—The Magnet has taken the place of the Sam.

—The French bark Esmaralda went to sea yesterday.

—The Empire Hotel is ready for the accommodation of guests.

—Messrs. Wise & Hart, of Albany, will start in business here before long.

—A man is like an egg; you can't be sure he is good till he is "broke."

—The Corvallis Gazette reports a continuance of work on the O. P. railroad.

—The jockey twelve furnish a unique feature in the coming minstrel troupe.

—Most beautiful weather yesterday; the sun shone warm, and the air felt like velvet.

—Twelve clog dancers on the stage at one time at Liberty Hall next Thursday evening.

—Five hundred tons of wheat and 300 cases of salmon went to San Francisco on the Columbia.

—A girl wants a situation to do general house work, at $15 a month. Inquire at this office.

—The Ilwaco wharf is now 1,260 feet long; a cannery 60x100 feet will be built on the end of it.

—According to the census returns there are 1,881,856 more males than females in the United States.

—The Scotia and Greenwood were towed up the river Sunday. The Ballochmyle came down yesterday.

—And still another canning company was organized last week. The incorporators haven't named it yet.

—The time for opening the bids for the construction of the Presbyterian church has been extended to the 30th inst.

—Twenty-one accessions to The Dalles Good Templar lodge was the result of the New Year's good resolutions.

—The Walla Walla medical men are registering with the county auditor to avoid being called quacks by the newspapers.

—T. F. Swanwick, associate editor of the Portland Journal of Commerce is in the city on business connected with his journal.

—Warren Hayden, the unfortunate young man who shot himself on Saturday morning, was taken yesterday to St. Mary's hospital.

—The American ship C. Southard Hulbert, and the British bark Helen Marion, cleared yesterday. Their cargoes are worth $89,137.

—Dr. Welch, of Portland, will be at his rooms at the Occident during the week to attend any one needing the services of a dentist.

—The San Francisco papers have been loud in their praise of the minstrels who will play here next Thursday and Friday evenings.

—New Zealand and Tasmania are stocking their rivers with salmon, and calculate that after 1885 they will be independent of foreign supply.

—A board wall is being constructed at the Point Adams light house to turn the course of the drifting sand which threatens to cover the buildings.

—The Rev. Thos. Frazer, superintendent of California missions, delivered an able discourse upon Christ's divinity, at the Congregational church last Sunday.

Simply Ridiculous.
 The Oregonian of the 21st has a letter written by Mr. D. C. Ireland, of this place, in reference to the Columbia river bar, and in an editorial comment upon or answer to it, the presiding genius of that paper is more than ordinarily ridiculous. In talking of the Levi P. Burgess, the Oregonian says that nothing but "the timidity" of Captain Starrett prevented his coming in; such stuff as that always provokes a laugh among the ship masters, and farther on it says: "With a depth of 23 feet on the bar at mean high tide, a ship 21 feet need not hesitate to enter." "A Daniel come to judgment!"

"The Swing of the Pendulum."
 The second lecture of the course for the benefit of the M. E. Church will be delivered this evening at the Methodist church by the Rev. J. A. Gray, pastor of the Baptist church, Portland; subject, "The Swing of the Pendulum." Tickets for this lecture and the one next week, by Rev. G. W. Izer, can be had for 75 cents. The subject is a most suggestive one, and cannot but be of interest when handled by a man of Mr. Gray's reputation.

Not So.
 We are sorry to see that the usually correct Statesman falls into the error of charging Astoria with having never given either time or money toward the matter of salmon propagation. Astoria has given thousands of dollars and considerable valuable time toward that project. We hope our Walla Walla neighbor will retract the unjust assertion.

Who Is He?
 One of the most brilliant young men that was ever on this coast, says the Statesman, and one who had the best chance of making an enviable business reputation, is now herding Chitamen on the N. P. railroad.

—We are authentically informed that the Oregon and California Railroad company has bought the Yaquina, and that Capt. Weiner will have charge of her.

—G. W. Lakin, of Newport, Benton county, who was reported as having committed suicide on the 8th inst., has had his windpipe sewed up and will probably recover.

—The total receipts of the municipality of Albany during 1881 were $8,320; disbursements of the same, $8,248.67, leaving a balance in the city treasury of $71.33.

—At the rate the sand is being deposited around the wharf at Fort Stevens, in six months more the Canby will be unable to land; there is now but eleven feet of water at low tide.

—Martin Nelson tells us that the Scandinavian cannery intend to inaugurate the season's operations by a social party to be given in the company's spacious building next Friday evening.

—The general tone of the press, in commenting upon the verdict rendered in the recent murder trial at this place, think that Robeson got off light; and that he should think himself fortunate in saving his neck.

