All mortgages, deeds of trust, contracts, or other obligations heretofore executed, whereby land situa ted in more than one county in this state is made security for the payment of a debt, is void.

It is made the duty of each county clerk in this state to deliver on the first day of August of each year, to the assessors of his county, an abstract of all unsatisfied instruments of writing on record in his office, whereby land or real property situated in his county, alone is made security for the payment of any debt.

Ox the 7th the people of Illinois will vote to approve or disapprove the act of the legislature ALL KINDS OF BOOTS & SHOES ceding the Illinois and Michigan canal to the United States, upon the condition that the United States in accepting it shall assume the obligation to complete the improvement. The people of Illinois claim to have expended $14,-000,000 upon the canal and river improvement.

It is now proposed by the New York railroad ring, to have the state legislature declare the Erie canal "a free canal," and then take measures leading to its drainage, the intention being to use the bed of the canal as a roadway for a railway from New York to Buffalo. Public sentiment is almost unanimously against it.

In California four sets of candidates appeal to the suffragans as being the particular set necessary to run the government. The state gave Hancock 102 majority in 1880, and will perhaps give the same party a chance to redeem its pledges for the next four

A Washington despatch says that nothing is more frequently heard at the capitol now than the expression by veterans in politics and public life of the belief that a "general break-up" is near at hand. What will be the result of the upheaval no one confidently pre-
