

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, DEC. 28, 1881

ISSUED EVERY MORNING. (Monday Excepted.) J. F. HALLORAN & COMPANY. PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS. Astorian Building, Cass Street.

Terms of Subscription: served by Carrier, per week... sent by mail, four months... sent by mail, one year...

Advertisements inserted by the year at the rate of $1.50 per square per month. Transient advertising, by the day or week, fifty cents per square for each insertion.

THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 75 cents a month, free of postage. Readers who contemplate absence from the city can have THE ASTORIAN follow them, DAILY or WEEKLY editions to any post-office without additional expense. Addresses may be changed as often as desired. Leave orders at the counting room.

The skating rink will be open to-night. Mrs. Ben Strang of Salem is visiting friends at this place. You ought to buy one of those illustrated works at Adler's for your brother and sister. Maine sold about $40,000 worth of chewing gum this year. Wanted—Men to make shingles. Inquire at the Chicago House. The Iwaco wharf has been enlarged so as to accommodate teams. Frank Fabro has oysters in every style. Stew and pan roasts a specialty. Two individuals were yesterday fined $5 for assault and battery, by Justice Fox.

Fine assortment hats and candies at the Astoria Candy Factory. At the West Shore mills are some fine fir planks 24 feet long and 42 inches wide. Another of those fine A. B. Chase organs at the City Book Store. Mr. Hendington has just completed for Mrs. Badolett one of the finest residences in town.

Fresh candy every day at the Astoria candy factory. The O. R. & N., and N. P. R. companies will build an $18,000 hotel at Wallula Junction next spring. A large invoice of parlor, cook stoves and ranges at J. A. Montgomery's. Puget Sound fishermen intend to do all they can toward developing their salmon trade next season.

Articles that sold last week for $2 at Carl Adler's, are marked down to $1.50 and $1.25 articles to $1, and so on. Jos. Paquet has the contract for building the barge for the Astoria Transportation Company. The barge will be 175 feet in length. Max Wagner's San Francisco National brewery beer can't be beat.

The Br. bk. Castle Head, from Valparaiso, and the British ship Duke of Connaught, from Cape of Good Hope, arrived in yesterday. Turkeys, geese and chickens a Warren and Eaton's. A prominent lumberman in Burlington has had his coat-of-arms painted on the panels of his carriage, with the Latin motto, "Vidi."

Hot, cold and shower baths at the Occident hair dressing saloon, twenty-five cents. The Yakima Record publishes the names of its good citizens. Nothing but our inability to get out a supplement prevents us from doing the same thing.

There are a few more chances left yet to win one of those lovely dolls which are to be raffled at Mrs. Derby's, New Years eve. Mr. Noyes received a telegram last evening from S. F., that the Columbia would leave there on the 30th. That will bring her in here New Year's day.

You can get some nice New Year's presents at Adler's for less money than last week. Merchants and business men generally tell us that their sales are greater this winter than they have been for the corresponding season in many years.

It is not yet too late to get your girl a nice writing desk and some stationery at Carl Adler's. Christmas was the thirty-second anniversary of the marriage of Judge P. Fox and wife. They have ten children living and nine grandchildren.

SHILOH'S CURE will immediately relieve Croup, whooping cough and Bronchitis. Sold by W. E. Dement. The ball Monday night was well patronized by the elite of the surrounding country; a number of the officers from the Cape and Fort were in attendance.

The Masquerade.

Liberty hall presented a brilliant spectacle last Monday evening as the merry maskers filed in and challenged detection from the spectators and each other. The hall was filled to such an extent that considerable trouble was experienced in getting room for more than thirty couple on the floor, but it was a good humored crowd and every one made so much fun for himself and his neighbors that no discomfort was felt. The grand march began at 9:15 and dancing continued till the medley at 4:30 yesterday morning. At the unmasking "I thought it was you" was the general remark, though many were gotten up so as to defy detection. Among the many present were Carlton Allen in a doberman; B. C. Vernon as a sailor; J. Macomber as a jockey; R. F. Pined, tall man; H. F. Prael, Scotchman; Lloyd Van Dusen, Satan; F. H. Sherman, English knight; Harry Hipple, Negro; Dan Ross, Hamlet; C. J. Bailey in a domino; Pat O'Hare, as Oration Puff; C. A. May, Colored politician; H. J. Hansen, Uncle Schneider; A. J. Wilson, Peter Pumpkin; Wm. Coleman, plantation Negro; O. Hansen, soldier; R. Coe, wild man; W. W. Taylor, organ grinder; J. Wrangle, Spanish knight; B. Cody, Hollander; J. M. Miller, sailor; Wm. Vaughn, Spaniard; Ed. Clough, skuleboy; W. Lord, skuleboy; Thos. Dillon, do; J. Davidson, German knight; O. P. Graham, Ping Ugly; S. T. McKean, Rip Van Winkle; A. C. Fisher, negress; M. Cronk, Aunt Keziah; F. W. Newell, Wash Woman; Tommy Parker, Skamokwah; T. S. Jewett, Fra Diavolo; L. E. Selig, Hoodlum; Robt. Carruthers, Uncle Sam; Wm. Stoddard, Knight; Chas. Cole, Humpty Dumpty; B. Van Dusen, Cavalier; N. H. Webber, Domino; D. Kindred, Scarlet Fever; S. Miller, Selig the Merchant.

