THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 75 cents a month, free of postage. Readers who contemplate absence from the city can have THE ASTORIAN follow them, DAILY or WEEKLY editions to any post-office without additional expense. Addresses may be changed as often as desired. Leave orders at the counting room.

—O. P. Graham is putting up a residence at Ilwaco.

—All at Ilwaco are busy preparing for the coming fishing season.

—The new sidewalk on Squequa street is a great improvement.

—A. G. Stinson amongst other work is turning out two new trucks.

—We don't hear any more of that new school house project. Don't let it grow cold.

—The Josafaror, Carl Haasted, County of Butte, and Acadian were towed to sea yesterday.

—Geo. W. Hume has on hand a stock of 650,000 feet of logs and 1,000,000 feet of lumber.

—The roadway to Upper Astoria should be widened to accommodate the rapidly increasing business.

—The "fastest passage" has again been made between Portland and San Francisco—this time by the Columbia—time, 48 hours, 19 1/2 minutes.

—We of Eastern Oregon would rather ship to Astoria than up the Willamette creek to Portland and back again to the Columbia river.—Dallas Times.

—Mr. H. E. Boothby, who was employed on THE ASTORIAN in 1879, is now publishing a paper at Oakland, Stanislaus county, Cal., called the Stanislaus Wheat Grower.

—Four men have been employed by T. H. Foss cutting out a road from Young's, on John Day, to Mill creek. S. P. Marsh will put on four men and cut the road through to Upper Astoria.

—The Montezano came down from Portland yesterday with her new machinery which works well. She looks fine, and is a graceful craft. L. A. Loomis and D. C. Ireland were among the passengers.

—Sara Bernhardt, the actress, is so thin when on the stage, the audience who want to throw something in appreciation of their delight find it useless to fling bouquets, and so resort to a string of sausage.

—We learn that the survey for the signal service station on the Washington Territory side has been abandoned. The intention now is to run a telegraph line from here to Fort Stevens and a cable from there to Scarborough Head.

—The latest corporation is that of the Puget Sound West Side Railroad Company, with headquarters at Port Townsend, capital stock $3,000,000, and T. T. Minor, C. C. Bartlett, J. A. Kuhn, R. D. Attridge and Robert C. Hill as trustees. The declared object is to build a railroad to a point on the Columbia river.

—A full font of Japanese type comprises five thousand characters of which three thousand are in constant use, and for two thousand more there are frequent calls. The type is disposed about the composing-room on racks, like those in a reading-room, and the compositors wander up and down the aisles setting type and taking exercise at once.

—The meanest man in America lives in Portland; Thursday morning a runaway team there, was stopped by a man who jumped into the wagon over the tailboard and got control of the horses. He drove the team to a stable to inquire for the owner, and as he reached the place was pounced upon by that individual, who abused him in a shameful manner for using a rig that did not belong to him, and even threatened to have him arrested.

—At Mrs. Lovett's Coffee Rooms, a cup of tea, coffee, or chocolate with pie or cake, ten cents. Ham and eggs. Open at any time. Entrance through Geo. Lovett's tailor shop.

As Others See Us.
 During his recent visit here, Johnson of the Walla Walla Union, was moved to say: "I am told that during the past few months there has been quite a building boom, that the large sawmills here cannot fill the orders for lumber to be used in building in Astoria; that dwellings are very scarce, in fact that it is almost impossible to rent one, and that town lots are increasing in value. Many new roofs are visible and I have seen the carpenters putting up new buildings. The cause of this boom I have not sought for, I simply record what I see and hear. To me, one of the most noticeable peculiarities of Astoria, is the fact that nearly every house occupied for business purposes is set on piles, and the tide ebbs and flows under them twice a day. Many people reside over the water and some venturesome people live on the land, which is never dry. Astoria is an old, old, place and one of these days, when the Columbia bar has lost its terrors, it will be a large commercial point. I hope that our good Uncle Sam will feel moved to put the Government dentists at work on the mighty mouth of the Columbia, and hasten the coming of Astoria's greatness."

