THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 75 cents a month, freight postage. Readers who cannot visit Astoria from the city can have THE ASTORIAN follow them, DAILY or WEEKLY editions to any post-office without additional expense.

Another wedding to-night. Small pox is extinct in New Tacoma.

What's become of that Shakespearian society? The jingle of sleigh bells is heard on Dayton's streets.

Frank Fabre has oysters in every style. Stew and pan roasts a specialty. Portland small pox patients are all convalescent.

Fresh lard, of their own manufacture, at Warren & Eaton's. Call in at Demont's drug store and sign that petition.

Max Wagner's San Francisco National brewery beer can't be beat. The city treasurer gives notice in reference to the payment of certain warrants.

Another of those fine A. B. Chase organs at the City Book Store. The spot where the editor of the Polaris was born is described in Harper's Magazine.

Hot, cold, and shower Baths at the Occident hair dressing saloon, twenty-five cents. Let's see—paricide, matricide, suicide, regicide, fratricide; what's the name for one who kills a sister.

J. W. Conn has removed to the old stand of Warren and Eaton, opposite the Occident. The Rev. Talmage, of Brooklyn, is authority for the startling statement that hell is strewn with tobacco leaves.

Whips, curry-combs, brushes; new stock; first class goods, cheap for cash. S. GEAY. "Heaven from all creatures hides the book of Fate," but we have among us one who claims to be able to read the future.

Mr. John Rogers of the Central Market, has made arrangements to keep all the finest fresh fish, etc., in their season. Capt. Nickels, of the tug Tacoma, is at the Occident. He has not yet decided as to bringing over his vessel.

The City Book Store has an exhibition one of the finest selection of holiday goods ever opened. Call and examine for yourselves. The Rutenbeck will not come to the Columbia this season, she having been chartered to load wheat in San Francisco.

Warren & Eaton have moved to the corner of Hamilton and Chenamus streets, in the building formerly occupied by Trecheard & Uphur. The recent enactment of the Territorial legislature will doubtless lead to an increase in the number of drug stores throughout the Territory.

Chas. Stevens and Son have a stock of mouldings and moulders tools which can be bought cheap for cash to close out that branch of the business. The historic building across the street from our office is tilted up, and the domestic establishment of Wing Gee is seriously affected thereby.

The building commenced to give way early yesterday morning and about seven yesterday afternoon fell with a loud crash. Mr. P. J. Goodman, on Chenamus street, has just received the latest and most fashionable style of gents and ladies boots, shoes, etc.

S. J. Tilden converses in whispers to economize his strength, but now and then he stentoriously announces that his left lung is all right. Scotch butter, Russian apricot and lots more of those celebrated candies and sweet meats just received at Adler's, fresh from the factory.

C. A. Wheeler will organize a council of the order of Chosen Friends at Workmen's hall, in this city, on Saturday evening at eight o'clock. The New Testament authorized edition revised, for twenty-five cents at Charles Stevens and Sons City Book store.

Notice.

The legal voters of the second ward in the city of Astoria, are hereby requested to meet at the Delmonico Restaurant building in said ward, at 7 o'clock Friday evening, December 9, 1881, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for councilman to be voted for at the coming municipal election, and also to select delegates to confer with like delegates from the first ward in selecting a candidate for mayor.

CITIZENS "Secret Societies."

The lecture delivered by C. A. Wheeler at Liberty hall on Wednesday evening on the above subject was well attended. The speaker explained to some length the objects and purposes of the "Order of Chosen Friends," an organization, which although less than three years old, has become quite popular.

Steamer day, State up, Oregon down. 328 arrests in Portland during November. The Portland city assessment will aggregate $11,000,000.

Enslilage has been pronounced a failure in California. The Kirkwood cleared at Portland last Wednesday with 23,744 cents wheat.

The N. P. R. R. Co. is selling large blocks of land to intending English colonists. The Santon cleared for Queens-town yesterday with 16,621 cents of wheat aboard, worth $27,425.

