

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: TUESDAY, MARCH 21, 1882. J. F. HALLORAN, Editor.

Superior Knowledge.

The port of London has seen many rare and strange sights in its long history, and one of the strangest, says the Globe-Democrat, was the recent appearance of a tea-ship called the Mee Foo flying the Chinese flag.

The Democratic congressmen have elected Gen. Rosecrans chairman of the congressional campaign committee. It is characteristic of the Democracy to always make a mistake at the time when the consequences of their mistake would prove most disastrous to themselves.

The Oregonian reports Nicholas Luning as having said that his new purchase, the Wm. Taber, would be ready to go on the line between here and San Francisco in a month.

Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10, 1882. THE enemies of ex-Senator Conkling have been talking a good deal about how the vote stood on his confirmation for Supreme Judge, but accounts do not agree.

against it and insisted that it should be stopped. At his instance all the doors of the gallery were examined to see if they were locked, and all the recesses were looked into to see if any eavesdropping reporter had concealed himself within the chamber.

Another recent nomination of the President's that has created a good deal of stir in certain circles is that of Pinchback for Surveyor of Customs for the port of New Orleans. A lot of people here and in Louisiana have been very much agitated over this appointment.

Since the apportionment bill passed there has been a good deal of figuring on the probabilities of the next electoral college as well as the complexion of the next Congress. By the terms of the new law the electoral college will consist of 401 members.