Birds and Plants.
 The British bark Isle of Bate, which is lying in the stream, brings 70 live birds from Shanghai. The Standard says that this vessel has made the quickest passage on record, having been only 29 days from Shanghai to the Columbia bar. In the lot are a number of golden pheasants, and some poultry of rare breeds. There is also a lot of plants on board. The Mongolian pheasants sent over some time since have done well, but the sand grouse, which were turned loose on Clatsop plains, have not been heard from since. The golden pheasant is one of the most grandly plumaged birds that flies, and looks more fitted to adorn an aviary than to furnish sport to the hunter, but should it be successfully introduced here will make a splendid addition to our feathered game.

They Enjoy the Fun.
 The farmers of Hunterdon and Somerset counties, New Jersey, use goats to protect their sheep from dogs. Two goats can drive away a dozen dogs, and two are about all each farmer puts in with his sheep. As soon as a dog enters the field at night the goats attack him, and their butting propensities are too much for the canine, who soon finds himself rolling over and over. A few repetitions of this treatment causes the dog to quit the field limping and yelping. Formerly when a dog entered a sheep field at night the sheep would run wildly around and cry piteously. Since the goats have been used to guard them, they form in line behind the goats and seem to enjoy the fun.

The Recklessness of Pendleton.
 There are too many stove-pipes, by half, sticking through the roofs of houses in Pendleton, particularly on Main street. They are not protected by any safe mode—only a cap of tin nailed on the shingles and the stove-pipe running through this. The heat from the fires is intense enough to ignite the shingles, and more so when the stove is full of wood and fire and the proprietor full of gin and beer.—East Oregonian.

Police Court.
 March 10, 1882.
 Harry C. Hipple, profane and abusive language in a public place; fined $20 or ten days in city jail.
 John Doe, abusive language in a public place; fined $10 or five days in city jail.
 J. Rosenthal, peddling without license; fined $5 or two days in city jail.

Auction Sale To-day.
 At 11 o'clock this morning, E. C. Holden will sell 4 restaurant tables, 1 child's cradle, chairs, and other second hand furniture. Carpet and matting, 1 parlor stove, 1 bar-room stove and a lot of sundries. Also 30 boxes of good cigars.

—Another of those fine A. B. Chase organs at the City Book Store.

—Van Dusen & Co. have just received a fine lot of hats of the latest styles and patterns.

—Three good loads of dry fir, spruce limbs, and bark, just received and for sale at Gray's dock.

—Parties having chances for the Grapophone at the City Book Store will please be on hand Saturday, at 7 P. M., as it will be raffled at that time. There are yet a few more chances for sale.

—We direct attention to the card of Dr. Wiltmore, who comes here with the highest encomiums from prominent San Francisco physicians. His experience in medical practice, more especially in the department of surgery and obstetrics, warrant the belief that he will continue to meet with success in the treatment of any and all cases requiring skill on the part of the practitioner.

ODE TO A COLLAR BUTTON
 Somehow you always seem too small
 To rightly fit the button-hole;
 O pearly disk, you rack my soul
 When down into my shoes you fall.
 I lose you twenty times a week,
 And find you when I think you lost.
 When hunting you on morns of frost,
 What eulogies of peace I speak.
 You wander coldly down my back,
 And o'er the carpet nimbly stroll,
 Then underneath the bureau roll,
 And settle in the furthest crack.

