Disposal of the Public Lands. A STATEMENT of the disposal of the public lands during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1882, shows that the total number of acres disposed of was 15,099,848, an increase over last year of about 5,000,009 acres. The cash received this year, presents two interesting for this land amounts in the aggre- phases: opposition to law and to gate to about $8,361,091, against fact: the Democratic platform opabout $5,000,000 during the last poses the Sunday law as it stands. fiscal year. The number of acres which gives a strength to the Reentered for agricultural purposes publican party which it would not as "cash sales" during the year was otherwise possess; the extortion 37,068,010; for desert lands, 166,055; for coal lands, 7,194; entered under the homestead laws, 6,347,729 acres, and 2,216,244 acres 347,729 acres, and 2,216,244 acres and S. P's. extortion, and if the were proved up under the same laws. Under the timber culture people to believe they are sincere acts 2,609,797 acres were entered they will have another Governor and "proved up." Under the various land warrants, railroad grants, school and state selection acts (including various kinds of scrip) 615,866 acres were disposed of. The great increase in the disposition of public lands during the past fiscal year is said to be owing to the immense immigration in the northwest.

MINNESOTA is perturbed over the discovery of a swindle, which has been profitable to the perpetrator. Circulars, says the New York Sun, were sent throughout England saying that the care of young men desirous of learning farming in the "Golden Northwest" THE CORPS OF TEACHERS LONG EN was desired by the one advertising. The trouble of the instructor would be recompensed, and the expenses of the trip would be repaid to the teacher who advanced the money by a deposit of $375. Of this amount $80 was to go to the farmer who received the young man as an apprentice for one year. Each apprentice was to receive $6 per month for four months, and $12 for each succeeding month, besides board. Recently the author of the circular brought a party of seventy-five English young men, and distributed them along one of the Minnesota railroads. It turns out that some of the Englishmen were not placed Educated Horses ! on farms at all. Others received no stipend for their work. Several thousand dollars rewarded this confidence man. Some of the young men represent excellent families.

THE San Francisco Commercial Herald thinks that the time has now come when the fishermen of the Columbia river will have to give serious attention to the restocking of the river. "Like prodigals, they have been depleting their sources of supply, with no thought of the future. It is idle to look for government or state legislation: The cure is with themselves. By a concerted action among them, and by their laying aside a cent, or two cents a case on their total pack, they would be able to maintain two fishing farms, one at Astoria and one on the upper portion of the river, say near William Hume's Eagle Cliff cannery, where they would be able to stock the river with millions of young fish every season. It only needs a concert of action to put ADMISSION. - - - 81.00 this into operation, and without CHILDREN. waiting for legislative aid, we trust to see the canners on the Columbia river combine themselves and do something toward the rectification of the abuses that have been so long practiced."

It is interesting, says an exchange, to compare the public expenditures of this country with GEN. MILES those of the leading nations of Europe. The appropriations made by the present congress for the coming year amount to $294,513, Monday, September 11, '82, 639. The expenditure of the ominent nations of Europe in Freight from Portland, per ton, fiscal years, of which statistics are available, were as follows: Eng- Co's dock. land, $415,509,620; Russia, $469,-121,7994; Austria, $447,238,322;

France, $547,241,755; Germany, $314,299,725; Italy, $283,349,500. The large standing armies and SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 9, 1882 navies, the enormous burdens of royalty, the expenses of wars and other extraordinary outgoes that these countries have, are unknown here, and yet our expenditures are so rapidly increasing that they already compete with them, without the tithe of the reason that exists in their cases.

It is situated on Lewis and Clark's River, 7 unles south of Astoria, and 2% miles from Clatsop beach. There is a good steamboat landing which is accessible to any of the O. R. & N. Co's river steamboats. About half of the 700 acres is tide land, well bridged, on which cattle keep fat the year round. The other half, level timber land, and about 200 acres in tame grass. Thousands of cords of hemiock, fir and spruce can be cut, worth two dollars and a half at the landing to which there is a good wagon road from all points. Every cord cut finds a ready market. In addition, there is any quantity of mid lumber and good piles. Good dwelling house, barn, and necessary outhouses, with an orchard of 10 or 12 acres, containing almost all kinds of fruit bearing trees, etc. etc. This desirable property has a frontage of two miles on the river bank, and is admirably adapted for settlement by a company desiring to colonize, as it is large enough to divide into several farms and homesteads. The contemplated bridge between Astoria and Clatsop plains connects on this property. Party wishing to sell is now supplying Astoria with milk, and if desired will hand over good will and business to the purchaser of the property. If not sold before September 10th, at private sale, the whole property will be sold by estalogue sale, at Public Anction, to the highest bidders for cash, on Friday September 15th, 1882, at 11 A. N.
