GUILTY!!

The Wretch is Convicted!

Now for the Sentence.

The jury in the Guiteau case brought in their verdict yesterday afternoon. It is: "Guilty as charged." The next thing in order is to have him sentenced and executed as speedily as possible.

—Steamer day; State up, Oregon down.

—To-night; the great minstrel troupe.

—Look out for the band when the minstrels play to-day.

—Knitters are very busy preparing for the coming season.

—Of course you are going to see the minstrels this evening.

—Manager Stechhan came down on the Portland boat last evening.

—Ryman and Stuart in their specialties at Liberty hall to-night.

—There is a single line of ten ships along the docks, and room for more.

—The Clydebank, 853 tons, 45 days from Valparaiso, arrived in yesterday.

—Louis Wyckoff, sixteen years sheriff at Seattle, died there last Thursday.

—There are still some 50,000 tons of shipping en route to the Columbia river.

—An engineer wants a situation on the river or in a cannery. Apply at this office.

—The Walla Walla Statesman believes in tooting its horn if it doesn't sell a clam.

—There will be prayer meeting in the Young Men's rooms this evening at 7 o'clock.

—We notice some fine valentines in every variety of style and finish at the City Book store.

—The ball at the Scandinavian cannery to-morrow evening will be a pleasant affair.

—The Walla Walla was ashore last Friday at Double Bluff point, opposite Foulweather bluff.

—The Gen. Canby yesterday towed a raft of 550,000 feet of logs from Buckeye to Knappton.

—The Edderside is at Brown & Co's dock, where she will discharge tin, salt and cannery supplies.

—The Jockey twelve are said to be the finest thing in the way of clog dancing ever seen on this coast.

—There will be a social at J. D Merryman's to-morrow evening, under the auspices of the M. E. Church.

—The gigantic troupe are on to-day's steamer and if the vessel gets in in good season will give a street parade.

—The Norwegian bark Alert has discharged 475 tons of coal at Gray's dock, and is now discharging 160 tons at Flavel's.

—The New Tacoma council have levied a tax to raise $5,000, the estimated expense of the recent small pox visitation.

—The Occident Packing company will commence making cans, the first of the month. Fred. Davidson is superintendent.

—The greatest combination of first-class minstrels that ever visited this State will give our citizens a rousing bill to-night. Be on hand.

Masquerade Costumes for Rent.

A fine selection of San Francisco mask suits for ladies and gents will be on exhibition and for rent one week before the mask ball, at M. D. Kant's merchant tailoring establishment. Any special suit will be ordered by telegraph at the lowest rates.

The Vesuvius.

The Vesuvius, 210 days from Philadelphia, with 1038 tons of iron for the O. R. and N. Co., arrived yesterday after many trials and tribulations. In an interview with Capt. Call we learn that up to the 4th of December, when he was within 488 miles of the Columbia, he had good weather, and expected to make a quick voyage though there was considerable sickness among the crew. Several of his men who had shipped at Philadelphia had just come off East Indiamen, and the scurvy was still in their systems. When they arrived off the bar he was anxious to get in and procure them medical attendance, the constant standing on and off and incessant exposure setting heavily upon them. When the condition of the crew rendered it necessary for him to go to the Sound he was obliged to ship a fresh crew there, and some of the old crew whom he had to leave there were so sick that their recovery was doubtful. The statement of the Oregonian that he had been discharged by the owners of the vessel rather amuses the Captain, as he had heard nothing of it. He will go up to Portland with his vessel to-day.

Portland's Sensation—A Runaway Couple.

The steamer Columbia that went to sea last Saturday afternoon had on board a couple that had been married in this city that morning by a prominent clergyman of this city. The couple, who gave fictitious names, were noticeably perturbed, but nothing transpired of the nature of the affair till a few days afterward. The parties are well known residents of Portland. The man had a good position, was married and looked upon as a steady and sterling individual by all with whom he was brought in contact. It was a terrible surprise to his people in Portland, to none more so than his deserted wife. Rumor has it that the funds that enabled the guilty couple to compass their purposes were obtained in a manner that was in keeping with the object to which they were applied. It is thought that they have taken passage for Panama or the Sandwich Islands.

Council Proceedings.

The council met last Tuesday evening, Mayor Hahn presiding. The usual routine of business was transacted and the council proceeded to act upon sundry nominations. The nominations of Ferguson for Auditor and Logan for Street Superintendent were lost. The nominations of Holden for Treasurer, Winton for Police Judge and Fulton for City Attorney were confirmed. The nomination of Sehlin for Chief of Police was lost. Sundry ordinances were passed and bills allowed, and the council adjourned.

