What a beautiful day yesterday was! -It costs $800 to get a saloon license in Salt Lake City.

In the police court there was one forfeit of $5 and one of $2. -The Portland police are closing saloons that have no license.

Bets, on the Wonder, took the Carl Haasted up stream yesterday. -Warmer weather up the river dispels any present fears of a freeze up.

Our public schools began the second half of the school term this week. -It cost an Ohio man $500 to open a letter written by his wife to her father.

Eastern dispatches indicate that De Lesseps' financial condition is insecure. -Prayer meeting at the Young Men's rooms this evening; everybody is invited.

The frame of the Astoria Transportation Company's new barge is being set up. -Measles and chicken pox which have been troubling the little folks, are on the wane.

Four million bushels of corn and 750,000 bushels of wheat are daily consumed in the United States. -The Helen Marion, which has been aground on St. Helen's bar since last Thursday, got down yesterday.

The diver at the Olive S. Southard yesterday ascertained that the ship had sustained no material damage. -Eastern saloon keepers are organizing a defensive alliance to resist the efforts of the temperance brotherhood.

The Portland tax roll foots up over $11,000,000. A dredging fund tax of three mills will give that municipality $34,000. -Goethe says a man must be either a hammer or an anvil; but in the blacksmithing of life how many are nothing but a bellows.

Scoville continues his argument for defense in the Guitau trial. The impression in Washington is that the wretch will be convicted. -A can containing seventy-five young carp has been received at Portland in good condition. The fish were placed in a pond and are thriving.

Rescue Engine Company's heater has been repaired and placed in position in the rear of the engine so as to communicate more directly with the boiler. -Geo. B. Reynolds, a Seattle clerk, was killed by highwaymen in the streets of that place last Tuesday evening. A necktie social would do well there.

An underground river has been discovered in Idaho between Indian creek and Snake river. Its rumblings and dashes can be heard for a considerable distance. -A theater manager in San Francisco advertised recently for some young men to be employed, and the next morning four hundred and fifty applicants were at his door.

Regular convocation of Saints John, Chapter No. 14, R. A. M., at Masonic Hall, at 7:30 p. m. Work in M. M. degree. Officers and companions are requested to be prompt on time. -The average product of human industry is now put down at $100 per head per annum. In Great Britain in 1880 the average product was $290, in Europe $115, in the United States $90.

Notice.

The regular annual meeting of Progressive Land and Building Association will be held in Liberty hall, Astoria, Clatsop county, Oregon, on the 17th day of February, 1882.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At the meeting of Astoria Lodge, No. 40, I. O. of G. T., on the 17th, the following was passed:

WHEREAS, The Supreme Ruler of the universe has called from among us, to duty in that higher band, our friend and brother, Aaron Morton; therefore be it

Resolved, That the I. O. of G. T., and the friends of temperance and morality in general have suffered the loss of a worthy representative, and those who are nearer and dearer, one who proved himself worthy of their hopes and prayers.

Resolved, That to the bereaved family of the deceased we extend our heartfelt sympathy, offering as a consolation the promise given us of an everlasting life beyond the grave to the good.

Resolved, That these resolutions be engrossed upon the records of the lodge, a copy sent to the family of the deceased and to the ASTORIAN for publication.

GEORGE F. PARKER, T. J. ALLY, I. E. PARKER.

The Sentinel thinks that Gov. Thayer is the hardest worked man in Oregon. One-half his time is spent in appointing Notaries Public—the other half in pardoning prisoners, all for $1,500 a year.

Capt. Sterratt of the Levi P. Burgess, is at the Occident with his family. He had a good passage of 106 days from New York, and if his ship which has been thirty-one days off the bar, were only inside, he would be satisfied.

The amount of money orders issued at the Astoria post office shows a large increase in the local business from time to time, and will, we believe compare favorably with the amounts issued in other towns of Astoria's size on this coast:

During the last 5 weeks in 1881 there were issued $3,467 63 During the same period in 1880 2,700 33 Increase $ 767 30 This does not include the foreign business, which is also quite large.

A recent legal decision says in effect that the lending of money is "business" within the meaning of the statute, and presumptively illegal. Any party desiring to bring himself within the exception of the statute has the burden of doing so.

Astoria's needs are many; some of them can afford to wait till the demand is greater; some of them are imperative; among the latter class is the matter of school houses.

The Oregonian makes the editorial announcement that during forty days that the Beecroft lay inside the bar the occasions in which it would have been impossible for her to go to sea, were "comparatively brief."

The Northern Pacific Railroad company has, within a month, had 325 miles of new road accepted by the United States Government—100 miles in Dakota and Montana and 225 miles in Washington and Idaho Territories.

At a recent ball in Ashland Wm. Webb, who was furnishing the music, suddenly ceased playing his violin and held up his hands. The astonished waiters only understood the situation when they saw the sheriff standing in the door with a shot gun aimed at William, who followed the example of old Uncle Ned, hung up his fiddle and his bow, and followed the sheriff who had a warrant for him for alleged horse stealing.

In a late number of an English maritime register we find an inquiry for a steamship wanted for Astoria, Oregon. Is this steamer to bring railroad iron for the Yaquina Bay railroad?

One thousand and thirty-one votes were cast in Garfield county last Monday on the county seat issue. There were four points aspiring for the honor, Pomeroy and Pataha City being the principal ones.

The annual production of the precious metals in the States and Territories west of the Missouri river, including British Columbia and receipts at San Francisco from the west coast of Mexico, as reported to Wells, Fargo & Co., are: Gold, $31,869,686; silver, $45,077,829.

The Astoria Chamber of Commerce lately petitioned for a signal station on Tillamook Rock, and also telegraph wire by way of Fort Stevens. This was in accordance with the recommendations of the chief signal officer.

Mallory Continues

We are informed, says the Mercury, that Hon. Rufus Mallory has received an appointment from United States Attorney-General Brewster, authorizing him to perform the duties of United States district attorney for Oregon until his successor shall have been regularly appointed.

It is whispered abroad that there is a triangular fight going on for the position which Mallory thus temporarily holds, as he is supported by Ex-Senator Mitchell, while Congressman George is advocating the appointment of H. Y. Thompson, for whose welfare he so suddenly took his departure for Washington City not long since.

It is generally accepted that the temporary appointment of Mallory means that there will be no further appointment until after the State election, when the crown of the local government attorneyship will probably fall to him who shall have shown the greatest ability as a worker in the vineyard of politics.

The report heretofore published of the appointment of Mr. Watson originated from Mr. Mallory, who at the time thought his successor had been named by the President.
