—The Vesuvius is ready for sea.

—The Ullock went to sea yesterday.

—T. Sherry calls attention to sundry facts.

—You will be welcome at the temperance meeting to-night.

—Dr. Kinney arrived home yesterday afternoon from a trip to the capital.

—Pomeroy has a hundred people who don't drink. When they feel thirsty they go and eat raisins.

—'Tis said that there is a "split" in the Greenback party; that party is too thin to split; it might stand a little shaving with profit.

—A Northern Pacific passenger train went through a bridge forty miles west of Bismarck, last Tuesday, killing and wounding over twenty persons.

—It is said a piece of zinc placed on the live coals will effectually clean out a stove-pipe, the vapor thus produced carrying off the soot by chemical decomposition.

—The cyclone season opens briskly in the breezy valley of the Mississippi. A thriving little Missouri town has been swept by the rictous zephyrs and totally demolished.

—Sheridan played "Still Water Runs Deep," in Portland last night. If it was as cold in the theater there as it was here, the water wouldn't run very far before freezing.

—Consul Van Buren, at Yokohama, thinks that Japanese upland rice can be profitably cultivated in the Northwestern States of this country. Another reason for hastening the building of that road to Skipanon.

—Attention is directed to E. C. Holden's new ad. of auction sale of valuable real estate, on next Thursday. The property advertised for sale is among the most eligible for business locations that can be found in this city.

—Seventy murders have been committed in San Francisco in the last ten years; of the seventy murderers but ONE has been convicted, and he is in the penitentiary. That is the kind of "justice" that starts mobs and vigilance committees.

—A Eugene City debating society have authoritatively settled in the affirmative that the Bible is the uninspired work of man. This disposes of a vexed question. The next thing in order for the society is "Which is the butt end of a goat?"

—The Standard learns that the work on the O. R. & N. Co.'s road from Pendleton over the Blue Mountains via the Meacham pass is progressing slowly, owing to its being almost impossible to secure laborers. The route surveyed will leave Boise about fifteen miles to the left.

—This is A Boy. He has been Fishing for smelt. See how Tired he looks. What Did he Get? He got—Wet. What did he Catch? He has caught a Cold. The tin Bucket is full Of emptiness; he is full Of Remorse. Lit-tle Boys, do Not go a-fishing without asking your Parents. If you do, you Will not Catch anything—till you get Home.

—It costs about $800 simply to transfer the freight from the wharf at San Francisco into the hold of the State of California, which carries 1,600 tons. This, of course, is more per ton than if there were not such a variety of classes of merchandise, the proper storage of which takes time and experienced labor. It costs less to unload a ship as there is no stowage, the freight being dumped more or less promiscuously on the wharves.

Yet On the Slide.

THE DALLES, Or., March 17, 1882.
EDITOR ASTORIAN:

At Salem one is apt to hear of politics somewhat. It is the state capital, and hence natural enough. There is the railroad and anti-railroad crowd in both parties; the railroad people are talking of Moody, Republican, for Governor; Mitchell and Dolph for Senators. There is also Dave Thompson for Governor, and M. C. George for representative, both on the Republican side. The Democrats are talking of Judge Bonham and Judge Shaw for Governor, and Judge McArthur for Representative. Judging from the general feeling over the country, I believe it would be well for those who hold railway passes to keep out of the field this election. The people who should be allowed to ride on free passes are those that pay. And again, nearly all those that now travel with passes are able to pay their way and should be made to pay.

Portland proposes to improve the river at her own expense. This noble example the people of Astoria should follow by raising a small tax to drag on the bar below Astoria. This is, provided an appropriation is not made this session. Portland and Astoria will probably work together hereafter in the matter of bar improvement.

The Dalles is improving. The people here complain of the high rates of freight to Portland. They are certainly exorbitant, but if the merchants of The Dalles had a small part of the pluck and independence of the Astorians, freight rates would not be half so high.

Astoria has no prospects of any railroad that I know of, but railroads are being built everywhere, and to places in Oregon that cannot promise one-tenth the business that Astoria does. Astoria is the only place of note, either in Oregon, California or Washington Territory, without a railroad. Altogether conflicting interests have brought about a determined opposition to a railroad to Astoria by the Villard management. A few years of such prosperity as Astoria is now having cannot fail to bring a road from an independent source. ONCHORYNCHUS.

Cigarette-Consumed Youth

Like a midnight apparition that can not be shaken off, the cigarette-consumed young man haunts one daily in the streets and nightly in the theaters and saloons. His sallow countenance, betokening the signs of approaching dissolution, appears ever and anon between the masses of death-laden smoke which arise and are wafted into the faces of healthy pedestrians, causing sensations of a sickly nature. The smile with which he greets you is only an alleged smile, and the hollow voice which utters his equally hollow words, grates on the ear and makes one think of how a skull might talk if skulls were gifted with speech. His walk is a totter, his breath savors of the charnel-house and his eyes wear a pitiful, painful, idiotic look. The rising generaton promises to be largely composed of the cigarette-consumed young men unless stringent measures are taken to counteract existing tendencies. It were better that Mother Shipton had been right, or that the sun hurry up and reach the earth, than that such a result transpire. It would be vastly better for the young man to be sun-consumed than cigarette-consumed. The cigarette-consumed young man is a bore, and the world is tired of seeing him around.—Old Fogy.

Examination of School Teachers

The public quarterly examination of applicants for certificates to teach school in Clatsop County will be held at the Court House in Astoria, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M. on Thursday the 30th inst. W. W. PARKER.
County Supt., Clatsop Co., Ogn.

—A six-year-old boy, named Graves, was killed by a cougar near Mt. Vernon, Tuesday afternoon.

—Prominent among the star pupils for last month were Robt. McLean, John Anderson and Eliza McLean, whose names were accidentally omitted from the list published.

—We regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. Sarah Fox, wife of Justice Fox, who passed away at an early hour yesterday morning. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning; there will be a requiem mass at the Roman Catholic church, from whence the body will be taken to the grave.

—We understand that a branch organization of the "Patriotic Sons of America" has been formed here and meets twice a month in the workmans' Hall. It is alleged that the principles are about the same as those of the famous "Crescents" who made such a stir in California and Nevada, six years ago.

Announcement

The National Surgical Institute of Indianapolis, with branches at Philadelphia, Atlanta, Ga., and San Francisco, which has a national reputation, will permanently establish a branch at Portland, Oragon. Two of the skilled surgeons of this institute prepared with every needed apparatus for the successful treatment of cripples will meet all the old patients and such new ones as may desire treatment, this year, at the following places: Portland, at St. Charles Hotel, April 8th, 10th and 11th: Albany, April 12th and 13th: The Dalles, April 17th; Walla Walla, April 19th and 20th; and Seattle, April 25th and 26th, and hereafter at Portland, Oregon, on the first two weeks of May and November of each year, commencing Nov. 1882.

Beware of all traveling Doctors who may claim to represent any other institute, for this is the only Surgical Institute on this coast with facilities and experience for the treatment of deformities. J. M. HINKLE, M.D.,

Patent Washer.

Mr. F. C. Hammond is now in the city for the purpose of inducing the latest labor saving invention: a patent pneumatic clothes washer which is destined to supersede the old fashioned machines. There is one now in operation at the Occident which is, of itself a good advertisement. If you need anything of the kind get the best, and this is the best. It works on a new principle and is at once neat, cheap, durable and effective.
