Council meets to-night.
 Beefsteak and other luxuries are advanced in price of late.
 The Brownville woolen mills import cotton in compressed bales.
 The Shubrick moves too lively these times to keep track of her.
 W. S. Caldwell, a Portland pioneer, died in that city last Saturday aged 58 years.
 H. J. Hansen has returned from Fort Canby having finished his contract at that place.

Our fine weather was of brief duration, but it made our worshippers out of all our citizens while it lasted.
 Some of the resident Chinese say: "Me heap like Chinese bid; too much Chinese come, work too much cheap, no likee."

The sheriff of Chehalis county advertises for sale all the Northern Pacific lands within his jurisdiction on account of non payment of taxes in 1881.
 Hon. W. Lair Hill speaks at Liberty Hall to-night on the political issues of the day. The ladies are specially invited, and all that can should go to hear what he has to say.

The Twenty-ninth Annual Convocation of the Missionary Jurisdiction of Oregon will convene in Trinity Church, Portland, on Thursday evening, June 1st, and continue in session until the Sunday following.
 The hacks running between here and uptown did a big business last Sunday. The owners have shown considerable enterprise in fitting up so extensively and deserve the liberal patronage they enjoy.

The new steamer for the Ilwaco Steam Navigation Company is making good progress and will be completed in a few weeks. She will be called the General Miles, and will run in connection with the General Canby between here and Ilwaco.

We were yesterday shown the plans of a new building 48x96, three stories high, to be put up by Hansen Bros., for Theo. Broesmer, in the lot east of the M. E. Church. The building is to cost nearly $8,000 and will begin about the 1st prox.

The fire at the Ocean Cannery last Saturday evening destroyed the main establishment, but sufficient of the plant was left to justify the owners starting up again as soon as they can replace the material. They expect to be in full operation again by the 1st prox.

An English captain who had long lain in the harbor of San Francisco, waiting for a crew, grew tired of the delay last Tuesday, and as he only lacked one of his complement, shipped himself to go before the mast, signing the ship's articles, and placing his brother in command of the vessel.

William Hume, of Eagle Cliff, says that in 1880 he found on one occasion a bear's toe in his trap; the following season he found two toes that the ursine had parted with in a similar manner, and on last Sunday caught the owner of the toes, a big fellow, who was minus three of those useful digits. The set is now complete, and the bear is freed, as it were.

Card of Thanks.
 Mrs. Dr. Trenchard and family desire to sincerely thank Hon. R. P. Earhart, officers of the steamers Bonita and Fleetwood, and their very many friends in Astoria, Salem and Portland, for their kindness and sympathy in the loss of our dear son and brother, Salem, Portland and Victoria papers please copy.

How to Become Naturalized.
 An applicant for naturalization, if arrived in this country after he was eighteen years of age, must make declaration before the clerk of any court of record having common law jurisdiction and soil, of his intention to become a citizen, two years at least before his admission as such. At the end of five years from the time of his arrival in the country, such declaration having been made two years before, he is entitled to his papers upon application to the court. In case the applicant arrived in the United States before he was eighteen years of age and has obtained the age of twenty-one years, and has been in the country five years, he is entitled to become a citizen without the declaration two years in advance; he will then make the declaration at the time of his admission, that for two years it has been his intention to become a citizen. The applicant must be declared on oath that he supports the constitution of the United States and renounces all allegiance to foreign powers. Furthermore, the court must be satisfied by one or more witnesses that the applicant has lived in the country at least five years, and in the state in which the court is held at least one year, and that he has been a man of good moral character. A man who has served in either the regular or volunteer army of the United States, and has been honorably discharged, can be admitted upon his petition without previous declaration. The oath of the applicant is in no case allowed to prove the fact of his residence.

Got 'em again.
 The following sad fiction is from the Portland Standard. "A gentleman who returned yesterday from a two weeks visit to Astoria, gives a very flattering account of the state of affairs there. The meagre result of the salmon catch thus far has had a most depressing effect on the town and that morning, noon and evening the prayer of all is for the salmon to begin to run. The number of roughs and toughs in the city is very large. Fights and affairs are of frequent occurrence. The police travel in couples and are afraid to use their clubs in arresting disorderly persons, as if they do they are hauled up before a justice and fined from $10 to $40. The foreign fishermen are a rough class, and as an election is approaching there is a tendency to be lenient with them when they transgress. This is a very sad state of affairs to prevail in the Venice of Oregon." "It is probable that the 'gentleman' who allowed his heated imagination to thus run riot will now 'cool off' on less potent beverage than that of the last two weeks. Whatever it is that he drinks it will not be Coffee."