Knappa Items.
 KNAPPA, March 9, 1882.
 EDITOR ASTORIAN:
 With your kind permission we register our usual quiet and prosperity. Although a little tardy, in consequence perhaps of occasional "hard frosts," spring is urging its approach with the welcome notes of the robin and "swamp robin," while here and there a bright-eyed spring flower speaks of its beauty by hillside and forest, and the crocus, daisies and daffys of door-yard fame, look up smilingly to greet the warm sunshine.
 The health of the community is good, although I think I have heard complaints of being spring poor, a disease so common that it occasions no surprise.
 The annual school meeting passed off quietly with a moderate attendance at the white school house, while the front one held an excited crowd, some past troubles making it a sharp contest between spite and principle. Party spirit ran high and the cry of "fraud! fraud!" from the baffled contestants made it seem for the time that the services of our quiet Justice of the Peace might be needed; but thanks to the presence of the ladies, of whom six were present and voted, one, the aged mother of Mr. A. Knapp, with the silvered hair of 84 winters, stepped boldly forth to deposit her first vote for what she conscientiously believed to be the right, and the result proved that her opinion was the popular one. Frequent delays were made to satisfy the minds of those who thought the right of franchise, like a garment, to be donned and doffed at pleasure, the when and where at their will regardless of law and order. Decisions were made fearlessly and decidedly, and resulted in the election of A. Knapp, director for three years; J. D. Sutherland, for two years; J. W. Crow, for one year, and D. Sutherland district clerk. Being elected by a large majority and being men of energy and influence, will, we hope, fill the offices acceptably and secure us a ten months school for the ensuing year. The necessity for a full board of directors being occasioned by the removal of parties from the place. Great credit is due Col. Stone (who, by the way, should have been a lawyer) for his graceful urbanity in quieting the illogical and giving legal force to disputed points.
 RESIDENT.

Announcement.
 The National Surgical Institute of Indianapolis, with branches at Philadelphia, Atlanta, Ga., and San Francisco, which has a national reputation, will permanently establish a branch at Portland, Oregon. Two of the skilled surgeons of this institute prepared with every needed apparatus for the successful treatment of cripples will meet all the old patients and such new ones as may desire treatment; this year, at the following places: Portland, at St. Charles Hotel, April 8th, 10th and 11th; Albany, April 12th and 13th; The Dalles, April 17th; Walla Walla, April 19th and 20th; and Seattle, April 25th and 26th, and hereafter at Portland, Oregon, on the first two weeks of May and November of each year, commencing Nov. 1882.
 Beware of all traveling Doctors who may claim to represent any other institute, for this is the only Surgical Institute on this coast with facilities and experience for the treatment of deformities. J. M. HINKLE, M.D., Geo. B. HANDY, M.D. Surgeons in charge, National Surgical Institute, 319 Bush St., S. F.

Correct.
 At the coming Republican state convention, a strong plank advocating the completion of the locks around the Cascades and also the removal of all obstructions to navigations in the Columbia river, must be incorporated into the platform, and also at the primaries each delegate to the county convention must be pledged to nominate only those candidates for the legislature that will support such a plan for the U. S. Senate as will undoubtedly work for this end. This is the object to be obtained, and everything else must be subservient.—Dallas Times.
 Yes, and to make assurance doubly sure the Democratic state convention want to do the same thing. The coming legislature is the main point to be looked after. Pledges from both sides will be needed.

Pro Bono Publico.
 To my customers and the public generally, I would announce that I will leave on the next steamer to lay in my stock of cloths, clothing, furnishing goods, etc., for spring and summer trade. I will try my utmost to select a very fine assortment of them. The best of all is not too good for Astorians. Prices will range very low, as goods are really cheap this season. Wait for my return to get your outfit. M. D. KANT, Merchant Tailor and Clothier, Main street, Astoria, Oregon.

Bon Ton Tailoring Establishment.
 Mr. Sol Shipper, of the firm of Shipper & Rybke, No. 11, Oak street, Portland, Oregon, went out on the Columbia for San Francisco. He will return with a new stock of spring goods, and open the largest variety of goods ever seen in the Northwest. Suits made to order at reasonable prices and satisfaction guaranteed or no sale. Send on your orders.

Notice.
 Just received per steamer Columbia, a fine lot of eastern systems, which will be served up in first class style at Roscoe, Occident block.
