 ers who cannot take advantage from the city can have THE ASTORIAN follow them, DAILY or WEEKLY editions to their post-offices without additional charge. Addresses may be the counting room.

 The Astoria took out the Jas. A.
 Garfield yesterday.
 Portland is to have six more miles of water mains.
 Dr. W. W. Giesy, of Aurora, is in the city, on a short seaside sojourn.
 The Yamhill Reporter man has discovered a "German silver" mine. He expects to find a ledge with out crop-pings showing fine brass, next.
 John Fitzgerald, a Portland ship carpenter, was killed at Rock Island, on July 31st, for the sum of $20 which he had incautiously displayed.
 The safe of Kroetz & Kratz, at East Portland, was robbed of $502.60 last Sunday morning, and no clue can be found to the mysterious loss.
 Mrs. E. T. Crawford, wife of Prof. Crawford, Supt. of the Portland public schools, died last Wednesday night. The funeral will take place at Salem, to-day.
 David Fauset died at the hospital yesterday morning. He was a well known character around town; and the remains will be interred at eleven o'clock this morning.
 Cannermen are busily engaged in gathering up and housing stores and plant of all kinds. Contracts are being made for a considerable quantity of new work for next season.
 Those who take a trip on the I. S. N. Co.'s or Shoalwater bay Co.'s lines will do well to stop at the Pacific House at Oysterville. Carruthers knows how to keep a hotel, and will make it pleasant for all summer sojourners and travelers.
 The Palouse Gazette man shows good grit. Though burned out, and down to bed-rock he never missed an issue of his sprightly paper, but kept right on as though nothing had happened. As a newspaper man he is a success and is bound to win.
 The directors of school district No. 1, have decided that school shall begin on the first Monday in September. The following corps of teachers has been engaged for the ensuing year:
 T. R. Coon, Mrs. T. R. Coon, Miss Carrie Field, Miss Debra Badollet.
 The Wallaceon, which has been lying in the stream for the past two weeks, on account of some hitch in reference to taking on flour, is now about ready to clear. She has taken on the flour, and will probably load about 1,500 more cases of salmon.
 The Dalles is reported to be full of sneak thieves and swindlers. There are a few of both classes in Astoria, though, for the last few weeks the itinerant peddlers and fakirs have mostly left. That chap with the soap swindle, where all the money went "to the firm," was the worst of all.
 Astoria is getting to be headquarters for all kinds of marine repairs. There is always a vessel of some kind being refitted. Time was, not so very long ago when all that had to go to Portland; now our machinists do it as well and at far less cost to the owners of the vessels.
 Boarding house runners are not the only ones who shanghai. Northern California farmers—so 'tis said—drive big header wagons into town, and whenever they find a drunken man, scoop him in, and once on the ranch they coerce him into going to work in the mucky harvest field.
 A Western man was struck by a cyclone and killed shortly after he had paid up five years' back subscription to his paper, and the paper coolly remarked afterward that the only way of explaining this seeming mysterious affair is that the Lord wanted to catch him while he was prepared.

Last Evening's Entertainment.
 The performance last evening was a genuine pleasure. The entertainment began with some instrumental music by Prof. Francis and D. A.
 McIntosh with a piano accompaniment by Miss VanDusen.
 Miss Monroe then appeared and read from "David Copperfield," followed by a recitation of "The Charcoal Man." Other recitations and readings elicited the applause of the audience, particularly "How We Lunted the Moon," and "Miss Edith entertaining her sister's Beau." The cultivated recitation of Miss Monroe's voice was displayed in the death scene from Dickens while her histrionic ability was fully demonstrated in her dramatic rendition of that part of "Romeo and Juliet," where Juliet, wavering between hope and fear, swallows the potion given her by Friar Lawrence.
 A beautiful earnest obligato, "Then You'll remember Me," was enthusiastically encored, and was responded to by that lovely air "The Heart bowed down with weight of Woe."
 At the close of the entertainment, Miss Monroe announced that she would give another reading to-morrow evening, at the same time stating the programme, which is an attractive one.

