One hundred patients in the Steilacoom Insane Hospital.

Another of those fine A. B. Chase organs at the City Book Store.

The property sold by Holden at the Court house yesterday, brought $1,256.

Frank Fabre has oysters in every style. Stew and pan roasts a specialty.

The Standard charges that Sheridan, the actor, is of Irish parentage. That settles him.

Articles that sold last week for $2 at Carl Adler's, are marked down to $1.50, $1.50 articles to $1, and so on.

The Eureka was discharging coal at Flavel's dock yesterday. She goes up stream to-day.

Fresh candy every day at the Astoria candy factory.

Chickenpox and measles are troubling a good many of the little folks here at present.

A large invoice of parlor, cook stoves and ranges at J. A. Montgomery's.

There will be a reduction in local telegraphic rates in this State after the 1st of February.

You can get for less money New Year's presents at Adler's than last week.

Since Christmas, business men report everything dull; it will remain so for two or three weeks.

Max Wagner's San Francisco National brewery beer can't be beat.

Some of our up-country exchanges took their Christmas on Monday. Last night's mail was light.

Turkeys, geese and chickens at Warren and Eaton's.

The bark Emma T. Crewell cleared for U. K. yesterday. Her cargo of wheat is worth $56,196.

It is not yet too late to get your girl a nice writing desk and some stationery at Carl Adler's.

The State of California arrived down yesterday afternoon and will leave for San Francisco this morning.

Hot, cold and shower baths at the Occident hair dressing saloon, twenty-five cents.

After this our upper Astoria weekly subscribers can get their papers Thursday evening at Van Dusen's store.

A new lot of fur trimming, all colors, below San Francisco prices, just received at the IXL Store.

Yesterday was an enjoyable one. The air was like velvet; the sun shone bright and warm, and the streets were filled with people.

Persons desirous of getting skates can be accommodated by leaving their number with me. Geo. Ross.

The Walla Walla brought down 1,000 tons of wheat from Portland. Such vessels as the Walla Walla make capital lighters.

For handsome holiday presents, such as toilet cases, cologne sets, perfume cases, fine soaps, etc., go to Conn's drug store, opposite Occident Hotel.

Two belligerent Mongolians in front of the Custom House yesterday morning was the cause of that crowd. Nothing but talk.

There are a few more chances left yet to win one of those lovely dolls which are to be raffled at Mrs. Derby's, New Year's eve.

One of Jas. Coey's San Francisco post office clerks writes, telling us to send a subscriber's paper to an address on "Eleventh" street.

The Standard says D. P. Thompson still lingers with us; seeming loath to leave the mild climate of Oregon for the snows of the Atlantic States.

There will be a dance at Skipanon Monday night.

Here lies the man who beat the printer Oh, how his soul doth long for winter.

There will be a dance at A. Knapp's, Knappa, this evening. The Rozetta will leave at 4 p. m.

WANTED—Men to make shingles. Inquire at the Chicago House.

The General Canby went to Oak Point yesterday for a raft of logs for the Knappa mill.

Whips, curry-combs, brushes; new stock; first-class goods, cheap for cash. S. GRAY.

The Bonita last evening took on at Brown & Co.'s dock, 500 boxes tin for the Eureka cannery and 250 for Cook's.

Fine assortment nuts and candies at the Astoria Candy Factory.

Complaints occur in all the papers reaching here that the roads are muddy. One man tells of being seven hours going eleven miles.

P. J. Goodman, on Chenamus street, has just received the latest and most fashionable style of gents and ladies boots, shoes, etc.

Chief Barry arrived down Wednesday evening with four of the six he had taken up to Portland as deserters, they having agreed to return to their ships.

Those writing desks at the City Book Store are the best in the city. They are something nice and durable, and just what most young ladies would appreciate from the giver.

The City of Chester went down the river and over the bar lively yesterday. She has to be in San Francisco to-morrow with her freight or lose the contract price.

Mr. John Rogers of the Central Market, has made arrangements to keep all the finest fresh fish, etc., in their season.

The Standard is publishing the alleged "cut and dry" ticket that Multnomah county Republicans are to vote at the coming election. The Standard has splendid foresight.

Better go than wish you had. Where? Why, to Adler's to get goods at 25% per cent. discount. Charley says he just delights in showing goods.

The Yaquina got down from Portland on her initial voyage to keep all the shape. She is a trimly built craft and will, no doubt, build up a good coasting trade. She sailed yesterday afternoon.

A few more chances, yet to be taken for that fine graphophone at the City Book Store.

There was only two and a quarter hours difference in the time of arrival of the Oregon and Columbia at San Francisco. The Columbia got in at 8 a. m., Wednesday; the Oregon at 10:15.

Poor Santa Claus is dead. His many friends will be pleased to hear that Carl Adler has administered on the estate.

An El Paso dispatch of the 28th says the capture and execution of Chief Arsecate, long the terror of Presidio del Norte and vicinity, and 30 of his band near Chihuahua is confirmed.

Grace Church school, Miss Howell principal, will reopen Jan. 9th, 1882. The select nature of this school makes it deservedly popular with parents.

Are you aware that your darling little boy smokes cigarettes? One look at his eyes will show you that he is contracting a filthy habit that is only next to opium in its body-destroying influence.

The goods, chattels and personal belongings of the late San T. Claus, deceased, will be sold at Carl Adler's to-day and to-morrow.

The great wing dam in the Umatilla, below the Pendleton bridge, is fast nearing completion, and would seem to be capable of performing the service for which it is being built—to guard the lower end of town from floods in the river.

