-To-night.
-Sheridan in his matchless impersonations.
-Bright gems of wit and melody at Liberty Hall, to-night.
-What a handy thing a telephone is to have in the house!
-Attention is directed to the card of Dr. Shafter in another column.
-You will enjoy a rare treat in listening to Miss Holbrook to-night.
-Holden advertises an underwriter's sale to take place next Wednesday.
-The celebrated comedienne, Miss Lou Davenport, at Liberty Hall, to-night.
-Sheridan, the leading actor on the American stage, at Liberty Hall, to-night.
-The Quickstep has been thoroughly repaired and is again ready for business.
-"Loss of a Whaler," is the way a Nevada paper announces the death of a school teacher.
-Largest passenger list of the season on the Columbia—475 or 480; and still they come.
-Miss Annie Gleason, late of the famous Wilhelmj concert will be foremost in to-night's attractions.
-Guiteau has offered Ben Butler his note for $5000, if he will get him out of his present predicament.
-The initial barge of the Astoria Transportation Company will be launched at 11 o'clock this morning.
-By yesterday's steamer new fire and burglar-proof safes were received by C. L. Parker, J. Foster, and Chas. Stevens & Son.
-A notice entitled "Pay up and save cost," in this morning's issue is of interest to those who are indebted to D. C. Ireland.
-Oscar Wilde will be in San Francisco very soon. Mr. Stechhan thinks of bringing him up to Astoria about the 1st of April.
-Mr. John Davis, auditor of Pacific county, W. T., was in town yesterday. He reports matters in Oysterville a little quiet at present.
-"The Vagabond" by Miss Holbrook, at the Y. M. C. A. social last night was received with the most marked appreciation and pleasure.
-In China they chop off the head of a man who puts sand in the sugar, or water in the milk. Those heathens could give us civilized folks a few points after all.
-All Germans are cordially invited to Divine service in their own language, at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. John Gautenbein, officiating.
-Of Hawley Chapman, who appears to-night, the New York Graphic says that his audience "which was large, fashionable, and enthusiastic" pronounced the entertainment "a great success."
-A deputation of the ladies of the Y. M. C. A. waited upon Miss Holbrook to secure her assistance at the social last evening, to which, with the consent of Mr. Sheridan she most kindly and readily assented.
-Those benighted fellows, the Chicago journalists, have this to say about the Alaskan: "The people of Alaska who ought to be contented and happy, do not seem to know when they are well off. With whisky at fourteen cents a quart, and neither a city council nor a Supreme court to worry them, those skin-clad aliens are clamoring for a government."

Val.
 It is almost with a feeling of personal loss that we learn from D. C. Ireland his intention to go into business in Portland. During our brief acquaintance with him we have learned to like him for his warm heart and kindly disposition, and in this we but voice the sentiment of his many friends in this part of the state. There is something about types and printer's ink that creates in the minds of those engaged in their manipulation a constant desire to return to their old avocation of carrying on "the art preservative of all arts;" and it is the most natural thing in the world for a man who was so long engaged in the newspaper business as Mr. Ireland was, to once more start into business of that kind. We have had considerable business transactions with D. C., have found him a SQUARE man, and heartily wish him success.

Col. Long's Lecture.

The anticipations of the large audience assembled at the M. E. Church last Thursday Evening, to hear Col. Long lecture on "The Coming Woman," were more than realized. The opening part was a little mixed as to metaphor, but the body of his discourse was a treat to hear. His tribute of praise to the noble women whose names are blazoned on the muster roll of nations, was couched in faultless diction, and his fervent hope that "The Coming Woman" should be all that he portrayed found affirmative echo in the hearts of his hearers. In the matter of word painting Col. Long is an artist, his beautiful language so well suited to his beautiful subject lent additional charm to the discourse, and, at its conclusion, when in a few graceful words of complimentary farewell he bade adieu to his audience, the applause that greeted him was most satisfactory endorsement of the truths that fell mended from his tongue.

The Oregon Short Line.

The board of directors of the Oregon Short Line Railway Company yesterday held an election of officers in this city. S. H. H. Clark, of Omaha, was elected president, Hon. D. P. Thompson vice president and Ellis G. Hughes secretary. The work of construction, track laying and bridge building is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible with the force now at work. The bridge under construction at Ameri can Falls, on Snake river, will be finished and trains running across it by the 1st of May. At the present rate of progress they will reach Wood river mines by the 1st of August, and Boise river two months later. At this rate about 325 miles of road will be completed in five months. An officer of the road remarked yesterday that the Oregon Short Line would be the first road with eastern connection into Portland.—Oregonian, 16th.

Information Wanted.

Mrs. Mary McGill, of Liverpool, England, would be thankful to receive information concerning her son Thomas McGill. She thinks it possible he may have been drowned while fishing in the Columbia river during the disastrous gale in May, 1880. If any one has any knowledge of the death or present whereabouts of said Thomas McGill, he will confer a favor on an anxious mother by communicating the same to E. C. Holden, of Astoria, or to James Laidlaw, Esq., British Vice-Consul in Portland, Oregon.

Will Lecture.

Mrs. A. S. Dunaway, who has been visiting her many friends in Astoria during the past few days, has concluded to remain until Wednesday, March 22d, when she will deliver a public address upon some phase of the Woman's Question which will be hereafter announced.

Police Court.

March 17th.
 George Brown, drunk in a public place. Fine $2 or one day in city jail.

—There is a worthy institution in our city, that in a quiet, unostentatious way is doing a great deal of good; we allude to the Free Library connected with the Y. M. C. A. We understand that an effort is being made to enlarge the sphere of its usefulness by securing an addition to the number of volumes, periodicals, etc., on its tables, and deem it deserving of encouragement on the part of the general community, whose best interests it is calculated to foster.

—Did you see those Easter cards at Adlers? They are superb.

—Furnished or unfurnished rooms can be had at the Union Hotel.

—Another of those fine A. B. Chase organs at the City Book Store.

—Examined the selection of summer suits, overalls, etc., at McIntosh's New Clothing Ho. se, Occident block. See ad.
