—To-night.

—Mrs. Duniway.

—The Ullock came down yesterday.

—The Ivy is outside with a pilot on board.

—Do you want Sergeant Mason pardoned for trying to kill Guiteau!

—Temperance alliances are being organized in different parts of the State.

—You should hear Mrs. Duniway to-night, on the question of Woman Suffrage.

—Attention is directed to the advertisement of Holden's auction sale to-day.

—The Oregon arrived in at noon yesterday. The Columbia started out at 2 P. M.

—The Oregonian thinks that the population of Portland and suburbs is 33,636.

—The foreign exports from the Columbia since Jan. 1st, '82 aggregate $3,886,545.

—The lumber remaining on the beach after the building of the barge will be sold at public auction at half past ten to-morrow morning.

—Everyone who feels an interest in seeing progress and enlightenment helped along will go hear Mrs. Duniway lecture at the Methodist church to-night.

—The river boats have lately been supplied with prayer books. The Standard thinks they will come in handy "when the mate's vocabulary is exhausted."

—Siberian dispatches to the government leave little hope for the safety of Lieut. De Long or the crew of the ill-fated Jeannette; it being apparent that they have perished from exposure.

—David Berry, messman of the steamship Walla Walla, put what money he had in his pockets and started to go ashore at Seattle on Wednesday evening last. He has not been seen since he started down the gang plank, and it is feared he missed his footing and fell into the water.

—From Capt. Alfred Everson, lately in command of the Shubrick here, we learn that he and his companions have secured a special franchise to engage in the shipment of oysters, turtle, etc. from the Gulf of California, during twenty-five years. It is proposed to construct a railroad from Port Isabel to connect with the Southern Pacific. By that means oysters can be delivered in San Francisco in sixty-five hours.

—The series of articles on the Christian Religion, by Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, Judge Jeremiah S. Black and Prof. George P. Fisher, which appeared recently in the North American Review, is now published in pamphlet form, in response to a very generally-expressed demand. We reviewed the matter at length in last Sunday's issue. Readers of the Review will be pleased to see these remarkable papers collected into one handy volume, and the general public, who have learned of the articles through the comments of press and pulpit, will be gratified to learn that a reprint has been issued. The price of the volume is 50 cents, and it is for sale at all news-stands and bookstores.

—House to let. Inquire of Mrs. Munson.

—Did you see those Easter cards at Adlers? They are superb.

—The new skating rink will be open this evening Go every body and skate on the new floor till 9 o'clock and then dance. The price of skates as usual, dance thrown in. Large hall, lots of room.

—The bids for A. M. Johnson & Co.'s building will be opened at the ASTORIAN office, between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock on the eve of the 25th inst.
A. M. JOHNSON & CO.

How Could He!

Thus cruelly discourseth Pixley, of the Argonaut, writing from the Senate chamber at Washington:

"Yesterday to Mr. Grover, of Oregon, was assigned the laboring oar of the Chinese debate. I presume his speech was an excellent one, and have no doubt that it will read well in the Congressional Record, and look well in pamphlet form. It was delivered in so low a tone that I could not hear it. It was long. To sit in the gallery and watch the moving lips of a speaker, catching here and there an occasional word, is not my idea of complete intellectual enjoyment.

While Mr. Grover had his manuscript well in hand, and was plodding industriously along its weary pages, the senators went to lunch. They lounged with their cigars in the cloak room, absented themselves for a promenade in the corridors, and went off to committee meetings, until I counted but twenty-one senators in their places, most of whom were engaged in reading newspapers and writing letters. Anthony, of Rhode Island, was asleep in his seat, as usual at that hour. Fat Ben Perly Poore was asleep on the Senate lounge. Lapham kept himself awake by writing. Edmunds and Voorhies always walk theirs off, and this looks better than to lie down under the load.

In the meantime Mr. Grover talked on, and when his printed speech shall reach the admiring constituency that resides where the Columbia roars and dashes, they will fancy their senator as having delivered it with inspired enthusiasm, and with all the pomp and circumstance of a glorious debate. When Senator Grover finished, Senator Farley took the floor."

Logging on the Sound.

