 —Fine assortment nuts and candies at the Astoria Candy Factory.
 —The Western Belle, Reporter, Vesuvius and Carnegie, are among the vessels outside.
 —Several of the vessels outside and on the way will look their charts by not being in time.
 —Efforts are being made to start a wood paper factory on Puget Sound. The project is feasible.
 —Warrantee deeds at THE ASTORIAN office.
 —As you stroll through the streets to-day note those beautiful flowers that bloom in the open air.
 —Whips, curry-combs, brushes; new stock; first-class goods, cheap for cash. S. GRAY.
 —There will not be much business done in Astoria to-morrow. Every one seems disposed to take a holiday.
 —A few more chances yet to be taken for that fine graphoscope at the City book store.
 —James McCombre, engineer of No. 1, was accidentally shot at the shooting gallery in the left arm last evening.

 —The Standard thinks that Mitchell had better begin "getting in his work" if he expects the Multnomah delegation, for it alleges Dolph has got everything his way at this writing.

 —Though the 1st is usually collection day, you will have to put off till to-morrow what could have been done to-day—because of its being Sunday and New Years too.
 —The Postmaster General orders that Monday, January 2d, 1882, being a legal holiday, the postoffice officials shall observe the same rules as on Sundays and other legal holidays.

 —There is a general kick all over Washington Territory about the new Sunday law. The way to insure its repeal is to thoroughly enforce it. Cincinnati passed a Sabbath ordinance a few years ago, and the Mayor determining to act according to the letter as well as the spirit of the law, notified all the sextons, Sunday school teachers, ministers, bakers, telegraph operators, railroad employes, choir singers, etc., that any attempt to exercise their vocations, would render them amenable to the law, and he would be obliged to act. The law was repealed at the next meeting of the Board of Aldermen.

Attention! Attention!
 All those indebted to the Central Market will please call and pay their accounts before the 15th of January, 1882. By so doing they will oblige and save costs. Those that do not comply with this request, their accounts will be closed. J. ROGERS.

Communicated.
 The Oregonian seems to fear the locks and canal at the Cascades will be built and positively opposes the enterprise. It seems to say that because we have two large mountains to surmount we had better not climb the first. On the contrary, we think we have to climb the first mountain before getting to the second; and then oh, what a disappointment it would be to the Oregonian if it is found we can go around the second mountain without climbing! CURATIVE.

 —The immediately beneficial effects following the use of Fellows' Hypophosphites in those cases of emaciation and weakness produced by long illness, whether from pulmonary diseases or fevers, proves its tonic virtues and its value in accelerating digestion and assimilation. The soluble phosphites and the other life sustaining principles composing Fellows' Hypophosphites are so carefully mingled that their action upon the nerves, muscles and membranes in imparting vitality, strength and healthy action, is generally apparent within twenty-four hours, and the good effects experienced are of a permanent character. —Exchange.