If three feet multiplied by three feet equal nine square feet; will three men multiplied by three men equal nine square men? Judson Kilpatrick, famous from his cavalry command in Sherman's "Marching through Georgia," and afterwards U. S. Minister to Chili, died last Sunday.

The price of subscription to THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN has been reduced to $2 per annum when paid in advance. If not paid in advance the old price of $3 will be charged. During the recent prevalence of small pox which Dayton was afflicted, business houses opened at 8 A. M. and closed at 4 P. M. Men patrolled the town hourly, and a Sunday quiet existed.

For the genuine J. H. Cutler old Bourbon, and the best of wines, liquors and San Francisco beer, call at the Gem opposite the bell tower, and see Campbell. A Portland paper is now publishing a story entitled "Sugar-coated Sam; or the Black gowns of Grim Gulch." It will probably be followed by "The poisoned gum-drops; or, the candy-woman's revenge."

Mrs. Twilight and Mrs. Hilsley have taken charge of the Pioneer Restaurant, which has been thoroughly renovated and refitted. Mrs. Hilsley has charge of the cuisine. Good coffee a specialty. Some time ago a party of Monterey fishermen organized a whale catching association, and the result for the month of November was a dividend of $200 to each member of the corporation.

The bark Glimpse was lost Thursday, October 20th, about 240 miles from the Australian coast. All on board were saved except the Captain's son, second mate and cook. The Glimpse was laden with 300,000 feet of lumber and 8,000 pickets from Puget Sound for Melbourne. Julius Halbsguth, music teacher for piano, organ or voice culture. Cleaning organs will be properly attended to by leaving orders at Adler's book and variety store.

At the annual meeting of stockholders of the Pythian Land and Building Association of Astoria, the following were elected Directors for the year commencing on the 1st of January, 1882: E. A. Noyes, G. G. Smith, W. Douglas, Jay Tattle, and F. C. Young. Fred. C. Hyde, late with Joe C. Charters, has associated himself with L. Olier at the Parker House baths and barber shop, where they will be pleased to serve their friends.

Mr. Fellows, agent for Bell & Fellows' washing powders, calls attention to the superior quality of his goods for rendering washing easy; he has left samples of his goods at the stores of several of our leading grocers, and those who have had trouble in getting out their washing would do well to get at least a sample package. J. C. Trullinger has commenced building a box factory, 50x100 feet, alongside his saw mill, and by New Years will be ready to turn out boxes. He has purchased sufficient tools and machinery to insure the making of first-class work, and thinks that he ought to be able to make his share of the five hundred thousand boxes to be made here in Astoria for the next season's fishing.

Notice.

L. E. Seitz is hereby authorized to collect all bills due me and receipt for the same. DR. W. D. BAKER. Astoria, Dec. 8, 1881.

Arizona Lodging House, Portland, Oregon. New house and first class in its appointments. Third street, in R. E. Thompson's block, opposite Capt. Ainsworth. Rooms by the day, week or month. Mrs. E. ABBEON.

Masquerade Soiree. Any one desirous of procuring a suit for the Masquerade Ball on the 20th inst., can be supplied by leaving their order at Mrs. S. T. McKean's. All orders should be in by the 21st inst.

Special Notice. The undersigned wishes to announce to his patrons and many friends that he has secured the services of a barber, who will be here on the next steamer; one of the best on the coast, and far superior to the one he had last, particularly in hair-cutting and dyeing. Yours respectfully, JOE G. CHARTER, Proprietor of the Orient Bathing Rooms, the finest in the city, opposite Holden's auction store, Astoria, Or.