 —W. H. Weatherly has disposed of his interest in the Eagle cannery and will remove to California for a time on account of ill health.
 —The Dalles Mountaineer says: We learn from our neighbor, Hon. Robt.
 Mays, that there has been marked at his yards 10,000 head of cattle which have been sold to Lang & Ryan to go East over the plains. This, together with 1,000,000 pounds of wool and 80,000 mutton sheep, shows that Eastern Oregon has elements of prosperity which are constantly increasing in value—and are not dependent upon fashion.
 —A funny story comes from Clackamas of two men, who, each owning a mule, wanted to get up a race. Each mule was given a pint of whiskey, and when that dose became active in their frames, they turned on their respective owners and chased them into the timber. One man broke his leg, and the other had a narrow escape from being overcome by the hilarious quadrupeds. The race has been postponed.
 —If you want to speculate in laying off town lots for an accessible seaside resort you have a good chance to do so to-day. The western boundary of the 160 acres comprised in the Coffinberry farm runs along as fine a portion of the ocean beach for bathing purposes as there is between Point Adams and Tillamook head, and it has the advantage of being but three miles from Skipanon landing or two from Fort Stevens, thus avoiding a long and dusty ride, besides being in close communication with Astoria.
 —We have received a programme of the State Teachers' Association, which meets at Salem August 21st, and continues three days. The programme says that no effort will be spared to make this the most profitable and entertaining session ever held in this state. An excellent programme of work has been arranged, able teachers have been secured to present the different topics before the association, eminent men and women will deliver addresses, read papers, and give elocutionary readings and recitations during the evening sessions, for the edification and entertainment of the general public as well as for the teachers who may be present. Music of superior excellence will be furnished for each session, and everything possible will be done to render the meeting both highly profitable and entertaining. The session will be held in the legislative hall of the capitol building. The principal lines of railroads and steamboats will sell round-trip tickets to all persons attending the association at a reduction of forty per cent. from the regular rates.

The Facts in the Case.
 As a statement has appeared in your paper concerning the running time of the steamers Lurline and Fleetwood, in which it is claimed that the former made the better time, we would place the facts before the public. On July 31st the Lurline went through, making but one landing. The Fleetwood ran through Skamokawa slough—two miles further —and made 18 landings. The Fleetwood left Astoria 23 minutes ahead and arrived in Portland 2 1/2 minutes behind the Lurline. Extra time used by Fleetwood in landings, 1 hour; leaving Fleetwood's time 1/2 hour better than the Lurline's. August 7th, landings—Lurline, 3; Fleetwood, 14; and the Fleetwood ran to Carroll's Point (making the train), which is about 3 miles longer run, and landed but 2 minutes behind the Lurline, and left Astoria but 11 minutes ahead.
 —Just before you start fishing Saturday night, you must be sure and get one of those six-foot leaders, and book books at the City book store.

Should be Kept Down.
 The conflict between white labor and Chinese cheap labor which has so long been waged in California has at last reached Oregon and Washington territory. It is not a matter of argument as to which side to take. First, last, and all the time, any attempt to engraft the system of Chinese peonage on this northwest coast should be fought. Upon the successful repulse of Chinese labor depends the future peace and prosperity of this commonwealth.
 In Salem, a short time ago, a subscription was raised to build a wooden mill. The amount required was pledged. Some of the subscribers put in a proviso at the time they signed their names that no Chinese should be employed in the building. This was eminently right and proper.
 Their subscriptions are now refused by reason of that restriction clause.
 In Seattle, in a street contract involving several thousands, a firm of Chinese contractors were allowed to put in a bid, and of course they went away below their white competitors.
 They should not be allowed to bid, nor should they be allowed to work in the Salem mill. If it simply involved a question of present dollars and cents it would be ridiculous to make such discrimination, but it is a far-reaching matter, and involves the future wretchedness or happiness of every class of society in this state and adjoining territory.

Its Wonderful Efficacy.
 No remedy ever discovered possesses the wonderful efficacy of Syrup of Figs.
 The certainty with which it expels all impurities from the system, at the same time giving tone to the liver, stomach and bowels, places it ahead of all other remedies, to say nothing of its being more easily taken. It is selling very rapidly. W. E. Dement, Druggist, has been appointed agent for Astoria.
