THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 25 cents a month, free of postage. Readers who contemplate absence from the city can have THE ASTORIAN follow them, DAILY or WEEKLY editions to any post-office without additional expense. Addresses may be changed as often as desired. Leave orders at the counting room.

The Springpatam was towed down yesterday.

And now the folks begin to think about Christmas.

Fresh candy every day at the Astoria candy factory.

The Oklahama brought down the Emma T. Crowell yesterday.

For your sweet hearts, go to the Astoria candy factory.

Flowers are blooming in the open air in several places through the city.

Another of those fine A. B. Chase organs at the City Book Store.

It insults a man in Deadwood to tell him that he isn't worth lynching.

Hot, cold, and shower baths at the Occident hair dressing saloon, twenty-five cents.

A strong wind from the south; heavy rain and little prospect of clearing up.

It is said that no ship that has carried the name of Jasper has ever made a second voyage.

Fresh lard, of their own manufacture, at Warren & Eaton's.

Bethel service on board the Algon Bay at Flavel's wharf, at 4 p. m., Rev. J. Parsons officiating.

Frank Fabre has oysters in every style. Stew and pan roasts a specialty.

Walla Walla fishermen catch 200 pound sturgeon and sell them for twelve and a half cents a pound.

J. A. Montgomery, agent for the Magee stoves and ranges. First-class workmen constantly employed.

The Seattle Chronicle states that the tug Tacoma would leave there for the Columbia on the 15th or 16th inst.

Xmas, New Year's, and birth-day cards, the finest ever in the city, at the City Book Store.

The Glenperis which sailed from Astoria August 11th with $261,500 worth of salmon on board, arrived at London on the 7th.

The maskers' tickets are going off rapidly, but we shall have lots left. Call and procure yours, and encourage others to do the same.

The schooner Rebecca, from Shoalwater bay to San Francisco, reports passing part of a wreck with a large spar attached.

All parties desirous of masking at the coming masquerade can secure all necessary information from Frank L. Parker.

The reason that the new county jail is being painted white, is that the contractors have employed men to paint it that color.

J. W. Conn has removed to the old stand of Warren and Eaton, opposite the Occident.

The bark Peableshire and Rainbow cleared for Queenstown yesterday. They have on board 59,501 cents wheat, worth $100,390.

The Jubilee Troupe have engaged a quadrille band from Portland, to play at the masquerade.

Services of the M. E. Church in the Baptist church to-day at 11 o'clock by the pastor. Mr. Parsons did not go to Clatsop plains as he intended.

The Jubilee Troupe have engaged a full Quadrille Band from Portland, the best in that city.

The manufacturers of oleomargarine butter have struck a new wrinkle. They now mix in hair with the fat and things, and defy detection.

M. D. Kant will telegraph the last batch of mask suits next Monday; none later accepted.

Africa doesn't export wheat to Europe as Oregon does, but 1,500 pound of diamonds went over to London from the dark continent last year.

There was a wild rumor afloat yesterday that Megler & Wright's laundryman had opened a laundry in Seattle. When last seen he was heading that way at a lightning rate of speed.

Grand Announcement.

To the public of Astoria, one and all, take notice of the following dispatch I received last week from one of the largest houses in San Francisco, dealing altogether in holiday goods, toys, etc.

Mr. L. E. SELIG, Astoria, Or.
 DEAR SIR:—Having received our holiday goods behind time this season, we would like to ship you Three Thousand dollars worth, which you may dispose of regardless of cost, as we need money and have to take this method of recouping the same. Answer immediately.

HADUS, DOLPH & CO.,
 San Francisco.

Having accepted the above offer I will open this large lot of Christmas and holiday goods regardless of cost, on Monday, Dec. 19, 1881, at the sign of the red flag on Main street, next door to the White House and opposite N. Loe's. This is no humbug, nor do I intend to give the public any taffy. Look out for further announcements. Respectfully yours,
 L. E. SELIG.

P. S.—MY GOODS AND PRICES WILL SATISFY THE PUBLIC THAT THEY HAVE NOT BEEN PURCHASED IN PORTLAND.

Opening of M. E. Church.

On Tuesday evening next, the 20th inst., the Methodist Episcopal church will introduce the public to their new building by holding a dime sociable and bazaar in the same for its benefit. The entertainment will consist of vocal and instrumental music, recitations and readings. Suitable refreshments will also be served. The sum of ten cents will be charged for admission; no collection will be taken and all who wish to aid so worthy an enterprise and spend an enjoyable evening will do well to attend. In the afternoon the bazaar will be open for those who wish to make purchases. Any person wishing to donate anything can leave the same at J. W. Conn's drug store.

List of Jurors.

List of persons drawn to serve as jurors at the January term, 1882, of the Circuit Court of the state of Oregon for the county of Clatsop, drawn December 15, 1881, by A. M. Trumbull, Sheriff, and R. R. Spedden, County Clerk of said county:

Andrew Anderson, Henry Gist, Philip Condit, H. Caraban, Philo Callender, Job Ross, James W. Welch, G. W. Parker, Frank Byrd, Moses A. Riddle, G. W. Coffenberry, H. O. Graf, Charles Grotke, James McGee, S. B. Howard, Frank M. Sweet, J. F. Kindred, Henry Powell, Uriah Hapell, P. H. Bagley, James McCann, F. Bartoldus, Joseph Gibson, Josiah West, W. A. Foster, S. B. Barrows, Charles Bruce, G. B. McEwan, A. E. Tarlay, Benjamin Young, W. J. Franklin.

