—The Columbia is due this morning.

—The picnic season has opened in the Willamette valley.

—"Shall a hotel furnish quill toothpicks?" is the latest question.

—The State of California left Portland at twelve o'clock last night.

—Salmon was quoted at fifteen cents per tin in London on the 15th ult.

—Kann's sale begins at Holden's auction rooms this afternoon and evening.

—We notice all the latest papers and magazines on the counters of our book stores.

—An infant son of Mr. H. Sloop, of upper town, died last Thursday and was buried yesterday.

—The Muldoons are still playing in Portland. "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be produced here in ten or twelve days.

—One hundred feet of a Seattle wharf fell a few days ago, the piles having been completely eaten through by the teredo.

—Dr. Whittemore, formerly of this place but lately at New Castle lost all his effects by the burning of his office last Sunday night.

—A hundred thousand dollar fire at Olympia last Thursday morning destroying one of the principal business blocks in the town.

—The Langrigg Hall is loading salmon at the O. R. & N. Co.'s dock. She has on 6,000 cases and will take on 34,000 more by the 7th prox.

—Since the editor of the Falls City had a head put on him by a candidate who didn't like newspaper publicity, Mr. Sam Simpson has taken charge of that paper.

—Regular communication of Temple Lodge No. 7 A. F. & A. M. this evening at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance specially requested.

By order, W. M.

—The editor of the Coos Bay News waxes eloquent in picturing the horrible fate that would overtake the Coos Bayonets if his paper were to expire. 'Tis a most suggestive topic.

—The ceremonies at Vancouver on Decoration day promises to be elaborate. Prominent speakers will be on hand, original poetry will be read, and a big time generally is anticipated.

—Meetings are being held in various up-country cities and towns and villages to devise ways and means for celebrating the coming 4th of July. What is Astoria going to do in the matter?

—Upon the receipt of the news of her daughter's death, Mrs. Stevens, who has been for some time in most delicate health, was completely prostrated, and during yesterday her recovery was considered doubtful. Last evening she was resting easier.

—Major Adams, the editor of the Columbian, is running as an independent candidate for judge in Columbia county. He gives as his reason that he thinks that it is best for himself and the people of the county.

—The Walla Walla Union thinks that if the O. R. & N. Co. would offer Walla Wallaians tickets to Clatsop beach and back, at reduced rates, good for thirty days, that a large number could be sold. "During the heated term many of our citizens would visit the sea shore with their families if it did not cost a small fortune to travel back and forth. By offering reduced rates the company would fill their passenger coaches and boats, afford our people a chance to go away from home, and make money."

Death of Mrs. Case.

Mrs. Fannie E. Case, wife of Hon. I. W. Case, died at their residence in this city at twenty minutes to ten last Thursday night. The deceased lady was universally esteemed and respected by a large circle of friends who heard with sorrow of her death. She was the daughter of Chas. Stevens, Esq., one of our oldest citizens, and was born in Le Moil, Illinois, May 22d, 1841. She crossed the plains to Oregon in 1852, and lived almost continuously in Astoria for the last thirty years. She was a devout and exemplary christian, and is sincerely mourned by those whom she had endeared to her by her virtues. She left an infant boy, six days old.

The funeral will take place at two o'clock to-morrow afternoon, from the Congregational church.

Trouble in Alaska.

A letter to the Post-Intelligencer from Fort Wrangle, under date of May 4th, says: A canoe arrived here a few days since from Juneau City, bringing information that there had been trouble between the Auks and Stickeens. The former had threatened to kill the Stickeens, as they did not wish them to work, claiming the right to the land, etc.

The miners, to the number of 100, turned out, having breech-loading guns, interfered in favor of the Stickeens, giving the Auks to understand that they would not permit any fighting, and that all tribes had the privilege of remaining there. A boat was dispatched to Sitka, informing the commander of the Wachusetts of the fact, and it is presumed that the boat is at present at Juneau City, as the captain intended to be there on the 1st.

I. O. O. F.

Members of Beaver lodge No. 35, I. O. O. F., sojourning brothers in good standing and Sisters of Rebeccah, are requested to meet at the lodge room of Beaver lodge on Sunday, May 21st, 1882, at 1 o'clock, to attend the funeral of Mrs. I. W. Case.

By order N. G.

J. Rasmusen; aiding prisoner to escape; deposit $20, deposit forfeited.

E. Williams, drunk; deposit $3 forfeited.

Wm. O'Brien, drunk; $2 or one day in city jail.

Public Speaking.

Hon. W. Lair Hill will address the citizens of Astoria and vicinity on the political issues of the day at Liberty Hall on Tuesday the 23rd inst., at 8 P. M.

—Capt. Flavel returned to the city yesterday.

—Port Townsend is to have an $18,000 hospital.

—The Multnomah county Democratic convention meets to-day.

—But little snow remains on the mountains to the south of us.

—The flags throughout the city yesterday were at half mast in memory of Mrs. I. W. Case.

—Capt. Hustler gives notice to contractors that bids will now be received for building the new school house.

—New potatoes are 1½ cents a pound in San Francisco and, and six cents here; that's all the difference.

—The Henri Sempe came down yesterday and cleared for Liverpool with $40,000 worth of flour on board.

—There was nothing in the way of shipping news along the river front yesterday. The fishermen report a little increase in the number of salmon caught.

—From latitude 39 N. and longitude 171 W., to Cape Flattery it is reported that the ocean is alive with countless myriads of fur seal. They are being caught in great numbers, and it does seem as though seal skin sacques ought to be a little cheaper.

