THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 75 cents a month, free of postage.

Walla Walla talks of an electric light.

The Nez Perce News has been attacked by its creditors.

The up-river temperature is reported a good deal milder.

Walla Walla papers chronicle the arrival of the festive clan.

The American ship Elwell sailed from New York for the Columbia last Monday.

The Corsica has cleared for Queenstown with 43,867 bus. wheat, worth $46,838.

Brown and McCabe have brought one of their hoisting engines down from Portland.

The General Canby went up the Lewis and Clarke yesterday for a raft for Hume's mill.

The effect that a man's death would have is the exponent of his importance among men.

The Ladies Guild of Grace church will meet in the vestry room at half past two this afternoon.

G. W. and A. E. Ross are building a new skating rink corner Washington and Squemoqua streets.

Carl Adler this morning informs an expectant constituency that he has valentines of every style and variety.

Captain Carroll, of the Eureka, came up on the Columbia yesterday. His vessel crosses out this morning.

The Columbia came in at nine yesterday morning. The State came down at noon and will go to sea this morning.

Up country papers are talking of some "rival company" that is going to build a railroad down the north bank of the Columbia.

We are in receipt of invitations to the masquerade ball which No. 1's intend giving on the 14th inst. Those in charge are determined to make it a success.

The Multnomah county clerk's fees and emoluments for '81 aggregated $2,345. During that year the sheriff of that county received a total of $11,363.

Lots 1 and 2 in block 16 have been sold for $1,500. This sale shows quite a marked improvement in values of Astoria real estate, having been sold one year ago for $750.

The fact that a Humboldt, Cal. man, in digging for clams, brought up some fine oysters, leads the Times to very naturally infer that there is a bed of oysters in that vicinity.

Great preparations are being made by the committee for the coming masquerade to be given by Astoria Engine Company No. 1. Professor Roos, of Portland, will provide the music.

In landing at the new dock at Fort Stevens at ordinary low tide, the steamer thumps where two years ago there were two fathoms of water. The sand has built out over 100 yards.

The Ilwaco Navigation company are having their new tug "sailed," technically speaking. All space between her timbers and lining down to about eighteen inches below the water line is to be filled with salt. In the course of time the wood becomes thoroughly impregnated with the salt and effectually resists decay.

Masquerade Costumes for Rent. A fine selection of San Francisco mask suits for ladies and gents will be on exhibition and for rent one week before the mask ball, at M. D. Kinn's merchant tailoring establishment.

The claimants of the estate of T. Bailey will hear something to their advantage by calling upon J. W. CASE, Assignee.

Railroad Contract.

Yesterday, says the Oregonian of the 30th ult., the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company concluded negotiations with J. B. David, C. D. Bates, R. M. Steel and others, composing the newly organized Oregon Construction Company, and awarded them a contract for constructing the railroad grade from Pendleton to a point near La Grande, a distance of fifty-seven miles.

Puzzle.

You will find me in Astoria, a little tiny thing. You will find me in wasp, and yet I do not sting.

You will find me in Siberia, and yet I am not cold. You will find me in spinster, although I am not old.

You will find me in the answer, yet I make no reply. In guessing find me married, what little thing am I?

The facetious Dr. McKeever of Kongsong, who was delegated to vaccinate 676 Chinese lately arrived in San Francisco, used mucilage for the purpose instead of vaccine virus.

The Washington Independent declares that unless a man is a practical printer he cannot run such an office as the Independent is issued from for less than $8 a day! Can it be possible!

We are in receipt of a large collection of almanacs. Thus far the one sent by the New York Tribune is the best, though the Alta, and Baltimore Sun turn out very creditable productions.

The sidewalks of Astoria are still slippery. What seems to be needed by pedestrians most is an appropriate form of words by which Christian people might suitably express themselves on occasions of great spiritual prostration.

'Tis reported that General Sherman will again visit Oregon next summer. The band boys must at once begin practicing "Marching Through Georgia." Nothing in the world pleases the general so much as to hear that tune.

Mr. Eells, writing from the Skokholmish Indian Reservation, Washington Territory, says: On Sunday, New Year's day, we had a Sabbath school, a wedding, preaching services, baptism, reception of two members into the church, communion and a birth—all within about thirteen hours.

A dispatch to the Oregonian from San Francisco last night states that Chas. F. McKim, who is in the employ of the O. R. & N. Co., comes to Portland for the purpose of superintending the construction of their immense depot, the plans and specifications for which are in his possession.

An Olympia correspondent of the Oregonian says that the strange course taken by the late legislature in refusing to pass the pilot bill, and even going so far out of their way as to repeal the old pilot law, is the subject of general comment and is likely to be very damaging to their commercial interests in the future.

Colonel Cann received a letter this morning from W. P. Miller, warden of the Oregon penitentiary at Salem, says the Seattle Chronicle, giving a full description of the two men who were hanged there one week ago for the murder of Reynolds. Warden Miller says that Sullivan had just served out a three-year sentence in the penitentiary for burglary committed in Multnomah county, Oregon.
