ASTORIA, OREGON: THURSDAY, JULY 27, 1882. J. F. HALLORAN, Editor.

Council Proceedings.

ASTORIA, July 25, 1882. Council met in regular session with Mayor Hahn presiding. Councilmen present—Case, Carruthers, Dement, Gray, Taylor and Wright. In attendance—F. C. Norris, auditor and clerk. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

REMONSTRANCES. A remonstrance against the improvement and repairs of Cedar street was referred to committee on streets and public ways, with instructions to have the same printed.

COMMUNICATIONS. A communication from C. W. Laughrey, to the effect that he had suspended C. W. Henline from the police force on July 15th, was referred to com. on health and police.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES. The report of the com. on health and police on the police judge report for June, was received and placed on file. The report of com. on ways and means, on the city treasurer's report for quarter ending June 30, 1882, received and placed on file.

ORDINANCES. An ordinance entitled an ordinance to amend subdivisions 1, 3 4, of section 10 of ordinance No. 452, entitled an ordinance to impose and regulate licenses in the city of Astoria, was read first and second times and referred to com. on health and police.

It was moved by Councilman Gray that that part of the ordinance which refers to appointing viewers and assessing the cost upon the property directly benefited thereby, be stricken out of the ordinance providing for constructing and laying sewers in certain portions of Cass, Main, Benton, Lafayette, Washington and Jackson streets; motion was lost. On motion, W. B. Headington, Jas. W. Welch and Isaac Foster were appointed viewers. The ordinance was then read the third time and placed upon its final passage, the vote being as follows: Ayes—Case, Carruthers, Dement, Gray, Taylor and Wright; none—none. So the ordinance was declared duly passed.

CLAIMS. The following claims against the city were ordered paid: William Dillon, $170; John Rogers, $11; J. W. Gearhart, $14 78; S. G. Ingalls, $170; Wm. Edgar, $1; C. H. Stockton, $20; John Stephenson, $170; D. Cronk, $1; C. H. Stockton, $1; Sam Ardnt, $1; G. F. Parker, $1; F. C. Norris, $2; Jas. Taylor, $15; J. W. Gearhart, $5; G. V. Hobson, $44 10; T. J. McClanahan, $44 10; Thos. Dealey, $15; Mrs. T. O'Brien, $20; DAILY ASTORIAN, $31 58.

RESOLUTIONS. The following resolutions offered by Councilman Taylor were unanimously adopted: Resolved, that the auditor and clerk be, and is hereby instructed to notify the chief of police to see that all persons who are required to take out licenses under the ordinances of this city conform to the requirements of said ordinance in regard to obtaining said licenses. The mayor nominated G. F. Parker for city surveyor. The vote upon the confirmation of Mr. Parker was as follows: Ayes, Case, Carruthers, Dement, Gray, Taylor and Wright. Nays, none; so G. F. Parker was declared duly elected city surveyor. On motion of Councilman Gray, the city surveyor was ordered to make the estimated cost of improving West-sixth street, in Shively's Astoria, from the north side of Wall street to the south side of Berry street. Councilman Dement was excused for the evening.

On motion of Councilman Case the auditor and clerk was instructed to give ten days notice by publication in THE DAILY ASTORIAN, that the council propose to order the improvement of Benton street from the south side of Concomly street to the south side of Astoria street, by planking the same in the center, twenty feet, with three inch plank.

On motion of Councilman Taylor, the vote upon the report of the committee on the assessment roll for 1882 was considered. On motion the majority report was adopted. On motion the rules were suspended for the purpose of referring back to the first reading of ordinances and continuing therefrom.

An ordinance levying a tax to defray the general running expenses of the city for the year 1882 was read first and second times, and on motion the blank space was filled by the word three. On motion the rules were suspended by unanimous consent for the purpose of reading the ordinance the third time and placing it upon its final passage. On motion the ordinance was read the third time and placed upon its final passage, the votes being as follows: Ayes, Case, Carruthers, Gray, Taylor and Wright. Nays, none. So the ordinance was declared duly passed.

An ordinance levying a special tax for the purpose of paying interest on city bonds, and for paying off a portion of the cities bonded indebtedness, was read first and second time and on motion the blank space was filled by the word three. It was moved that the rules be suspended for the purpose of reading the ordinance the third time and placing it upon its final passage. Motion was lost.

On motion of Councilman Taylor the council adjourned till Wednesday, July 26, at 8 o'clock P. M. An adjourned meeting was held last evening, when an ordinance was passed amending an ordinance to regulate licenses. The license for hawkers has been raised to $10 per day; for peddlers to $5 a week. An ordinance was also passed, levying a special tax of three mills to pay interest on indebtedness and to create a sinking fund for the payment of the debt. After allowing a bill of Ed. Taylor's for $60 for work on Concomly street, the council adjourned.

F. C. NORRIS, Auditor and Clerk. SEATTLE is going to build a $20,000 schoolhouse. This is the best advertisement Seattle ever got up for herself, since being incorporated as a city. The indirect influence of such action will prove a paying investment for the place.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR very sensibly declares that no federal appointee shall lose his or her place because of any refusal to pay political assessments. GEORGE P. MARSH, American Minister to Italy, died suddenly at Vallambrossa, last Monday, in the eighty-second year of his age.

Brace up the whole system with King of the Blood. See Advertisement.
