No. 13.

AN EXCITING HORSE RACE.

The wildest horse race ever known took place on the Denver track on September 10th, 1860.

In the Denver race, the Greer boys, who owned Chief, backed him.

An even start was obtained in the second heat, the two horses passing into the quarter stretch neck and neck.

Then commenced a riot and turmoil the like of which was never before or since witnessed on a race course.

became frantic with rage. Con Oram and Charles Switz, who afterward became noted prizefighters, stood at the door to the stand and held the mob at bay until the judges had given their decision.

came flying along, dished out to him the same as they did to others, his allowance of prison fare.

Mounted on broncho ponies, with pistols and bowie-knives drawn, the Greer brothers and a party of friends made their way to the $95,000 and cut it to the ground.

A BLIGHTED LIFE.

Truly, "the way of the transgressor is hard." Some of our readers will doubtless remember John T. Best, the well-dressed, gentlemanly appearing young man who accompanied Col. Williamson to San Jose, some months ago, to examine the tower then in course of construction.

A Chronicle reporter, while inspecting the jute factory at San Quentin on Monday, learned that Best takes his imprisonment very hard.

It is stated that in Mexico wooden railway ties cost about a dollar and a half apiece, and that some of them laid on the Mexican National Railway last May are now decayed and unsafe.

A Toilet Luxury. SODODONT is a luxury as well as a necessity. Placed where it should always be upon the toilet, it adorns it, and gratifies the taste and senses.

The Weekly Astorian. Is a mammoth sheet, double the size of the Daily. It is just the paper for the freshest, containing in addition to all the current news, choice miscellaneous, agricultural matter, market reports, etc.

Death in the Street. In exciting the emotions the imagination plays a conspicuous part.