At the present time, says the Seattle Post Intelligencer, there exists a great scarcity of logs, and the prices are correspondingly high. The cause of this scarcity is that timber could not be put into the water to any advantage in the winter, and many camps shut down last fall, and have not yet resumed operations. The seven or eight great mills on the Sound, assisted by the large number of smaller ones, use up logs very rapidly, and have about exhausted the supply already in the water. It is safe to predict that the market will again be overstocked with logs, and that prices will fall considerably in consequence, from the fact that almost every man who can get hold of a piece of timber land anywhere within a mile of the Sound or the streams that flow into it, and an ox team, is preparing to start a logging camp. One man informs us that at least sixteen new camps will be started on the Skagit river alone, and they will be able to roll logs into the water mighty fast. Good logs are now bringing six dollars per thousand feet, and scarce at that, but it is thought that by June next the market will be again overstocked, and that prices will fall accordingly.

Heavy Travel

Yesterday's San Francisco steamer brought 198 cabin and 350 steerage passengers, 1977 tons freight. It is worthy of remark, says the Oregonian that no regular steamer from San Francisco since March 1st has brought less than 400 passengers, and that outgoing steamers average but little above 100. Steerage passengers for San Francisco seldom number more than 40 by each steamer. It is safe to estimate that the immigration to Oregon and Washington per steamer via the Columbia river is not less than 2500 men and women per month, and the next three months the number arriving will be limited only by the carrying capacity of the steamers Oregon, State of California and Columbia. Reports from eastern Oregon and Washington show a great number of settlers arriving overland daily.

The Giddy Things.

"The schooner Kate and Annie crossed the bar on the 6th bound for Alsea. Just as the last rays of the setting sun kissed the beautiful waters of the broad and mighty Pacific, the Captain, while manipulating the wheel pronounced the marriage ceremony to Mr. A. A. Rose and Miss Hattie Baxter, both of Toledo, Bento county, Oregon." All this from Yaquina.

Police Court.

John Raynse; disorderly. Deposit $5.

John Williams; indecent act. Fined $40 or twenty days in city jail.

Mickie Mamarra; drunk. Fined $2 or one day in city jail.

—"Music hath charms." See Carl Adler's accordeons; they are as big as they make 'em.

—Chas. Stevens and Son have a stock of mouldings and moulders tools which can be bought cheap for cash to close out that branch of the business.

Respectfully Submitted.

How many the perplexities, difficulties and obstacles, that beset and embarrass in the conduct of even the humblest newspaper enterprise, the conflicting interests to be reconciled and harmonized; the compromises that must be made between the dictates of will and demands of Mammon; the necessity of balancing literary merit against marketable quality; the composing of the immemorial quarrel between the honest writer with his soul aflame for the castigation of sin, and the eminent sinner; the aggressive sensitiveness of that skinless ally, the contributor, whose work has to be made to square with interests too intricate for explanation and tastes too subtle for statement—in short the irreconcilable antagonism between what you would and what you can't. The newspaper business is not the only one subject to these hard conditions, but in no other with which we have acquaintance are the defects of results so conspicuous, the obstacles to achievement so obscure and the readiness to criticise so marked.

Announcement.

The National Surgical Institute of Indianapolis, with branches at Philadelphia, Atlanta, Ga., and San Francisco, which has a national reputation, will permanently establish a branch at Portland, Oregon. Two of the skilled surgeons of this institute prepared with every needed apparatus for the successful treatment of cripples will meet all the old patients and such new ones as may desire treatment, this year, at the following places: Portland, at St. Charles Hotel, April 8th, 10th and 11th; Albany, April 12th and 13th; The Dalles, April 17th; Walla Walla, April 19th and 20th; and Seattle, April 25th and 26th, and hereafter at Portland, Oregon, on the first two weeks of May and November of each year, commencing Nov. 1882.

Beware of all traveling Doctors who may claim to represent any other institute, for this is the only Surgical Institute on this coast with facilities and experience for the treatment of deformities. J. M. HINKLE, M.D.,

Shutes.

Grain shutes, says the Walla Walla Statesman, are a feature of Snake river, the hills on either side are so rugged and precipitous that a wagon road is an impossibility. But the great wheat country demanded that the grain should be brought to the river banks as expeditiously as possible, therefore pipes were laid up the face of the mountain, and grain is now sent down in bulk to the warehouses, where it is again sacked. The price paid is $2. 50 per ton for merely bringing it from the top of the hill to the boats. The pipes are of wood and are fully half a mile in length. There are four shutes in all, but one has been abandoned owing to the difficulty of making a landing.