RESCUE JUBILEE TROUPE.

Chas. H. Stockton, Pompey Snow; B. S. Worsley, Monk of St. Bernard; F. C. Norris, Johnny Quaker; James W. Hare, Pompey White; John W. Brown Peasant; G. C. Richardson, Figaro; Frank S. Parker, Folly; Ed. Z. Ferguson, Clown; H. T. Van Dusen, Shakespearian Fool; Frank W. Baltes, Peter Pumpkin. Miss Cronk, Autumn; Mrs. H. Boyse, Spanish Gypsy; Mrs. F. W. Hilsley, Gambler's Wife; Miss Laura Sherman, Child of the Regiment; Miss Ella Pope, Child of the Regiment; Miss Carnahan, Queen; Miss Gilbert, Domino; Miss Florence B. Kidder, Pink Domino; Miss Lena Kidder, Black Domino; Miss Mary Cryan, Old Maid; Miss Ida Yocum, Fairy Queen; Miss Agnes McCormick, Old Maid; Miss M. E. Vaughn, School Girl; Miss Delia Hansen, Two Orphans; Miss Ella Campbell, Two Orphans; Miss Nellie Young, Night; Mrs. Q. E. Ingalls, Vanity; Mrs. Robt. Carruthers, Lion. There were several others in the fine suits and gowns of great value, but we were unable to get the names of the characters they represented.

Henry Alexis, an intelligent young Indian, is teaching the school at Mukilishute, about thirty miles southeast of Seattle, where he has about a dozen pupils.

Grace Church school, Miss Hewitt principal, will reopen Jan. 30th, 1882. The select nature of this school makes it deservedly popular with parents.

Sheriff Twombly got a telegram yesterday from Constable Grant, of Portland, to Arrest Gustav Freibler for alleged larceny. Grant will come down for his man to-day.

Chas. Stevens and Son have a stock of mending and molder's tools which can be bought cheap for cash to close out this branch of the business.

The stornus of the past week have interfered a little with out-door building, though a great deal inside work is now being done on the new houses in process of construction.

Mrs. Twilight and Mrs. Hilsley have taken charge of the Pioneer restaurant, which has been thoroughly renovated and refitted. Mrs. Hilsley has charge of the cuisine. Good coffee a specialty.

J. I. Stout tells us that the highest tide he has seen on North Beach for many years occurred yesterday morning. He is fixing things up in good shape for next season.

P. J. Goodman, on Chenamus street, has just received the latest and most fashionable style of gents and ladies boots, shoes, etc.

The Missouri division of the N. P. R. R., reaching from Bismarck to Glendive, a distance of 321 miles, cost the company $2,000,000. On this division there are 480 bridges. Better go than wish you had. Where? Why, to Adler's to get goods at 25% per cent discount. Charley says he just deligths in showing goods.

The collision of two construction trains at Spokane Falls on the 24th inst., caused the death of Kitchen, a conductor, and Nicholas Meteloff, Sproule and Ellis were injured.

Fashion Hints.

Sagging puffs are coming in on imported toffets. Opera cloaks are made long enough to envelop the whole person. Quaint and tiny Queen Mab poke-bonnets of white plush or beaver are worn by little girls.

Worth sends out half-long mantles as parts of elegant costumes for day weddings, visits, etc. Five feathers on a bonnet are a minimum. The maximum depends upon the ingenuity of the milliner in finishing room for them.

Black velvet ribbon is revived for making bows for looping dresses, for ornamenting cloaks, and for putting on the corsages of light dresses to give them a character.

