Vol. XVII.

Astoria, Oregon, Sunday Morning, September 17, 1882.

No. 145.

A MERITED COMPLIMENT.

The administration of Governor Thayer is now a thing of history. On his accession to the executive chair he found the affairs of state in great confusion, resulting from the profligacy of the preceding administration. The state was deeply in debt; its credit was debauched until its bonds were below par. A board of political leeches, fostered and fed by the carelessness or corruption of his predecessor, had fastened themselves upon the body politic, and were fattening at the expense of state. The state was paying an enormous price for the keeping of the insane; had no asylum of its own; no public buildings that were worthy of the name. He can look back with satisfaction over the record of the past four years. The credit of the state has been restored and its bonds are at a premium. Its floating debt has in a great part been discharged; the "organized offices" bummers have been cast into outer darkness. The state now boasts a fine asylum, built cheaply and paid for. More than that there is now left from the proceeds of the building enough tax money to furnish the building and make it ready for the reception of its unfortunate occupants. To bring about all these desirable results, Governor Thayer has labored with an eye single to the public wealth and to their accomplishment he has contributed in no small degree.—Oregon City Enterprise.

Queer Apples.

Some parties in Harrisburg, Alaska, ordered a lot of apples in boxes by the Elder from San Francisco. The steamship did not reach Townsend in time to reship on the Alaska boat, so the fruit was sold in Seattle and New Tacoma. Stone & Co. bought a large number of boxes. Upon opening one Mr. Stone found snugly hidden away in the center of the box a bottle of Cutter whisky. Several boxes have been "sampled," and a general average of one in three has been found to contain a bottle of the genuine brand. Those in Tacoma gave equally spirited results—no joke intended—so that there must have been in the entire shipment something like four dozen bottles of whisky. Those poor miners at Harrisburg will be sorely tried when the California arrives there and it is found there are no apples aboard. For if there is anything the average miner does like, it is apples—of that variety.—Seattle Chronicle.

It is the duty of this legislature to send to the U. S. senate a man who will be an advocate of civil service reform, who is reliably a friend of purity in politics, and a fair representative of the public and private morality of which the state of Oregon has reason to be proud. Whoever fills this measure of manhood and true citizenship will be acceptable to the people of Oregon. A senator of the United States should be the peer of any man living. He should be above the plane of the mere politician. There should be no scramble for this high office. Acting for the people and representing the state in all its dignity and strength this legislature should—and we have no doubt will—select from among its distinguished citizens some one who can safely be entrusted to represent its interests in the senate of the United States, and will never prostitute its honor to selfish ends.—Willamette Farmer.

The Sultan of Morocco has 364 wives. What a nice time he must have when his mother-in-law comes to see him!

Too Much Legislation.

There is always a flood of bills proposed before every legislature, and the great majority of them are useless. The work of the legislature is as much to leave well enough alone as to attempt to amend the laws we have. There are multitudes of people who have axes to grind, and enough more who have hobbies to ride or crochets they have faith in, and the result is a host of measures that ought never to pass. The time of a legislature is limited to forty days, and there is no time to waste.—Olympia Transcript.

The Liverpool Courier says a terrible alarm has been created among the ladies by the announcement of a visitation of the most dreadful kind—nothing less than the arrival of the horrible disease of the hair, known as the placa polonica, which has hitherto been confined to Poland and the frontiers of Russia. No medical science has been able as yet to ascertain the exact cause of the disease, which renders its victim a most hideous object to behold, transforming, sometimes almost suddenly, the most beautiful and luxurious crop of hair into a matted, disgusting mass of snaky ropes, which stand out in horrible confusion, all over the head, through which no comb can ever be drawn, and which can never be cut, owing to the agglomeration of the roots into one united mass, which, as the roots are filled with blood, would cause the sufferer to bleed to death were they removed.

To uphold the Sunday law is the duty of every man. It is not necessary for him to believe in God, the Christian religion, or the sacred character of the Sabbath. Every man toils with brain or muscle, and every man who works for himself or for another, owes it to himself and his physical organization to see that he has the legal right to a holiday once every week. Every laborer should demand it for himself, and every employer of a man or beast should concede it in the interest of humanity.—S. F. Argonaut.

Horace Greeley's famous stage driver, Hank Monk, is now employed on the proposed line of the Northern Pacific in Montana. A particularly bold but inexperienced road agent attempted to stop his coach the other day, but Hank whipped up his horses and dashed off with five bullets whistling after him, one of which struck a horse. The animal did not, however, break down until the stage reached a freighter's camp.

It has been announced that Charles B. Wright, whose donation of a fund for the building of an Episcopal church edifice in New Tacoma is well known, has promised Bishop Paddock the sum of $100,000 for the erection and endowment of an Episcopal college in that city, as a portion of the fund of $150,000 required for this purpose.

A body was found last week in the Columbia near the mouth of the Lewis river, which is supposed to be that of J. M. Fletcher, of Vancouver, who so mysteriously disappeared about five months ago. Mr. Fletcher was the first register at Vancouver and afterwards was elected prosecuting attorney of his district.

A writer in the London Field says that no two tigers are alike. One may run away when you whistle to him, and the next may obey the whistle in a manner as to convince you that he is coming to dinner.

CLIPPINGS.

