

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON. SATURDAY, AUGUST 19, 1882. J. F. MALLON, Editor.

Suburban Resorts.

With the filling up of the Willamette valley and the growth of Portland comes the necessity as well as comfort, of the citizens of that city to seek the seacoast. Many camp and occupy the summer hours along the beach in this vicinity above and below the mouth of the Columbia river.

The north and south slopes of the land about Astoria afford pleasant and healthful sites for summer residences. This land can be had at low rates such as will, by annual increase in value, yield the possessors, in time, a good return upon their investment.

In time this will become the resident portion of Astoria, but at present is sufficiently outside and secluded for all camping purposes.

JAY A. HUBBELL, the managing man of the Republican congressional committee, is doing better work for the Democrats than for his own party. The assessment circulars signed by him and sent to every person in the employ of the government, have aroused a feeling of intense disgust among hundreds of thousands of Republicans, who will not support such a machine as he proposes to run, no matter what may be the results.

Edison is the most promising man of the age. A week or two ago, he announced that he was already to light a certain section of New York city with his electric lights, but there has been another indefinite postponement. Perhaps he has not invented anything after all. Or the speculators who are backing him may find it more profitable to defer operations until a later day.

SOME of the experts in a recent murder trial have sued the man they saved for the fee. The whole expert business at murder trials is becoming a farce, because men can be found to swear for the side which will pay them best. Payment to these, as to other witnesses, in this manner, ought to be declared bribery.

THE decision of Judge Deady, which we gave a few days ago, causes no little comment amongst the loggers of our county. The gist of the whole matter is that the railroad company has no right to give any one leave to cut timber on their unearned timber lands, and any one doing so is subject to the rebuke of the law.

Over-Insurance.

THE insuring of property for more than its true value, is a legal presumption of fraud, and is commonly held to vitiate a policy. It is a common practice in many parts of the country, for persons to insure personal property in excess of its value, with the consent of agents, whose commission is thereby increased. The impression extensively prevails that the full amount of a policy will be paid, in case of the destruction of property, in spite of the publicity that is often given to its falsity.