Woolen morning and day dresses should always be of dark colors, and linen collars with Swiss ties are far more appropriate for the house for every day wear than laces.

A lady wore at a party the other evening a dress of white plush embroidered with green leaves, on which were pearls to represent dew-drops. It was declared to be too utterly esthetic for anything.

Edmund Yates says that the divided skirt can never be popular; that it is neither so picturesque nor so decorous as the bloomer costume, and that it should disappear with the Greek dress and other tomfooleries.

The "cat's eye" is altogether the swell jewel now, and has entirely supplanted diamonds and cheaper gems. It comes from Ceylon, and the popular name by which it is known arises from peculiarities that give it a singular resemblance to the eye of the cat.

Feather collars are the novelty for young ladies to wear in the street. Those of dark green feathers, with a tiny bird for ornament on each shoulder, are handsome with green costumes. Others are ravens' feathers, jet black, with a fringe of feathers tipped with jet.

At a recent wedding at St. George's, Hanover square, in London, five out of the six bridesmaids wore different colors. This novelty was slightly suggestive of a rainbow. One wore blue, another red, a third violet, and a fourth bronze. The two others, who were children, wore cream color.

Among the new cloaks is a novel ulster. The material is cheviot of any pattern or color that the wearer may desire; the long ulster form is preserved, but the upper portion fits more closely than heretofore, and is fastened in at the waist by a broad belt which is slipped through loops of the same material; these are fastened to the body of the garment. The effect is odd at first sight, and a slender, graceful figure is required to set it off to advantage. The style is becoming, however, and is quite dressy. The broad collar and the small muff are of the leopard skin plush.

The exquisite toilets of this season are perfect in each most minute detail and quite as much consideration is given to the tasteful selection of shoes and stockings as to the material of the dress and the jewels to accompany it. A very serious attempt has, however been made by European and American artists to introduce healthful and comfortable shoes, and to their credit, be it said, our leaders of style have generally accepted such innovations, hence the boots and shoes intended for out-door wear, traveling, walking, riding or skating, which are made upon hygienic principles, are worthy of earnest recommendation.

The Puget Sound Argus charges that the last territorial legislature was bribed and bulldozed into repealing the pilot law. It cannot be that such things are done in territorial and state legislatures.

A thing of beauty is a joy forever. Any one of those beautiful things at Adler's will be a present and perpetual joy if you buy and give it to the one you like best.

The Esmeralda is reported as having arrived. Three other vessels are said to have come in, but after a weary tramp resulting in the stereotyped "don't know," we gave up the effort. There's a special hereafter provided for people who do know and say they don't.

For handsome holiday presents, such as toilet cases, cologne sets, perfume cases, fine soaps, etc., go to Conn's drug store, opposite Occident Hotel.

The gray drapery of mist that trailed in wavy wreaths above the pines all day rolled slowly out to sea at sunset, and when the rosy glow of dying day had faded in the west, the gleaming stars at God's eternal roll call answered "here," in the arching concave of the azure vault above. All this happened right here in Astoria yesterday.

Arrigoni Lodging House, Portland, Oregon.

New house and first class in its appointments. Third street, in R. R. Thompson's block, opposite Capt. Ainsworth. Rooms by the day, week or month. Mrs. E. Arrigoni.

"Buchapalpa."

New, quick, complete cure of dysuria, urinary affections, smarting, frequent or difficult urination, kidney diseases, etc., at druggists. Oregon Depot, BAYNE & CO., Portland, Or.

A considerable advance is noted in all kinds of supplies for fishers and cannerymen. Even in the matter of labor it is thought that the great demand for Chinese on the Northern and Canadian Pacific railways will make Mongolian service high in Astoria next season. But they always flock to a point where they can get work at any price. In the matter of twine, boats, wood, etc., prices are high as compared with last year.

Xmas, New Year's, and birth-day cards, the finest ever in the city, at the City Book Store.

Among the bills recently presented before the Senate by the Oregon Senator, is one for the relief of F. G. Schwatka, Sr., of Salem, in the sum of $10,000, for his donation claim taken by the war department in sections 6 and 7, in T. 8 N., R. 10 W., known as Point Adams, where Fort Stevens now stands. The claim of Mr. Schwatka for this tract of land was referred to the general commanding the department of the Columbia, O. O. Howard, for report by a resolution of the Senate in 1879. General Howard made a strong report in favor of paying the sum claimed by Mr. Schwatka, which report has been referred to the committee on claims with the bill.