—Mr. Caspar Baltes thinks that when streets are being repaired some means should be adopted whereby he need not stumble and stand in danger of hurting himself as has been the case in various instances this week. The attention of the proper authorities is desired by him to be called to this important matter.

—We are in receipt of a marked copy of the London Grocers' Gazette containing a very fine article on the Columbia river salmon fisheries, and credited to the Portland Reporter. Our only reason for not republishing it is that it appeared originally in THE ASTORIAN from whence it was scooped by our enterprising Portland contemporary.

CLIPPED AND CONDENSED.

The Statesman publishes the annual exhibit of Walla Walla county, W. T. There were $20,358 18 in the treasurer's hands. The total receipts were $92,663 15; disbursements $80,830 60.

The Walla Walla Union says that the parties who have the contract for furnishing the North Pacific with blasting powder are about to erect a powder manufactory somewhere on Lake Pen d'Orielle.

Thomas McAndrew of Bear Creek, Jackson county, raised about 45,000 pounds of potatoes on two acres of bottom land last year, most of which he found no trouble in disposing of at a cent a pound.

The Ashland Tidings says: It is generally believed that this year's peach crop in this neighborhood has been ruined.

Yesterday furnished the heaviest sand storm that we have ever experienced since our residence in this valley. The wind came from the northwest, and was laden with whole sections and townships of Stanislaus and Merced land, and picking up in its course acre after acre of Fresno county soil, it continued its course down the valley, an almost solid volume of suffocating and blinding sand and dust. There was enough soil went south to make high land of the swamps of Kern.—Fresno Cal. Expositor, 8th inst.

Great preparations are making for the annual reunion of the army of the Potomac at Detroit, June 14th and 15th. General Grant will be present; also General Sheridan, ex-President Hayes and others.

The following ominous "Notis" is posted in a Texas saw-mill: "Doant munky with the buz saw when in meshun"

A Western paper announces that upon the occasion of a recent boiler explosion in the neighborhood "between three and four men were killed."

A silver cake basket full of twenty-dollar gold pieces was among the presents at a wedding in Providence, R. I., last week.

The Puget Foundry at Seattle will soon turn out three large 12-wheel logging cars. The wheels are very wide and the flanges nine inches apart. The cars are intended to run on wooden rails 8x8 inches and a road 8 foot guage.

Seattle is to have a new city hall built of brick at a cost of $6,000.

To a poetess the heartless Chicago Tribune writes: "It will be impossible to print your poem about the roses true and the violets blue that bloom in the grassy dell, and the little birds that sweetest words of love in their chirpings tell. We have a large line of dell and bleubird poetry on hand this spring that was carried over from last year."

Kansas claims a former citizen in President Arthur. He went to Leavenworth in 1857 intending to locate, bought some town lots and lived in Kansas about a month. Then he returned to the more settled life of New York.

—The New York Star wants Talmage to tell where Emerson has gone The question reminds that sheet that Father Taylor, the old Methodist preacher of Boston, once said: "Send Emerson to hell! Why, he would alter the climate and turn the tide of emigration that way."

Fear of being arrested in connection with the murder of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Burke is now so general in Ireland that the peasantry traveling outside of their districts are applying to the police for passports. Many emigrants leaving the South of Ireland for America resort to the same course.

The war department has issued an order setting forth the scheme of competition for prizes intended to raise the standard of marksmanship of both officers and men.

—Geo. W. Hume and wife are on the Columbia and will arrive in Astoria to-day.

—Prophets are numerous in the upper country who say that the June rise in the Columbia will be greater than usual.

—70,000 immigrants landed at Castle Garden last month. 'Tis thought that the arrivals for this month will aggregate 100,000.

—English residents of the coast are very properly taking steps to celebrate the birthday of Queen Victoria, which anniversary falls on the 24th inst. Pixley, of the Argonaut, who grows purple in the face when the 17th of Ireland is celebrated, or an Orangeman plays "The Boyne Water," will probably give a column on the enormity of allowing those blasted Hinglish to make such a fuss, you know.

Body Found.

SKIPANON, May 18, 1882.

EDITOR ASTORIAN:

I herewith give you an account of the finding of a body of a man on Clatsop beach about 8 miles south of Skipanon landing. Said body wore one white shirt, one coarse gray woolen shirt, one pair coarse cotton drawers, one pair blue overalls, 1 pair duck overalls, black vest, faded black beaver coat, southwester and oil-skin coat. Personal description; about 5 4 inches high, well built, fine black hair, light mustache. In pocket were found some white rags, a red silk handkerchief, 1 white handkerchief with J. Richter marked in one corner, a copy of DAILY ASTORIAN of April 22, a ring with a small key, a white handled 3 bladed pocket knife, a pocket comb, 1 beer ticket from Ginder, a tide table for April, half dollar U. S. coin, 1 Bavarian 3 kreutzer piece of 1851's coinage, a cannery ticket marked A. Booth, No. 66, April 22d, boat No. 22, No. of fish 4.

Owing to an advanced state of decomposition, it was buried as decently as circumstances would permit.

For the above articles and further information address

J. L. LEVISON,
Skipanon, Oregon.

—A sub-committee of the House of Representatives, after investigating the question of lapsed land grants, decides that the charters of the North-Pacific and the Atlantic and Pacific are non-forfeitable.

—The Bellevue, I. T. News says: We hear of thousands on the road to Wood river, packing their blankets, and begging their way. Better keep out. You wont have wind enough left to curse the country by fall.

—The Portland city council has passed an ordinance that all Chinese landing at that city shall be vaccinated before coming ashore. 'Tis a wise precaution, but yet is not necessary, for the health officer here makes a thorough examination of the vessel upon her arrival at this port. It will be a good thing for the physician that gets the appointment.