An Arkansas girl refused to marry her lover unless he performed some heroic deed. He eloped with her mother.

The Chief Red Cloud, who was kicking up a row the other day, has the scalps of forty-eight white persons hanging in his lodge. It would seem as if he had lived long enough for an Indian.

A woman at Lincoln, Ill., left $200 in cash by will "to the widow in Lincoln who shall first secure a husband." One widow secured a husband and that cash in forty minutes after that will was read.

England is buying mules all over the south to send to Egypt. If she could only get hold of some of the old vets. of 1864! They would bray Arabi Bey out of his own country in less than a fortnight.

No one need feel so bad about the American round dance. The most popular dance in Hungary is one in which every man hugs two women at once, and Hungary is getting along right smart as a country.

An instrument has been invented by means of which a person can see a distance of sixty feet under water. The man who fishes for two hours without a bite can now take a look and see what the trouble is.

A stranger called at forty-eight different houses in Cleveland and asked, "Is the boss home?" There was no man home in any one instance, and yet forty-seven of the women promptly replied: "Yes, sir—what do you want?"

Dan Longfellow sold his logging camp on North Bay, Mason county, last week, for $25,000, to Samuel Coulter, of Seattle. The claim contains over 200,000 acres of fine timber lands, and the sale includes camp, cattle, railway, lands and outfit.

The American consul to Japan says that a Jap. can live and grow fat on one-sixth of the provisions thought necessary for an American. This country will never be great until its corn cobs and potato peelings are utilized outside of its boarding houses.

Washington Territory boasts the widest gauge railway yet reported. It is an eight-foot gauge logging road running back from Skagit river. The rails are wood, eight by eight inches. The cars are large and are carried on eight wheels of nine-inch face with double flanges.

The barkentine C. C. Funk, recently built at Marshfield, left that place for San Francisco lumber laden a few days since. She has been built at a cost of $32,000, and will carry 750,000 feet of lumber. The assessor and tax collector caught the Funk for $242 taxes.

Judge Hoyt in a recent card intimated that he would hold that the counties of Washington Territory had the right to tax lands sold by the Northern Pacific to individuals, notwithstanding the fact that the company had not received patents from the government for the land sold.

"That," said Bigglin to his wife, when she told him that a new silk dress was necessary to her health and happiness, "is too diaphanous." "Now, Bigglin," she answered tartly, "I want you to understand that I am not to be put down by musical terms. You may call it a fortissimo or a trombone, but I'm going to have that dress."

Sparkling Eyes. Rosy cheeks and clear complexion only accompany good health. Parker's Ginger Tonic better than anything, makes pure, rich blood, and brings health, joyous spirits, strength, and beauty. Ladies try it—Bazar.

"Does your mother play cards?" inquired Billy of his chum. "I don't know," responded Jimmy; "but she often plays a lone hand on me."
Anna Louisa Cary's husband, Mr. Raymond, says that since her marriage she has entirely recovered her voice. We thought she would.

A Milwaukee woman has kept a kettle of boiling water on the stove every night for the past twenty-two years in order to scald burglars.

MOTHERS, READ.
GENTS:—About nine years ago I had a child two years old and almost dead. The doctor I had attending her could not find what ailed her. I asked him if he did not think it was worms. He said no. However, this did not satisfy me, as I perceived in my own mind that she had. I obtained a bottle of DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE VERMIFUG and took it. I gave her a teaspoonful in the morning and another at night, after which she passed seventy-two worms and her well child. Since then I have never been without it in my family. The health of my children remains so soundly appearing that twenty did nine years ago. So I thought I must be wrong, and went to work all over with a bottle of DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE between four of my children, their ages being as follows: Alice, 8 years; Charles, 4 years; Emma, 9 years; and Jennie, 7 years. Now comes the result: Alice and Emma came out all right, but Charles passed forty-five and Johnny about sixty worms. The result was so gratifying that I spent two days in showing the wonderful effect of your Vermifuge around my friends, and now have the worms on exhibition in my store.
Yours truly, JOHN PETER.
The genuine DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE is manufactured only by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa., and bear the signatures of C. McLane and Fleming Bros. It is never made in St. Louis or Wheeling, W. Va. Beware of cheap imitations.

ST. HELEN'S HALL,
ART DEPARTMENT.
THE CORPS OF TEACHERS LONG engaged in St. Helen's Hall has just been reinforced by the addition of six new teachers, five of them from prominent educational institutions of the Eastern States. Two of these are engaged in the Musical Department, three in the English and one (MISS FULFORD) in the Art Department.
MISS FULFORD is a lady of English birth, but educated in this country. She was graduated at Vassar College, and has since spent much time in the best private studios in the Eastern States. She comes with the highest recommendations for her attainments and skill as a teacher of Pencil and Drawing. These cover the whole ground of instruction in the last Art Schools, embracing Oil Painting in Landscape, Flower and Still-life Studies; Crayon, Charcoal, Water Colors, Pencil, Pen and Ink, and Decorative Art in all its branches.
MISS FULFORD is a lady of liberal education and superior culture, and the Rector and Principal of St. Helen's Hall recommend this department of their school to its patrons with entire confidence, being well assured that it was never under a more competent instructor, or one of more varied acquirements. $9.00 per m
