A very large audience assembled Monday, Dec. Mh. to witness the opening performance of Hill's Varieties. The entertainment commenced with a brilliant first part, Mr. Mitt Johnson being a very prominent feature, keeping the addence in a continuous roar of laughter. Mr. Harry Glein sang "Little Empty Cradic" with great feeling, and was heartily electred. Miss Lyntton vocalized Beil Maisons "which was well received. Last, but not least, Mr. Kohler contributed his tunny sevanes. The whole concluded with the hite finals.

The Skids are Out To Day. The oho consisted of the comical act of "Rats" mingled with songs and dances, Johnson in his great character of SAMUEL, THE CREAT.

Punch and Judy, Poison Milk and Datch Justice.

All of which were well rendered. The mu-sleinns are, without any exceptions, the best on this coast and have few superiors any where else. Performance every night, com-mencing at 8; open air concert at 7; en-trance to then ire on Lenton street; privace boxes on Chemanus street.