Excerpta. The Marion county Anti-Monopoly League issues an address dealing with figures and alleged facts, and claiming that there is corrupt means being used to secure the election of officers who favor monopolies and who may be unduly influenced by the peculiar privileges that monopolies are charged with conferring. It claims that three years ago there existed on the Columbia and Willamette rivers a line of transportation, with facilities sufficient to do the business of these routes. This property was highly estimated at a value of $2,000,000, but was sold to the O. R. & N. Co. for $5,000,000. In addition to this purchase from the O. S. N. Co., by the O. R. & N. Co., of the Columbia and Willamette routes, for which was paid $5,000,000, there was purchased by the O. R. & N. Co. the property of the Oregon Steamship company, for which was paid $4,677,000, less $199,000 paid for real estate. This property consisted of the steamships Columbia, Oregon, Elder and City of Chester, and the wharf and dock at Portland, altogether worth not to exceed $1,500,000, and for which was paid $4,478,000. The purchase was made by a party who was manager of the company that sold and also of the one that purchased. This fact accounts for the amount paid being about three times the real value of the property. The amount of these purchases made by the O. R. & N. Co. aggregated $9,747,000, while the true value thereof would not exceed $3,699,000. The writers of the address are of the opinion that the people should pass a law compelling each railroad company to furnish a detailed statement of its works; and that its stock issue shall be confined to the amount so reported, on which stockholders shall be entitled to a dividend not to exceed ten per cent per annum—making a forfeiture of franchise the penalty for violation of such law.

We regret to hear of the serious illness of Mrs. Wm. H. Gray, of Olney. Capt. J. H. Gray and wife go up this morning. By a resolution of the Portland city council, the school superintendent and principals have been appointed special policemen. This is playing it pretty fine on the boys.

At the Election of Astor Lodge No. 6, K. of P., held Dec. 7th, 1881, the following officers were elected: N. Jones, C. C.; J. E. Thomas, V. C.; F. C. Young, P.; J. O. Bozorth, K. of P. and C. A. T. Brakke, M. of F.; I. Bergman, M. of E.

A large canning establishment is about to be started in Sacramento by J. H. Carroll of that place, and Hickmott and Ashbray, of San Francisco. Fruit canning will be its principal industry, but saloon and other articles suitable to be canned will also be utilized. Prominent residents of Sacramento have subscribed $40,000 towards a second establishment of the kind in that city.

Defining Routes.

A circular has been issued by the United States Treasury Department providing for the defining of routes of passenger steamers on the face of the certificates of inspection, addressed to Supervising and local Inspectors of Steam Vessels, which reads thus: The term "inland," when used in certificate of inspection of passenger steamers, as descriptive of the waters upon which such steamers may be navigated, is indefinite and vague. Inspectors are instructed that, in addition to naming the routes upon which steamers are respectively employed—if running upon regular routes—they will, in future, interline upon all certificates of inspection of passenger steamers, issued by them, the legal designation of the waters upon which such vessels may be navigated, as ocean, lake, bay, sound (Sections 4,488, 4,489, R. S.), or river, (Section 4,481, R. S.), as the case may be; and in every instance they will require the equipments provided by the sections of law quoted above, and the rules and regulations of the Board of Inspectors, according to the character of the waters in which the vessel may be employed.

Choice Fruit. All of the choicest kinds of apples in the largest boxes for sale at J. H. D. Gray's.

Williamsport Property. Great bargains are now offered in the city of Williamsport for any persons wishing to locate from one lot to five acres. It is well adapted for gardens, dairy ranches or pleasant homes; well elevated, situated one mile south of Astoria on Youngs bay, with a good graded road to the place. For further information call at my residence near the cemetery. JOHN WILLIAMSON.

Buy the Weekly. THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN for this week is full of just such information and news of the country as your friends in the east want to see. It has very few advertisements, and is check to the muzzle of information that no family can successfully squeeze along without. Two dollars will buy the whole year for a year, $1.50 for six months, or ten cents per copy.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE. Unlike all Other Hair Dressings, is the best for promoting the growth of and beautifying the hair, and rendering it dark and glossy. The Cocaine holds in a liquid form, a large proportion of devolatilized cocoa-butter, prepared expressly for this purpose. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair. The superiority of BURNETT'S FLAVORING EXTRACTS consists in their perfect purity and great strength.
