THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 75 cents a month, free of postage.

The jail has no occupants.

The barkentine North Bend came in Sunday.

WANTED.—Men to make shingles. Inquire at the Chicago House.

The Ordway towed the Frith of Tay up river yesterday.

Frank Fabre has oysters in every style. Stew and pan roasts a specialty.

There are over 500 telegraph offices on the Pacific coast.

Fine assortment nuts and candies at the Astoria Candy Factory.

Get-o is the way it is pronounced; the "a" being sounded as in "rat."

The land grant on the Cascade branch aggregates 7,168,000 acres.

Another of those fine A. B. Chase organs at the City Book Store.

Father Powers returned on the Oregon from Santa Clara, much improved in health.

Fresh candy every day at the Astoria candy factory.

An inch of rain on one acre of land amounts to over a hundred and thirteen tons' weight of water.

A large invoice of parlor, cook stoves and ranges at J. A. Montgomery's.

The Alice brought down the Glenadam Sunday, and started up yesterday with the North Bend.

Articles that sold last week for $9 at Carl Adler's, are marked down to $1.50, $1.50 articles to $1, and so on.

If the ladies who intend to receive callers on New Year's day will furnish their names we will be glad to publish them.

Max Wagner's San Francisco National brewery beer can't be beat.

The British bark Doon, 817 tons, Grange master, 64 days from Brisbane arrived in Sunday, Malcolm brought her in.

Turkeys, geese and chickens a Warren and Eaton's.

A new and most interesting question is now being discussed in all scientific circles. It is, "What becomes of the north currents?"

Hot, cold and shower baths at the Occident hair dressing saloon, twenty-five cents.

Hold your breath and see how long you can count aloud without expiring. One man tried it yesterday, but his breath was too strong for him.

There are a few more chances left yet to win one of those lovely dolls which are to be raffled at Mrs. Derby's, New Years eve.

Carl Adler gives notice that to clear out the holiday stock and make room for new goods, he will sell at a reduced price for the remainder of the year.

You can get some nice New Year's presents at Adler's for less money than last week.

In proving that Guiteau at one time tried to buy a newspaper, Scoville expects to make his best point as evidence of insanity on the part of the defendant.

It is not yet too late to get your girl a nice writing desk and some stationery at Carl Adler's.

The facts of yesterday being the day after Christmas, Monday, observed by a good many as a holiday, the stores closed, stormy, etc., made it somewhat dull.

You ought to buy one of those illustrated works at Adler's for your brother and sister.

Capt. Ohlsen reports the Norwegian bark Alert outside. She is from Arendale and is loaded with coal. There are twelve or fourteen other vessels in the offing.

The Council of New Tacoma has levied a tax of one cent on the dollar on all property within the corporation, to pay the indebtedness incurred by the visitation of the small-pox.

Card of Thanks.

EDITOR ASTORIAN: Let me, through the medium of your paper, express my most sincere thanks to Mrs. Santa Claus (the dear old son)

Astoria, Dec. 26, 1881.

Almost Impossible.

The Petaluma Courier says that the negotiations between Villard and Donahue for the purchase of the San Francisco and North Pacific railroad, which was pending for some months, was brought to an abrupt termination

The pilot schooner J. C. Cousins came in Sunday.

Prof. Stanley, the accomplished blind musician, is visiting his friends in Astoria.

It is thought that the London and San Francisco bank will start a branch in Portland.

The sailors arrested for desertion came up on the Gen. Canby to-day. They will be tried in Portland before R. H. Lawson, U. S. commissioner.

S. Arndt and Ferchen are putting some line shafting into Badollet & Co.'s cannery which will connect with two soldering machines, and other machinery.

For handsome holiday presents, such as toilet cases, cologne sets, perfumery cases, fine soaps, etc., go to Conn's drug store, opposite Occident Hotel.

The Oregon and Columbia went to sea Sunday afternoon, the former crossing out about fifteen minutes ahead. The Columbia will probably get to San Francisco first, and will get back here about New Years.

Better 20 than wish you had. Where? Why, to Adler's to get goods at 25% per cent discount. Carly says he just deliriums in showing goods.

Ten nights in a bar-room" has been modified of late so as to be a night in ten bar-rooms, and judging from the appearance of two or three of the boys yesterday it would seem as though they had been playing a very successful engagement.

Xmas, New Year's, and birth-day cards, the finest ever in the city, at the City Book Store.

A man from Wood River, says that county is a paradise for bald-headed men. Owing to some peculiarity in the climate or the water, men who went there last spring with heads as bald as billiard balls, now have fine growths of hair started.

A thing of beauty is a joy forever. Any one of those beautiful things at Adler's will be a present and perpetual joy if you buy and give it to the one you like best.

The Oregon, the barks Belle of Oregon, Emma T. Crowell, the E. N. Cooke, Dixie Thompson, Bonita, Ocklohama, Ordway, and the barges Columbia and Autocrat, lay at the O. R. & N. Co.'s dock Sunday morning.

Chas. Stevens and Son have a stock of mouldings and moulders tools which can be bought cheap for cash to close out that branch of the business.

"Check," that element of our nineteenth century civilization, has no better exponent than John Alden, agent of the American Book Exchange. He sends us a "three-quarter column puff of his defunct concern, and says he would like to have it published by the "friendly" editor.

Grace Church school, Miss Hewett principal, will reopen Jan. 9th, 1882. The select nature of this school makes it deservedly popular with parents.

The fund for the Garfield monument has reached $71,497. Of this $23,497 was from dollar subscriptions. The States of Ohio, Iowa and New York lead the list in the order named. Ohio has subscribed four fifths of the total, and the city of Cleveland two thirds of it, or about $48,000.

Card of Thanks.

To the two young ladies of the Presbyterian Sunday school, and to all who were interested in getting up that nice well filled purse which came to me through Mrs. Santa Claus and the Christmas tree, I hereby tender my very sincere thanks.

Handsome Christmas Present.
