Albany has new potatoes; happy Albanians.
 Mrs. P. Fox is dangerously ill and not expected to recover.
 California is going to make shingles out of glass, and fruit boxes out of straw.
 The Northern Pacific R. R. Co., is furnishing employment for 10,000 men in Montana.

Arthur has taken down the horseshoe from the front door, and hung up one of the 306 brass medals in its place.

No, we don't know when the Republicans are going to hold their primaries nor do we know any one who does know.

A writer in the March Agriculturalist asks: "What is wind?" He has evidently never listened to a Congressional debate on civil service reform.

The government has spent 250,000 in investigating the locust, army worm and grasshopper, and the only result thus far reported is that none of them wear spectacles.

The Ivy is outside with Pilot Doig on board; the Duke of Aborcorne, with Woods on board, and the Wanlock, with Latham on board. All three vessels are overdue.

If the picture of Walla Walla received with the last number of the Palouse Gazette, be a correct one, the inhabitants of that venerable pueblo have our sincere sympathy.

Don't forget that lumber sale on the beach this morning. When the barge was finished, there was considerable odds and ends left. E. C.
 Holden will pronounce fitting eulogy upon them at half-past ten this morning.

We were shown yesterday by Mr.
 John Phelan, the inventor, a draught of a drug and scoop, on which he will soon receive letters patent. Mr. Phelan is of the opinion that it will be effective in the work for which it is intended.

An open temperance meeting will be held in the M. E. church at 8 P. M., Friday, when steps will be taken for a permanent organization. The meeting will be addressed by Mrs. A. S.
 Duniway, president at large of the open temperance organization.

Out of regard for the petitioner, Judge Deady has courteously ordered that Ka-ta-ta, the Alaskan murderer under sentence of death, shall be hanged on the 28th inst., instead of the 31st, as originally ordered. This kind consideration is in response to a feeling in the heart of Ka-ta-ta that he would like to have departing friends with him at his send-off.

An eastern Washington paper tells how they raise wheat over in Garfield county: in the case of Thomas Benbow who last harvest threshed on Pahata prairie 31,000 bushels of grain from 952 acres of land, being an average of over 32 bushels to the acre. He threshed for 20 persons 3435 acres of land, two-thirds of which will soon be under cultivation.
 This will give 109,820 bushels of grain for only 20 persons on Pataha prairie.

Crop reports gathered by the Walla Walla Statesman, from every portion of the west and north-west, show that winter wheat is in an excellent condition, and that the area of spring wheat will be increased should the season prove favorable. The amount of surplus wheat grown last year in Eastern Washington and Oregon is placed at 3,730,000 bushels.
 The acreage of 1882 will be nearly double that of 1881, and it is estimated that there will be a surplus of 9,000,000 bushels the coming season.

Nehalem Valley.
 The Mishawaka correspondent of the Yamhill Register says: "The valley I think will average a mile in width. The land is rich and cannot be beat in raising vegetables and grain. The timber is very heavy, being mostly fir, hemlock, spruce, cedar, alder and maple. There are ridges or strips of fern land which is not so good as the bottom until cultivated for a year or so. The fern is very tall, and is said not to be hard to kill as the short. The land is level in some places, while in others it is very rough and hilly. I would say that anyone looking for health and a new home, come to Nehalem, for a more healthy place cannot be found. There are a great many vacant claims. The climate, I think, is about the same as in the Willamette valley. Being close to the hills, we may have more snow. The snow here now is about 11 inches deep. It is the first snow of any consequence we have had this winter. The cold is not at all severe.
 There are settlements all along the Nehalem river. There being a trail between part of them, where there is no trail the people go in canoes and skiffs. There are about 150 inhabitants in this and the Fishhawk settlement, which is about seven miles from here. There being 25 families and 20 bachelors in our settlement. There is game in abundance, such as elk, deer, bear and wildcats, and a few wolves and panthers.

The Dry Dock.
 The work of the O. R. & N. Co. is being vigorously prosecuted on the dry dock, railroad and depot in East Portland. A large field at the dry dock is being staked out preparatory to fitting it for side tracks, car shops etc. Some suggest however, that the grounds are being laid out for gardens in accordance with the rural proclivities of the inhabitants of East Portland.
 A track is being graded from the river near the dry dock back to the bluff, thence down it towards the Columbia river as though the intention might be to cross the Columbia above the mouth of the Willamette and run the road to Kalama on the Washington Territory side instead of on the Oregon shore.

An Untrustworthy Almanac.
 It will be remembered that when the Harvest Home was wrecked some weeks ago, the error in calculating his latitude and longitude was ascribed by Capt. Mattson to a fault in Ten-net's Nautical Almanac. Tenet acknowledged the mistake afterwards.
 It now seems that another vessel, the Greyhound, was placed in serious danger by misplaced confidence in the same work; being bound for Tahiti, and according to actual observations being six degrees out of the way by the calendar. The jeopardy in which life and property is placed by mistakes of that kind, would suggest extreme caution in the selection of works of that class.