—A California clergyman who aroused the wonder of his audience by announcing that he was going to visit the heathen, quelled all fears by supplementing the information that he did not intend leaving town.

—The editor of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer has been "astounded" by a man who called and paid him a $7 bill for a 76 subscription to a paper now defunct. We would like to be "astounded" for $2,300 worth of the same kind of old iron.

—A reporter of The Dalles Times learns that there is a disease which is becoming alarming to some of our farmers, that attacks their horses in a most singular manner, the first symptoms being the legs of the animals commencing to swell, then a breaking out, resembling, to some extent, boils, which covers the entire limb, causing the hair to fall off, and leaving the diseased portion in a very sore condition.

—The late David Newsome, who recently died near Salem, was seventy-six years of age, was born in Virginia, migrated to Illinois when a young man, and settled in Sangamon county, where he resided until the year 1851, when he crossed the plains to Oregon. He settled on Pudding river, near Howell Prairie, and engaged in farming and milling until a few years since, when, losing his wife by death, he sold out, and traveled extensively over the country, writing up notes for the public press.

—The nutritive properties of Colden's Liebig's Liquid Beef and Tonic Invigorator sustain the body without solid food. Colden's; no other.

An Editor Beaten.
 Last Sunday afternoon two sons of Mrs. Duniway, the editor of the New Northwest, went to the business office of the Sunday Welcome in Portland and beat the editor, Wm. M. Simpson, over the head with canes until he fell to the floor. He bled freely and was taken home in a carriage. The cause of the affair was the appearance in last Sunday's issue of the Welcome of an article from an Independence correspondent wherein offensive allusion was made to Mrs. Duniway.

Singular Coincidence.
 The New Tacoma Ledger has a correspondent here who occasionally favors that paper with a letter from this place on the horrible Columbia bar. In all his articles for the last two months we have noticed that whenever he makes any statement in reference to what "a captain told me," he mentions the name of a captain who had gone to sea just before the letter was written. We may do him injustice, but the coincidence is noticeable.

—In the Justice court yesterday the case of Frank Wallbar for assault on Fred Moy was continued till today. A warrant was issued for Wm. Stewart for defacing a building.

—We hear of an attempted highway robbery last week in which the assailant was overpowered by the man assailed and compelled to go with him in quest of a policeman. Would like to continue this item but could find no one who knew any more about it.

From Wadsworth, Nevada, to The Dalles.
 The Lake County Examiner learns that the Nevada and Oregon Railroad is graded out to the junction, and that there is twenty-two miles of track laid and in running order. Reno people are disposed to scout the idea that the Central Pacific proposes to build a road from Wadsworth to The Dalles by way of Goose lake, though there are good grounds that such is the intention of the C. P. folks. He says that in the event the road is started from Wadsworth there will be ample capital to push the work fast enough to reach the Oregon line much sooner than the N. & O. can, and it is the universal opinion that if that road is started in earnest the Nevada and Oregon will branch off into Plumas county, and abandon the project of coming to Oregon. The objective point of the proposed road from Wadsworth will be The Dalles, and if commenced it will be built as fast as men and money can do the work.

Can it Be?
 A reporter in St. Louis at the commencement of the new year took the following pledge of reform: I solemnly swear that during the coming year I will not use any of the following expressions in the preparation of matter for the press:
 "Dull thud."
 "Doomed man."
 "Mounted the scaffold with a firm step."
 "The blackest crime that ever stained the annals," etc.
 "Once more it is our sad and painful duty."
 "We are pained to learn."
 "Caned" or "Watched," in writing up presentations.
 "Bacchanalian revel," as applied to a common drunk.
 "Then commenced a feast of reason," etc.
 "Terpsichorean revel," as applied to a ball.
 "Gentlemanly and efficient," in referring to hotel clerks.
 "Pencil-pusher," "The man of pencils," "The Faberite," "The snapper up of unconsidered trifles," and "The man of news," in referring to self.
 "Hackmetack," a lasting and fragrant perfume. Price 25 and 50 cents. Sold by W. E. Dement.
 —For Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, you have a printed guarantee on every bottle of Shiloh's Vitalizer. It never fails to cure. Sold by W. E. Dement.
 —Mrs. Twilight and Mrs. Hilsley have taken charge of the Pioneer Restaurant, which has been thoroughly renovated and refitted. Mrs. Hilsley has charge of the cuisine. Good coffee a specialty.
 —Rescue with Hale's Honey of Horshound and Tar, before the baby strangles with croup. Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.
 —The Rev. Geo. H. Thayer, of Bourbon, Ind., says: "Both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE." Sold by W. E. Dement.
