The Sedan Celebration.

THE anniversary of the surrenthe 2d instant. There were bonfires, illuminations, brass bands ple were hilarious, and with proud hearts recalled a day that will ever he glorious in the history of their country.

the downfall of the French emempire fell and Germany continwresting two provinces and an fall. enormous indemnity from a helpless foe, did not Germany tax herself more than she gained? Did she not, by thus trampling on the pride of the French, create the the life out of her through the cost

Since the war ended in the huenjoyed continued and great prosperity, while Germany has seen almost continuous hard times. The people of France are contented, Few of them leave their native land for any other country. The German people, oppressed by the enormous burdens of a military government, are emigrating to America by the hundred thousand

The surrender at Sedan was the dawn of liberty for France, while it ushered in the new era of consolidated despotism for Germany. The republic has grown stronger every day during the twelve years of its life. It is firmly planted in the affections and confidence of the people. The German empire, which is Bismarck, lives by such means as crush patriotism. The people cannot love oppression. On the whole, it seems to us that, if the capitulation at Sedan is to be celebrated by any people, the French have a hilarity. The defeat of the empire was the birth of freedom, the dawn of a bright era.

The Sinews of War.

WAR is a glorious but at the same time an expensive game, especially in modern times. A good deal has been said of the heroic devotion of people in the old times who turned their church-bells and pewter plates into guns and bullets, but nowadays when a $4,000,000 ship, armed with $100,000 guns each casting a ten weight of shell, with a cartridge of a barrel of gunpowder, goes into battle, each of her broadsides represents the year's wages of the average citizen taxed to build and equip her. These figures, which give the cost per round of the ammunition used in the bombardment of Alexandria, are not without interest:

Inflexible—Four 80 ton guns at $127.50 per round.

Alexandra—Two 25-ton guns at $35.25.

Monarch—Four 25-ton guns, two 12-ton guns at $18 and one 654-ton gun at $8.75. at $8.75. [emeraire—Four 25-ton and four 18-ton guis. altan—Eight 18-ton and four 12-ton

Besides these should be taken into account the cight 9-ton guns on the Penelope, vomiting death and 13.75 at every discharge, and the 61-ton gun with which the Bittern boomed away $8.75 of the naval estimates at each round; to say nothing of the four 64-pounders hurling small change upon the foe In packages of 18 and 12 shillings. We are proverbially instructed to build a bridge of silver for a flying The foe. It would be cheaper to do that than to use him as a targate for rolls of golden coin.

THE steamer Asia, which left Collingwood, Ontario, last Thursday morning, toundered on Lake Huron that night. One hundred Fare, lives were lost.

Changed Conditions.

IT seems likely,says a Washington dispatch, that the whirligig of politics will give North Carolina to the Republican and Independent coalition this year; it is about certain that the Democrats will carry Pennsylvania and Indiana. There is strong chance that the der at Sedan was celebrated all over hitherto stannelly Democratic Germany with great rejoicing on state of Delaware will elect a Republican governor, and that its single representative to congress and unlimited feasting. The peo- will also be a Republican. A Republican victory on the state and congressional ricket would very probably earry with it a Repubcan majority in the legislature and But is there real cause for re- this legislature will elect a sucjoicing in Germany over the results cessor to Saulsbury, Bayard's of the Franco-Prussian war? Was Democratic associate. Republicans of Delaware seem very eerpire more beneficial to Germany tain about a general victory, and than to France? And when the Democrats appear to be solicitous, although they protest that there is ued the war on a crushed people, no great danger of defeat this Fine, New, Large and Carefully

Ir is singular that the difference of opinion between the advocates of women suffrage should 'so closely 'resemble the Boots and conditions that are now grinding difference of opinion-indeed the only doctrinal point at issue of keeping always ready to fight between the two great political parties. At Omaha will soon be in session the American Suffrage miliation of France and the glori- association; immediately after it fication of Germany, France has closes its session the National Ladies & Gentlemen Suffrage society convenes. The one thinks woman suffrage is a state right; the other holds it to be a national issue; and so they disagree, and refuse to join forces. They have yet to learn that in popular movements as in other things, unity is essential to success
