The Olympic Club
 There is an institution in this city which is deserving of praise and commendation, and we are glad to hear that members propose to make it an assured success this winter. We refer to the Astoria Olympic Club. About a year ago the association incorporated, rented a hall, fitted it up with all the necessary apparatus—Indian clubs, horizontal and parallel bars, rings, ladders, etc., and have the whole business fixed up in a manner creditable to a place much larger than Astoria. 'Tis hardly needful to state the advantages of light gymnastic exercises for young men from 17 to 70. To develop the muscles, to bring them into the highest state of activity, to keep the body healthy and the brain clear, nothing is better than judicious physical exercise. It improves the carriage and appearance of the individual, and is as indispensable as sleep, or food, or bathing, to those who regard health as the prime attribute of existence. Muscles are like magnets, they lose power through disease, and like magnets they grow stronger the more they are used. "A sound mind in a sound body" was a maxim of the ancients, and it is one that is self-evident. The most advanced educators of the day endorse gymnastics as being a vital necessity, co-equal with mental culture. Half an hour's daily practice in a gymnasium well repays one in the glow of health and vigor that it gives the frame, and to enjoy the fullest measure of benefit it is better to keep up the practice, for various reasons; such a room as the Olympics can be made a pleasant place of social resort for young men, who, in its absence, might frequent places that would be more of a detriment than a benefit. We understand that it is the intention of the managers to admit members this season, who, upon payment of a small initiation fee can enjoy all the benefits and privileges of the gymnasium.
 -J. F. Warren, of Knappa, advertises for men.
 -The tug Tacoma, from the Sound is expected here next week.
 -H. B. Litt writes us that he cannot be in Astoria before January 1st.
 -A Portland clairvoyant advertises that she wears no aliases. Well, that's all right.
 -Dr. Jennings died at twenty minutes past four Sunday morning, and was buried from Franklin's undertaking rooms at two o'clock yesterday afternoon.
 -William Gray, a Portland pioneer suicided last Sunday morning by placing the muzzle of a loaded shot gun in his mouth and touching off the trigger with his foot.
 -Geo. Maxwell, second assistant engineer of the Portland Fire Department, died at St. Vincent's hospital last Saturday morning, and was buried Sunday afternoon.
 -The open lodge meeting at the hall of the I. O. of G. T., at 7:30 this evening, will be addressed by Rev. R. V. Milligan, Rev. J. R. McCormack and others. All are invited to attend.
 -P. J. Goodman, on Chenamus street, has just received the latest and most fashionable style of gents and ladies boots, shoes, etc.
 -The Seaside Lyceum is a popular organization on Clatsop plains. Meetings are held Saturday evenings at the church. Frank Ward is President, and Albert Allen Secretary.
 -You can subscribe at Adler's for any periodical published in Europe or America. His subscription agency embraces all countries.
 -Hazlett, the "pilgrim," whom every printer on the coast knows, is under arrest at Red Bluff, Cal., for alleged mail robbery. They'll never be able to prove it though.
 -Do you like fresh family of good quality? If you do, call at Carl Adler's and get some.
 -Mrs. Arrigoni, having disposed of her business here, leaves for Portland to-day, at which place she will in the future conduct a lodging house. She desires to return thanks to her friends and patrons during her residence in Astoria, and will be pleased to have the patronage of her Astoria acquaintances when they visit the metropolis.
 -The City Book Store has an exhibition one of the finest selection of holiday goods ever opened. Call and examine for yourselves.
 -In Nov. '80, 165,530 cents of wheat were cleared on outward bound vessels from the Columbia. In Nov. '81, 615,393 cents of wheat went out on vessels from the Columbia. In Nov. '80, the total value of Columbia river exports was $484,012; in Nov. '81, the total value of Columbia river exports was $1,246,983. There's another article on the Columbia bar, just as short and full of meaning as any of the series.

Buy the Weekly.
 THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN for this week is full of just such information and news of the country as your friends in the east want to see. It has very few advertisements, and is check to the muzzle of information that no family can afford to be without. Two dollars will buy the paper for a year, $1.50 for six months, or ten cents per copy.

To Live Men.
 THE ASTORIAN has now reached a circulation which places it at the head of the list of Oregon dailies, and insures to advertisers thereof more benefit for the amount paid than may be secured elsewhere. To those who wish to reach the largest number of readers at the smallest expense, we offer the columns of an attractive daily, the success of which from the very start has been far beyond the expectations of the most sanguine.

BURNETT'S COCOAINS.
 Unlike all other Hair Dressings. Is the best for promoting the growth of and beautifying the hair, and rendering it dark and glossy. The Cocaine is held in a liquid form, a large proportion of deodorized coconut oil, prepared expressly for this purpose. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair. The superiority of BURNETT'S FLAVORING EXTRACTS consists in their perfect purity and great strength.