Police Court.
 March 22d.
 Jno. Dusky, disorderly, deposited $20, no appearance; deposit forfeited.
 M. Namara, drunk, deposited $5, no appearance; deposit forfeited.
 The City of Lucknow was towed down yesterday.

The lecture at the M. E. church last evening was well attended, and the sentiments of the lecturer warmly endorsed. There are a good many in Astoria who believe in the doctrine of woman suffrage, and are always well pleased to hear it placed so fairly and clearly as Mrs. Duniway, its ablest champion on this coast, so well knows how to do.

The Weston Weekly Leader has an "Educational Department." Here is a "problem" from the physical geography corner of the "department." "A pleasure boat broke loose from its moorings at Pittsburg, Pa.; when next seen it was at Constantinople, Turkey. Explain how it got there." The fact of it being a pleasure boat renders the above a very difficult problem to solve.

The Seattle Post Intelligencer gets a little cocky because we set it right; and says it doesn't make any difference whether the Montezuma was built at Portland or Astoria. Probably not—to the S. P. I. It has got to be so common to attribute the building and making of everything that is put together in Oregon to Portland, that the folks here have grown tired of it; but the S. P. I. need not lose its temper over it.

"Missie bath charms." See Carl Adler's accordeons; they are as big as they make 'em.
 Chas. Stevens and Son have a stock of mouldings and moulders tools which can be bought cheap for cash to close out that branch of the business.

A Ship With A History
 The Great Western, which left San Francisco for Tacoma last Friday, is in many respects a remarkable vessel.
 If, according to mariners, the average age of ships is from eighteen to twenty years, then has the Great Western survived two nautical generations.
 She is 1800 tons register, and was built between thirty and forty years ago in New York city. Her first voyage was to Liverpool, and at a time when the average size of ships was from 700 to 900 tons burden. She was the prodigy of Liverpool docks.
 Crowds assembled daily to gaze and wonder at her majestic hull and towering spars. She was twenty-nine years in the Atlantic trade as one of the fleet of the Black Ball packet line, and has been nine years trading along this coast, chiefly from San Francisco to Oregon and Washington Territory.
 She crossed the Atlantic 116 times, and, except when undergoing ordinary repairs has been steadily kept by her owners in the coasting trade ever since, and in all the vicissitudes of her long nautical life never lost one of her crew nor so much as a spar in a gale of wind at sea.

She was a passenger ship at the time of the great Irish exodus after the famine of 1848, and has brought 30,000 passengers, at one time and another from the Old World to the New and has in this respect, as her owners claim, done the United States better service than any other sailing ship afloat. She has had 1500 births and 200 marriages on board. In transferring so many thousands to new life, new occupations, new associations, and a new country, the Great Western has been sponsor in this second baptism of social transition to a generation which is now itself growing sober in the autumn twilight of existence.
 Her nautical children are scattered everywhere, even along this coast, and whenever she calls at wayside ports, many of them pay her an affectionate visit, when they point out the very spot, "ween decks, where they slept in the long, long years ago, and dreamed of the old homes which they had left, and of the new homes to which they were bound.

 Institute, 319 Bush St., S. F.

An Oriental Philosopher.
 A well-known Chinaman, who is regarded as a very sensible man by his countrymen, says that he sincerely hopes that a law will be passed by the present Congress restricting Chinese immigration. He said that the Chinese residents of this coast did not desire a further immigration of their countrymen from the East, as a greater influx would interfere with their present prosperity; but the anxiety for populating this side of the Pacific with Oriental hordes comes altogether from the other side. It is certain that the wishes of the resident heathen in this respect will now be regarded.

 Six months have passed and yet there are several persons whose indebtedness to me, on account of THE ASTORIAN prior to October 1st, 1881, still remains uncancelled. I have determined to bring, if necessary, suit to collect every dollar that remains delinquent after ten days from this date, (March 17th 1882) hence if you are DELINQUENT, YOU KNOW IT, and can save costs and trouble by handing the money to Mr. F. C. Norris, who is the only person authorized to collect the same in Astoria, or by forwarding the same to my address.

Wants to Know.
 ED. ASTORIAN:
 That is the question: Whether the citizens of Astoria have any rights that the Chief of Police is bound to respect.
 I am 23 years in the United States and during all that time I have never seen a respectable citizen indignantly spurried from the jail door for the simple offense of submissively asking Mr. C. Loury if he would hand a good hearted but misguided boy convicted for a petty offence a couple of news papers which I had purchased for him, the aforesaid Chief slammed the door in my face at the same time remarking "OH out! I'll give him nothing now if there is any thing in the City Charter of Astoria giving such power to its Chief of Police I would like to know it."
