

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1882

J. F. HALLORAN, Editor

The Legislature.

THE Republicans have a majority of sixteen on joint ballot in the legislature—two in the senate and fourteen in the house. The following is how it stands: Baker county—house, 2 Dem.; senate, 1 Dem.; Benton—house, 2 Rep., 1 Dem.; Senate, 1 Rep., 1 Dem. Clackamas—house, 3 Rep., 1 Dem.; senate, 1 Rep., 1 Dem. Clatsop and Tillamook—house, 2 Rep.; senate, 1 Rep. Columbia—house, 1 Rep. Coos and Curry—house, 2 Rep.; senate, 1 Dem. Douglas—house, 4 Rep.; senate, 2 Rep. Grant—house, 1 Rep.; senate, 1 Rep. Jackson—house, 2 Dem.; Senate, 1 Dem. Josephine—house, 1 Rep.; senate, 1 Dem. Lake—house, 1 Dem. Linn—house, 6 Dem.; senate, 1 Rep., 2 Dem. Lane—house, 1 Rep., 3 Dem.; senate 2 Dem. Marion—house, 6 Rep.; senate, 3 Rep. Multnomah—house, 7 Rep.; senate, 3 Rep. Polk—house, 3 Rep.; senate, 1 Rep.; 1 Dem. joint. Umatilla—house, 1 Rep., 1 Dem.; senate, 1 Dem. Union—house, 2 Dem.; senate, 1 Dem. Wasco—house, 1 Rep., 1 Dem.; senate 1 Dem. Washington—house, 1 Rep., 2 Dem.; senate, 1 Rep. Yamhill—house, 2 Rep.; senate, 2 Rep. Total—house, 38 Rep., 22 Dem.; senate, 16 Rep., 14 Dem.

EVERY discovery which the British government makes of arms and ammunition for war upon it self will be made use of to justify a vigorous repressive policy. The rifles and revolvers found in the Clerkenwell stable will be presented as so many more unanswerable and pointed arguments for turning the Green Isle into a garrison. Force will be met with force. If the Nationalists mean revolt the imperial authority will reply with subjugation. There's where the cause of Ireland is handicapped; there's where her best friends and truest patriots are placed at a disadvantage. It were well if they could in any way entirely dissociate in the public mind their own plans of action, which of themselves are just and commendable, with the revolutionary programme which works in secret and adopts assassination as one of its chief methods. The problem is a complicated one at best. It should be the effort of the Land League to relieve it of this dark disfigurement which complicates it more than all else. Neither the Gladstone ministry nor any that in the contingencies of the future may succeed it, will feel disposed to lift the iron hand of repression so long as it is confronted with a conspiracy that hesitates at no ends to wreak revenge. There is no way of deliverance through blood and fire. The end to which such instrumentalities must lead in Ireland lead to the helpless fate of Poland. Her liberation must be wrought by wise counsels upon the part of the government, by responsive acquiescence upon the part of her Irish subjects—by broad and generous plans of relief upon the part of men like Davitt and Parnell, and by the weighty pressure of public sentiment which sooner or later they cannot fail to exact in their support.

The state election being over, and it being clearly established that the next United States senator from Oregon will be a Republican, it is considered in order for the state papers to express their choice; but entirely futile. When the time comes the man that can best "fix" matters will receive the legislative vote and he duly declared elected. At present Ex-senator Mitchell, W. Lair Hill and J. N. Dolph, are mentioned, with Ex-Attorney General Williams as a supplementary suggestion.

It is stated by telegraph, and is therefore implicitly to be believed, that Guiteau's skeleton is being boiled at the Washington medical museum for the purpose of removing all flesh before articulation. We had hoped that when the ghastly particulars of the hanging had been given, that the country would be allowed a needed respite from further details respecting the wretch. The next thing on the programme will be that his skeleton is on exhibition, "admission 50 cents, children half price, regular Saturday matinee. L. street cars pass the building."

It is believed that the Egyptian question is to be settled by coercive measures, and that unless the Khedive submits to certain conditions proposed by England and France, that Alexandria will be at once bombarded by the English fleet; France to lend her "moral" support. 'Tis the last argument, and for the first time in twenty-seven years France and England are allies in demanding that their dictum shall prevail, and enforcing that demand by war.

UNDER date of July 6th, Gov. Newell, of Washington territory, telegraphs from Washington:

"Senator Saunders, chairman of senate committee on territories, informs me that sub committee has reported favorable the admission of Washington, but if Dakota fails of admission, it may not come before the senate until next session of congress.

THE United States admits that it wrongfully took from Japan a good many years ago nearly a million of dollars. This sum has earned a large sum of money at interest. The Senate voted the other day to pay back the principal but refused to include the interest.

THURLOW WEED, the veteran printer and journalist, has become totally blind.
