THE CITY. THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 25 cents a month, free of postage.

The Columbia is due this morning with 169 cabin passengers aboard.

The Gen. Miles will leave for Tillamook at five o'clock to-morrow morning.

E. C. Holden advertises an auction sale at his rooms at two o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

The corner stone of a new Masonic hall, to be built at McMinnville, was laid with appropriate ceremonies last Tuesday.

The Yaquina is to leave Portland at noon to-morrow, and will start from here the next day for Yaquina and Coos Bay.

The steamer Fleetwood will leave for Portland at half-past one to-morrow afternoon, instead of at two o'clock as heretofore.

There were two days during the present month when the thermometer at Pomeroy, Garfield Co., W. T., was 150 in the sun, and 108 in the shade.

The circuit court met in this city yesterday, pursuant to adjournment. Argument on a motion was made by counsel and the case continued till today.

Mrs. Van Dam, an East Portland resident, was shot through the head last Wednesday, by some unknown party, and it is thought cannot recover.

The Grace church social at Liberty Hall, this evening, will be the only entertainment in the city, and those attending can also procure refreshments.

The reading public is informed in to-day's advertisements that Mr. I. J. Arnold leaves on the State of California for San Francisco, there to purchase a large stock of boots and shoes.

Attention is directed to the new advertisement of Prail Bros. These gentlemen are just starting in business and have a fine stock of goods specially selected for this market.

Capt. Mockler, of the Jas. G. Bain, left with us yesterday morning two umbrellas, which he found on board his vessel. Any one (or two) identifying these articles, can have their property by calling around between ten A. M. and two P. M.

The Northern Pacific railroad track is laid in the Yellowstone valley a distance of 211 miles west of Glendive. This is within fifteen miles of Billings, in the heart of Montana.

Miss Anna Fearnside, of the Telegram, Miss Emily Chenoweth of the Oregonian, and Miss Belle Robinson, of the Welcome, are in the city for a summer sojourn.

The hop crop in Yakima promises well. The work of picking the early crop will begin this week, and the indications are that it will be first-class in quality and quantity.

A dispatch from London, received last night, states that Captain Bergmann, of the Norwegian bark Jorshafner, which sailed from the Columbia river March 8th, with a cargo of wheat for Queenstown, was drowned in a gale on her voyage out, and a portion of her cargo jettisoned.

The Elwell.

The American ship Elwell, Barstow master, is ready for sea. She arrived at this port on the 20th of last June, and after discharging her cargo of railroad iron for the O. R. & N. Co., began to load.

Two New Steamers. The little steamer Seattle was launched from Mitchell's ways yesterday. She was built by Mr. Mitchell a little over two years ago for a sailing yacht, and proved herself to be the fastest on Puget Sound by competing in the yacht race of 1880.

Salmon fishing on the Sound is in full progress now.

But little doing in the police or justice court these days; so much the better and yet it's just a little dull, all the same.

Work has been begun on the new workshops at the penitentiary. It is thought that when they are finished that institution can be made self-supporting.

It is proposed to organize a post of the G. A. R. in Salem, next Saturday. There was some talk of organizing a post here some time ago. What has become of the project.
