Peruvian Bitters

The Count Cinchon was the Spanish Viceroy in Peru in 1630. The Countess, his wife, was prostrated by an intermit-tent fever, from which she was freed by the use of the native remedy, the Peru-vian bark, or, as it was called in the lay quiet in the red glow of early morn-ing, the windows glowed like dia-monds, and, far to sea, gleamed the remedy in Spain, where it was known Raffroad Proposition

A dispatch from Seattle says the Seattle, Walla Walla and Baker City Railroad company have a proposition from D. O. Mills and P. B. Cornwail to this effect: If the company will grade and lay 40 miles of road, they will take its six per cent bonds in amount sufficient to furnish all the money necessary to lay a steel trafek.

The powerful tonic does to fliquor as it does a fever, and destroys both alike. The powerful tonic virtue of the Cinchona is preserved in the Pernvian Bitters, which are as effective against malarial fever to-day as they were in the days of the old Spanish Vierroys. We guarantee the ingredients of these bitters to be absolutely pince, and of the best known quality. A trial will satisfy you that this is the best bitter in the world. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating," and we willingly abide this test. For sale by all druggists, grocers and liquor dealers, Order if, Loeb & Co., agents for Astoria.