The Indians Object.

The Lewiston Teller says that the position taken by the Flat Head Indians against the N. P. R. R. extending through their lands, is liable to give that company trouble and may give some trouble to the Government. It seems that their chief had given his consent, but that his people have repudiated his authority in this respect, and will resist, by force, all efforts to build the road across their reservation, nor will they allow the surveyors to make the necessary surveys. It is to be hoped that the matter may be adjusted without any calling of force.

—Remember the Auction sale of the "Harvest Home" this afternoon. The hull and ship's effects will be sold to the highest bidder for cash, and the sale take place at Holden's auction rooms, half an hour after the arrival of the Portland steamer.

—The American bark Vesuvius, 210 days from New York; the British ship County of Bute, 38 days from Shanghai; the British ship Argosy, 87 days from Montevidso; the British bark Acadian from Londonderry, and the bark Whistler from San Francisco, arrived in yesterday.

—There are about twenty papers on our exchange list that we get but semi-occasionally. If any publisher finds THE ASTORIAN ceases coming he will know that he has been cut off on account of lack of attention in reference to mailing. We are tired of mailing papers to editors who are too careless to see that theirs come in exchange.

—"Dear Sir: How many churches, schools and saloons in Astoria? What is the leading occupation of the citizens? How many dentists are there? Does your river freeze over in winter time? Please send me two or three copies of your paper. I may go out to your section next spring." All this from Illinois, and never a cent, not even a postage stamp. Not any.

"The Swing of the Pendulum."

The audience that gathered at the M. E. Church last Tuesday evening to hear Rev. J. A. Gray, of Portland, was favored with an intellectual treat. The lecturer prefaced the lecture proper with a short dissertation on social placings, upon our general viewings of the universe, and the impulses, desires and promptings that occasioned all of us to think and act as we do. Epitomized, it may be said that he viewed all men as being their own world, assimilating and utilizing that portion of the great universe according to the selective power of that greater universe within. In graceful phrase and glowing imagery he portrayed the swing and sway of human passion, and likening it to the surging of a mighty impulse, he, in the swing of his subject, swung into an arc of thought subtended only by the chord of universal ideas. Then, illustrative of that principle which pervades all nature, animate and manimate, he spoke at length of the gulf stream; of the unceasing heaving and tossing of the mighty waters; of the swinging of those great pendulums that tick the weal or woe of all earth's millions in the rise and fall of all the currents of the earth and sea; the sun lifting from their tossing bed the waters from "old ocean's gray and melancholy waste," which, borne upon the wings of the willing air, were wafted far over the earth to fall in copious showers and glow in the flower, and wave in the wheat, and make melody in the crystal brook, and glisten in the prismatic tints of the rainbow that spanned the arch of heaven.

Then he spoke of the great swinging of life's pendulum that sometimes so fearfully demonstrated the great law of physics, "Action and reaction are equal," of the mighty potency of misdirected force, and showed how the human heart, when swung in the arc of interest or passion may go in dark rebound to the farthest verge of earth's circling segment. The peroration of Mr. Gray's lecture was a gem of poetic thought and vivid word painting. His aptness of illustration, readiness of language and fitting phrase of faultless diction was a present joy when listened to, and forms a satisfactory remembrance when called to mind.

At the close of the lecture, which was heartily applauded, Mr. Parsons announced that on next Tuesday evening Rev. G. W. Izer would lecture on "Literature."

His Last Words.

"Do not lay me down by the rippling brookside, lest babbling lovers wake me from my dreams, nor in the beautiful cemetery on the hill, lest sight-seers conning o'er the epitapha distract me; but let my last sleep be under the counter of the merchant who never advertises. There is a peace which passeth all understanding, and a deep sleep on which neither the buoyant footfalls of youth nor the weary shuffle and drag of age will ever intrude." And then his spirit fled.

Star Pupils.

The following named pupils of district No. 1 have attained an average scholarship of 90 per cent. or more and have been neither absent nor tardy for one month: Maude Saffarrans, Sallie Jones, Grace Carruthers, Cecil Corwin, Zoe Carruthers, Helen Snow, Katie McKean, Alice Stockton, Ethel Merryman, Anna Anderson, Robert Fox, Rosetta Sherman, Leonie Cronk, Alphonso Barrows, Luelia Kidder, Agnes Stockton, Cora Borchan, Lena Borchan, Richard Carruthers.
