

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: SATURDAY, JAN. 21, 1882. J. F. HALLORAN, Editor.

A Shaky Swindle.

"AMERICAN citizens" who are always getting into trouble abroad or who are owning claims in foreign countries which the courts of those countries will not recognize, are generally citizens only in a technical sense, and sometimes the evidence is very cloudy.

It will soon be twenty years since the action in Hampton Roads and now the bit of history comes that the defeat of the rebel ram Merrimac, according to a letter of Commodore Maury of the confederate navy, is not to be credited altogether to the Monitor.

SOME of the political fossils who have for years been retired on account of various shady and shabby transactions, are again making their appearance in public life.

THERE are some members of Congress who think that it would be a good idea to lighten the burden of taxation, as the revenue is in excess of actual needs.

POETIC PROSE. PROFESSOR YOUMANS possesses the faculty of writing in graceful phrase the most rigidly scientific truth.

AMONG the many great engineering projects in contemplation is one which will close the northerly outlet of the valley of the Mackenzie river at the line of 68 degree north, and store up the water of 1,260,000 square miles; to this is intended to add the water of other large areas, and thus form a lake 2,000 miles long, and with an average width of 200 miles.

TO those whose stock of worries was running low and who need some fresh scares it will be of interest to know that the electric system of lighting has developed two dangers; first, the increased likelihood of fire; second, the fact that the handling of a wire not insulated and through which the full force of the circuit is passing, results in death.

"THE commerce of the Columbia has endured an outrageous game of greed long enough." Oregonian. We are glad to see our Portland contemporary take such a pronounced stand in favor of a free river.

WHEN completed, the San Francisco sea-wall will have cost $13,000,000 according to the present estimates. There will be a broad thoroughfare, encircling the city, and there is now a desperate effort to secure a franchise over it which will be virtually exclusive.

It is reason for shame to know that there are American citizens so low, so degraded as to actually crowd forward to shake hands with the murderer of Garfield. We look with admiration upon the vigilance committee of Seattle.