Funeral of Mrs. Case.
 Long before the time announced for the obsequies of the late Mrs. Fannie E. Case, last Sunday afternoon, the Congregational church was filled, as many being outside as were in. The ceremonies were conducted by Rev. G. W. Atkinson, who in fitting words gave utterance to the feelings that filled the hearts of all present. At the close of his remarks theasket which contained all that was mortal of the loved wife and mother, was borne to the grave followed by the many different societies and orders of the city and a concourse of citizens who testified by this last act of respect the feelings of regret they felt for her who has gone before.

Earth to Earth.
 The last sad tribute that affection can pay to those from whom we all part upon life's pathway was yesterday tendered the remains of Robert Trenchard. The body, which had arrived from Portland Sunday afternoon, was borne from the Episcopal church to the graveyard, where the beautiful liturgy of that faith gave promise of consolation to the mourners, that, though the coffin-lid hid the inanimate form of son and brother from the yearning gaze of those who loved him so well, yet the spirit rose triumphant o'er the tomb to meet and mingle with the souls of those that will some day greet our own, when we, all of us, like streaks of morning cloud, shall have vanished into the infinite azure of eternity.

Police Court.
 May 22.
 Chris. Duff, vagrancy; fined $20 or ten days in city jail.
 Jno. Brown, aiding prisoner to escape; $50 or twenty days in city jail.
 Joe Brown, indecent act; $40 or twenty days in city jail.
 Thos. Allyman, drunk; $10 or five days in city jail.
 Jno. Doe (Chinaman) keeping resort for the purpose of smoking opium, $20 or ten days in city jail.

CLIPPED AND CONDENSED.
 Levity is the soul of wit.
 Beef is selling at high figures in eastern Oregon.
 Frost in the Willamette valley has damaged fruit.
 The Columbia is 24 feet above low water at The Dalles.
 The mean temperature of the water in the Willamette is 52 degrees.
 A quarter of Oregon wheat will weigh 500 pounds; of other American, Chilian or Danubian wheat, 462 pounds.

In the United States District Court at Walla Walla, W. T., recently, Wm. Harkness plead guilty to a charge of cutting timber on government land, and was fined $3000 and costs.
 The Dixon Tribune regrets the introduction of catfish on this coast. It says they have almost cleared the sloughs of perch and chubs, and predicts that ere many years they will be in the trout streams and destroy the young trout.

Mr. Hazlett, over in Lake county, feared that his heirs would quarrel over his money, and as he believed he was about to die, he burned up $22,000 in greenbacks. He is now well and sawing wood for a living, and his heirs smile, stand on the sidewalk and look on.
 Concerning the new insane asylum, a Salem correspondent writes: The outside of the building is all completed save the erection of porches, work on which will be commenced as soon as the weather settles and rapidly pushed forward to completion.

"Joy cometh in the morning" and this item of exultation in the Oil and Drug News: Carl Rump has discovered a new product resulting from the reaction of diazoacetolimonosulphonic acid with the sodium salt of betanaphthalenehexylidene-sulphuric acid.

Advice from New Westminster state that the run of salmon in the Fraser river has commenced, but they do not run in sufficient numbers to make them profitable in the canning business. The cannery proprietors are making greater preparations than ever for the sockeyes run this summer, and judging from the number of canneries now in complete working order, the amount of fish put up this season will far exceed that of any previous year.

The Seattle Post-Intelligencer editorially said: The Odd Fellows of Walla Walla have the finest hall of their order in Washington Territory. The Odd Fellows of Astoria are now building a hall estimated to cost them $25,000. In neither place is the order stronger in any respect than in Seattle. The next Grand Lodge is to be held in this city, one year hence, and it is to be hoped the local fraternity will then have a hall of their own, at least as good as those possessed by the brethren of Astoria and Walla Walla.

A young man who wants to become a comedian of the barbershop order asks how is the best way to commence. O, we don't know! They commence in different ways. Some carry chairs at first, and pull up the carpet, and stand around holding wooden spears. But the surest way is to appear as a heifer. Don't misunderstand us. A young man who appeared here last year as the hind legs of a stage heifer, in a barbershop opera, is now the leading comedian of the troupe. We do not know how his experience as the hind legs of a heifer helped him, but he got there and got a salary.
Pick's Saw.

A Home.
 The Odd Fellows of this state have purchased a farm, comprising 100 acres of land, admirably located near the mouth of the Sandy, in the eastern portion of Multnomah county, on the line of the O. R. & N. Co's railroad, and about twelve miles from Portland. This farm is to be used as a home for the aged and indigent of the order that are not otherwise provided for. The founding and maintaining of the home is a popular scheme with the order to which it belongs.

No wheat has been received in Portland for two weeks. There is enough in the warehouses to make up one cargo more, which will probably be the last of the season.
