Dr. Johnson said that a man who would perpetrate a pun would pick a pocket. What then shall we say of that individual who yesterday asked us if Arabi Bey should blockade that great canal, would it be a case of Suez-cide!

The Polaris, that high-toned exponent of morality, in scooping from our columns without credit, prefaces one article by saying "a correspondent" wrote it. This is the journal that declares ignorance to be a "crime." If it thus styles an act of omission, what name has it for an act of commission!