The third annual masquerade of the Rescue Jubilee Troupe, at Liberty hall Dec. 29th, will be conducted as heretofore. These parties are the best conducted and most enjoyable of anything during the year.

Go to the Presbyterian church this morning and hear a calm, candid, christian view of a Christmas ball.

Max Wagner's San Francisco National very beer can't be beat.

Presbyterian church services at 11 a. m., conducted by the pastor. Text: "A time to dance." Sunday school at noon.

Mrs. S. A. Hebert will only remain in Astoria this week. Ladies wishing to purchase will do well to bear this in mind.

Work upon the I. S. N. Co's new boat will be stopped for some ten days, awaiting the arrival from the East of drawings of a portion of the machinery.

Warren & Eaton have moved to the corner of Hamilton and Chenamus streets, in the building formerly occupied by Trenchard & Uphur.

It is iterated and reiterated with great show of truth that "you might as well have the game as the name." But how manifestly unjust to some of the old Egyptians—Pharaoh for instance.

A new and specially assorted list of ladies' and gents' masks, all from San Francisco, at very low rates of rent, at M. D. Kant's, Merchant Tailor.

The Marquis of Bute is a sensible fellow. He ran a daily paper over in Cardiff, Wales, and losing £80,000 concluded he'd quit the newspaper business, which the same evinced great presence of mind on the part of the Marquis.

The Orient Baths are far superior to any in the city. Everything new and neat. Chenamus street, opposite Holden's auction rooms. Joe G. Charters, proprietor.

There was a good attendance at the Presbyterian social given on Friday evening at the residence of Mr. John Hobson. Though stormy without, within "all went merry as a marriage bell." The evening was spent in sociability, games, music and literary entertainment.

Fellow's Hypophosphites differs from all hitherto produced in composition, mode of preparation, and in general effects, and is sold in its original form. It was developed from actual personal experiment, embracing many months, while the inventor was suffering from pulmonary consumption, and nervous debility. The good results following its first use have since been repeated in numerous other cases.

For the genuine J. H. Cutler old Bourbon, and the best of wines, liquors and San Francisco beer, call at the firm, opposite the bell tower, and see Campbell.

Merwanjee Framjee.

This fine clipper which is discharging a consignment of salt and tin at Hunter's wharf, is owned by Samuel Johnson & Co. She was built at Glasgow, on the Clyde, by John Reid & Son and launched April 1865. She is classed A* 1, which subjects her to ordinary inspection once in four years and a thorough inspection once in twelve years. Her length is 217 feet, 35 feet beam, 22 1/2 feet depth of hold, and 1679 tons register. She has three compartments and an extra bulkhead amidships. She also has collision bulkheads at each end. Her ribs and deck beams are extra close and strong; her decks are further strengthened by a system of radial iron bracing. A set of sectional deck beams which can be removed gives her unusual facilities for carrying large machinery. The plates of which her hull is constructed are three-quarter inch, extra strong. Her lower masts and lower yards are of iron. She carries three chronometers; one of them, a fine one by Carter of Cornhill, London, was presented her by Merwanjee Framjee Pandey, a wealthy Parsee merchant of Bombay, in whose honor she was named. No doubt the aforesaid merchant was a good and kind man, but his jaw-breaking name has certainly caused untold agonies. She has had but two masters; Capt. Pike sailed her till 1868, then her present Captain, Bidwell, took charge of her. She has the reputation of being a fast sailer, having made the trip from London to Auckland in 72 days, and once to Adelaide in 75 days. Capt. Bidwell has commanded her for thirteen years, and although she is an old ship he spares neither pains nor paint to keep her in as good repair as the new clippers. After her cargo is discharged it is the practice to wipe her out thoroughly with wet flannel. There is not the slightest disagreeable smell of bilge about her, and the care bestowed upon her is apparent on inspection both above and below.

Marriage Insurance.

Attention is directed to the peculiar advantages offered to the unmarried by the Northwestern Marriage Insurance Company. In other insurance companies you have to die to win. In this you derive a benefit from your investment in case of marriage.

EXAMPLE.
 James Brown, at the age of 22, takes out a policy for $1,000, pays $9 down and $2.50 monthly for 12 months, in all, $32. If he marries during the last half of the year, he will at the close of that year be entitled to $225, which is one-fourth of the amount of his policy less four annual premiums of $6 each, which are deducted. Had he deferred marriage until the last half of the second year, paying one annual and 12 monthly premiums more as in the previous year, he would receive at the close of that year, one-half the amount of insurance, less three annual premiums, viz: $225 less $18, or the net sum of $207; and at the close of the third year, paying and marrying as before, he would receive three-fourths the amount of insurance, less two annual premiums, or the net sum of $315, and upon like conditions at the close of the fourth year, he will receive $400, the entire benefit. And in like manner, according to age, a policy for $2,000 will require the payment of twice as much annual and monthly premiums; for $3,000, three times as much; for $4,000, four times as much, and so on; while the benefits will be also in the same increased proportion. By referring to the table of annual and monthly premiums, which shows the amounts required to be paid, according to age, on each $1,000, the exact cost and accruing benefits for any amount of insurance required, may be easily computed.