You ought to buy one of those illustrated works at Adler's for your brother and sister.

We are making a collection of calendars for 1882 and when the set is completed shall award prize to the finest. So far, the one brought in by Brenham Van Dusen is ahead; in get up, but there are several outlying districts yet to hear from.

Chas. Stevens and Son have a stock of mouldings and moulders tools which can be bought cheap for cash to close out that branch of the business.

The grade of the Oregon Short Line is finished from Granger, on the U. P. to the crossing of Snake river, at American falls. At this point the company is building a bridge which will be 790 feet in length. It will reach Wood river by September, 1882.

Of all the papers that "acoo," the Seattle Chronicle is the "boss."

It will, like as not, copy this very item and not give credit for it. Make a good resolution up there in Seattle in '82 and resolve that you'll begin well by giving credit at least once a week.

For the genuine J. H. Cutler old Bourbon, and the best of wines, liquors and San Francisco beer, call at the Gem, opposite the bell tower, and see Campbell.

Among the bills in preparation in Portland for the next Legislature are some to put the sheriffs and clerks on salaries; to change the volunteer fire department to a paid department; to reduce witness fees in State cases; to abolish justices of the peace, and to create the offices of tax collector and county recorder.

"Hackstack," a lasting and fragrant perfume. Price 25 and 50 cents. Sold by W. E. Dement.

Shiloh's Cure will immediately relieve Croup, whooping cough and Bronchitis. Sold by W. E. Dement.

Colonel Jennings, of Oregon City, informs the Standard that the Columbia, and not the Lot Whitecomb, was the pioneer steamboat on Oregon waters. She was built by General Adair and G. V. Smith, and made her first trip on the 25th of August, 1850, running from Oregon City to Astoria, where she remained eight days, waiting for the steamer from San Francisco, among the passengers on which was Captain Ainsworth, visiting Oregon for the first time.

Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy—a positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria and Canker Mouth. Sold by W. E. Dement.

Father de Smet in his journal of early explorations along the line of the Columbia, describes the climate of Walla Walla valley as being mild, and states that the mountains and hills were green throughout the winter; snows were of a rare occurrence and never remained on the ground more than a day or two at a time. The experience of the past two weeks, says the Statesman, would indicate that the climate is going back to its old state again.

The Rev. Geo. H. Thayer, of Bourbon, Ind., says: "Both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE." Sold by W. E. Dement.

The Dallas Times is first in the field with the regular orthodox "Happy New Year" editorial. The next week will be prolific in essays on the first column of the second page. "Eighteen hundred and eighty-one, with its joys and its sorrows, is passing into the shoreless sea," etc., etc. The Times says: "We know not whether the events of the old will foreshadow the happenings in the future, or if time to come will be dissimilar from all that is past." Not a bit of it. Everything will be right along "allege same."

Mrs. Twilight and Mrs. Hilsley have taken charge of the Pioneer Restaurant, which has been thoroughly renovated and refitted. Mrs. Hilsley has charge of the cuisine. Good coffee a specialty.

Dock and warehouse room in Astoria is in demand. Nearly every available space is occupied. Messrs. Brown and Corbett we understand are about to enlarge their warehouse to double the capacity. We suggest that the various canneries could add a good paying institution to each one of their canneries by building a grain warehouse and dock for the accommodation of vessels, in front of each cannery, running out to deep water. These extra facilities will be especially needed since the Astoria Transportation company are making extensive preparations for bringing grain to Astoria for shipment.

Fort Colville.

The Army and Navy Register of December 10th, says: "The Secretary of War transmitted to the Senate a copy of a report of Brigadier General Nelson A. Miles, commanding Department of the Columbia, dated September, 1881, of an inspection of Forts Coeur d'Alene and Colville and Camp Spokane, Washington Territory, with an endorsement thereon of the General of the Army, in which he recommends that a specific appropriation of $40,000 be asked for to build a permanent post in Northern Washington Territory, to replace old Fort Colville, now in decay. This fort is necessary for the protection of the frontier settlements east of the great plain of the Columbia river, and the appropriation of the sum asked for by the general of the army is recommended to the favorable consideration of Congress."

I have just received the finest assortment of fancy goods in my line ever brought to Astoria, consisting of perfume, toilet sets, toilet cases, fine perfumery, fancy soaps, combs, brushes, hand glasses, and toilet articles of all kinds—splendid presents for the holidays. Call and examine goods and prices before purchasing elsewhere, at J. W. Conn's drug store, opposite Occident Hotel, Astoria, Oregon.

HOLMAN'S PAD.

FOR THE STOMACH, LIVER, AND KIDNEYS.

In all cases of biliousness and malaria in every form, a preventative and cure of chills, fever and dumb ague, Dr. Holman's Pad is a perfect success. And for dyspepsia, sick headache and nervous prostration, as the pad is applied over the pit of the stomach, the most nervous center, it annihilates the disease at once.

It regulates the liver and stomach so successfully that digestion becomes perfect. Prof. R. A. Leonard says: "It is nearer a universal remedy than anything in medicine." This is done on the principle of absorption, of which Dr. Holman's Pad is the only true exponent.

For all kidney troubles, use Dr. Holman's Pad. It is the best remedy in the world and recommended by the medical faculty.

Beware of Bogus Pads. Each genuine Holman's Pad bears the private revenue stamp of the Holman Pad Co. with the above trade mark printed in green. Buy none without it.

For Sale by all Druggists. Dr. Holman's advice is free. Full treatise sent free on application. Address: HOLMAN PAD CO. P. O. Box 2112, 74 Broadway, New York.
