received in remuneration for his services, has been a decided lack of appreciation from those whom he has served and been instrumental in lifting into positions of note.

From the Standard we learn that Judge Stott has rendered a decree in the case of the O. C. R. R. Co. vs.
Ben Holladay et al., which was submitted nearly a year ago. The suit was brought by the company to recover possession of fourteen blocks of land below the Clarendon Hotel, which were donated to it by Captains Couch and Flanders for depot purposes, but which had been appropriated to himself by Holladay when the road passed into his hands and had been decided by him to his sons Joseph and Ben Jr., the latter's wife and others. The decree gives the company full possession of the property and damages to the amount of $20,000.
This property at the time it was donated to the company was valued at $10,000 and is now worth probably $150,000. It is understood that the case will be appealed.

One hundred and fifty British and foreign vessels were wrecked during the week ending Oct. 15th. The approximate value of the lost property is $8,000,000, of which the sum of $5,000,000 represents the British losses. Eighty-five vessels, principally British, were lost on the coast of the United Kingdom during the gales which occurred just prior to the date mentioned, and 138 persons were reported lost or missing. No wonder that British shipmasters dread no coasts in the world so much as they do their own.

Policies in the Northwestern Marriage Insurance Co. are being taken in great numbers. H. J. Hansen, the agent for this place, reports several this week.
Any person desiring a policy should either see Mr. Hansen in person or address him a postal card at the Astorian post-office.

The Idea.

What a funny old fellow Horace Greeley was! Just listen to him:
"If you want a town to keep from thriving don't erect any more buildings than you can conveniently occupy yourself. If you should accidentally have an empty building, and any one should want to rent it, ask three times the value of it. Demand a Skyhook price for every spot of ground that God has given you stewardship over.
Turn a cold shoulder to every mechanic and business man who seeks to make a home with you. Look at every new corner with a scowl. Run down the work of new workmen. Go abroad for wares rather than to seek to do business in your midst. Fail to advertise, or in any other way to support your newspaper, so that the people abroad may not know whether business is going on in that town or not.
Wrap yourself within yourself with a coat of impervious selfishness. There is no more effectual way to retard the growth of a town than actions like those enumerated." Did you ever?

Messrs. Wieman and Logan went up to the State Agricultural College at Corvallis last Friday, having been appointed students at that institution by C. W. Fulton.

A splendid lot of Eastern Oysters just arrived by the State of California at Tom Smith's Oyster Saloon, Main street.

At the school house meeting held in Upper Astoria on Monday evening, it was decided to continue school for three months in the new house, probably commencing the 14th inst.

Messrs. Forstner and Powell have opened a trail from John Day's river hence, and are of the opinion that if the neighbors helped them, they would have little difficulty in making a good wagon road all the way.

Chas. Stevens and Son have a stock of mouldings and moulders tools which can be bought cheap for cash to close out that branch of the business.

A logger at Oak Point, named Jerry Hudson, was drowned at that place yesterday. He was rowing alongside a ship in a small boat when his boat capsized, and the unfortunate man sank almost immediately.

If it be not true, as Longfellow says, that "into each life some rain must fall," the Standard thinks we have a considerable surplus in Oregon for the purpose of "equitable adjustment" and to deal out to those unfortunate who don't get any.

Robert McDonald was arrested here last night by Special Officer Welscom of Astoria and Policeman Collins on a charge of larceny, committed at Astoria about a week ago. The complaint upon which the warrant for McDonald's arrest was based, charges him with entering and robbing a boarding house at that place. He is alleged to have stolen a number of articles, chiefly wearing apparel. He will be taken to Astoria to-day. Oregonian, 8th.

The steamer Fleetwood has discontinued her Sunday trips, deeming it more to the interest of the patrons of the boat to leave here on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and leave Portland on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, arriving at 120 P. M., giving passengers abundant time to transact business and return next morning.

The St. John Telegraph states that a proposal has been suggested to utilize the vast water supply of the extreme north of America by closing the northerly outlet of the valley of the Mackenzie River at the line of the 68th degree, and thus storing up the water of 1,200,000 square miles, to which could be added the water of other large areas. A lake would be formed of about 2000 miles in length by 200 miles of an average width, which would cover with one continuous surface the labyrinth of streams and valleys which now occupy the Mackenzie valley. It would be a never failing feeder for the Mississippi, and would connect with Hudson Bay and the great lakes, and also with the interior of Alaska through the Yukon and its affluents.

What pleasure it is to pay ones debts! In the first place, it removes that unpleasant which a person feels from dependence and obligation. It affords pleasure to the creditor, and therefore gratifies our social affection. It produces that future confidence which is so interesting to an honest mind. It opens a prospect of being readily supplied with what you want on future occasions.
It leaves a consciousness of our virtue; and it is a measure we know to be right, both in point of justice and sound economy. Finally, it is the main support of simple reputation. Pay us, that we may pay others.

The inhabitants of Northwest and Western Oregon, including twelve counties of the State, and embracing the great valley of the Willamette and its "forks," enjoy seven months of spring, summer and autumn weather that are almost equal to southern or eastern Oregon for bright and cheerful weather and a bracing and healthy atmosphere. The five winter months, from November to March, bring a beautiful rain that produces in due season, unfailing crops. These rains retard, but scarcely prevent, labor outside, in any department, and of 150 days of winter, at least a third of them are dry and bright.

Merchants or others finding inaccuracies in our shipping list will confer a favor by reporting the same to this office.
