A harness and saddlery shop is badly needed in Astoria.

How suddenly the sun sinks behind the hills these short autumn days!

The Pendleton city council has raised liquor licenses to $1000 a year.

Rev. David Wills, chaplain U. S. A., formerly of Fort Colville, is in the city.

Yesterday added another to the long roll of fine days that we are blest with.

Multnomah Engine company No. 2, of Portland, intend to perpetuate their organization.

There were eight hundred candidates for congress at the last election. 507 of the lot were left.

The dwelling house belonging to the O. B. & N. Co.'s agent at Kalama, was burned last Tuesday night.

The Queen stopped here yesterday long enough to discharge her Astoria freight. Thanks, captain.

Ships drawing 17 1/2 feet pass gently out of the mouth of the Willamette without any visible discoloration of the water.

The Lord Kinnaird arrived in yesterday; the Wakefield came down; the Glenshee finished loading; the Queen of the Pacific arrived in.

The Washington Territory board of pilot commissioners will meet on the 28th inst. They will, doubtless, have considerable business on hand this time.

Magnificent auroral displays yesterday morning and evening. At one time the whole sky was luminous with long streamers of white and rosy light.

Hon. M. C. George will start for Washington on the 24th, accompanied by his mother, who goes to Ohio on a visit after a thirty years' absence.

The board of pilot commissioners met in Portland last Thursday, organized by electing J. A. Brown president and R. H. Buddy, secretary, and adjourned to the 17th.

Among other improvements that Capt. Flavel has been making this season we notice a platform scale, capable of weighing six tons, which he is having placed in front of his office on the dock.

The H. W. Dudley, which has been in the stream for several months, left for the Sound yesterday to load lumber. It is said that the captain refused a proffered charter to load wheat at 65 s. 6 d. when he arrived here.

Serious difficulty is experienced on the Sound in the matter of piling, the teredo boring into it and rendering it useless in a comparatively short period. Piling driven at Astoria twenty years ago is still staunch and strong.

The Tacoma Lodger says that Gen. Sprague has issued orders for building in the Northern Pacific shops at that place, as soon as possible, 100 stock cars, 300 flat cars, 250 box cars, 6 baggage and mail cars, and 12 caboose cars. This latter order is chiefly for supply of rolling stock for the Pen d'Oreille and Clark's Fork divisions.

Poco Tiempo. Gen. W. B. Hazen, head of the Signal Service, writes to the S. F. Alta, as follows: In your issue of the 23d ult., you say, speaking of the late successful warnings given by this office against dangerous cyclones on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

We on the Pacific, while patting officials on the back, desire to repeat our appeals for a central station and service of a like kind on the Pacific seaboard. I sympathize with the desire and have done all in my power to convince congress of the necessity for two indicating officers on the Pacific coast.

Bills are now pending in both houses of congress providing for a permanent organization of the corps, which will give the facilities desired by you and me on your coast. It was my hope that a bill would pass at the last session of congress, but for some reason it did not. Much depends on your delegation from the Pacific coast. It is hoped that next winter, though the short session, will see the bill a law.

W. B. HAZEN, Brigadier and Brevet Major-General, Chief Signal Officer, U. S. A.

A Secret Page. Since the death of W. J. Dovan, a little chapter of his life's history has been reopened. While he lived in Walla Walla, he became acquainted with a daughter of Mrs. Herzog, who lives on the Touchet, a few miles from that city, and the acquaintance ripened into love. But the young lady's mother did not approve of his visits, and, finally, in a peremptory manner forbade him paying her daughter further attention.

The grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, of Missouri, convened in annual session at Carthage on Oct. 17th. The famous Golden Crown Drill Corps of St. Louis and other divisions of the uniformed rank throughout the state participated in a parade and competitive drill.

A Des Moines Odd Fellow, wishing to send his two motherless children to relatives in Virginia, placed the three-linked pin on each boy's coat and started them off alone. They attracted the attention of members of the order en route, who looked after them carefully, and they arrived safely.

Supreme Treasurer Robert J. Breckinridge, Knights of Honor reports that his receipts from May 1 to October 1, this year, were $935,336.19 for the widows and orphans' benefit fund, and $11,428 for the general fund. He has paid out from the benefit fund $894,314.62, and holds cash to meet sixty-two $2,000 already drawn and not presented for payment.

The Garfield Monument association recently incorporated under the laws of Ohio, is an organization of Knights Templar, having for its object the erection of a $250,000 monument in Lake View cemetery, Cleveland, in memory of the murdered president. About $120,000 have already been subscribed, and as there are are upwards of 54,000 Knights Templar in the United States, the whole amount, it is expected, will be raised by spring.

There is considerable excitement in the Encampment branch of Odd Fellowship over the creation of a special degree for such Patriarchs as are now or may become uniformed. On Odd Fellows' Day, at the Centennial exhibition, there was the first display of uniformed patriarchs. Attempts had been made at successive sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge to secure authority for uniforming members of this branch.

Failing to obtain any recognition, the Patriarchs selected a uniform, organized uniformed battalions and began drilling under tactics compiled by Col. Eddy, of Rochester, N. Y. The Centennial display led the Sovereign Grand Lodge to prescribe a uniform for street use, and it recognized that already in use, and approved Patriarch Eddy's tactics. After this the members obtained a separate degree, wherein all the work should be done in uniform. Failing in this they organized the Patriarchal Circle as an independent body, with grand and supreme authorities. The remarkable popularity of this movement led the Sovereign Grand Lodge at its late session to provide a special degree for these Patriarchs, and to condemn the outside organization. Now the members of the Patriarchal Circle are being urged to stand fast to the Temples by their officers; the Sovereign Grand Lodge virtually threatens the members who do so, and as a result the Patriarchs are applying for the new degree, while privately expressing the intention of taking all the degrees they can, and judging between the Patriarchal Circle and new uniformed encampments. This question interests over 150,000 men.

Mythic Fraternities. In Illinois there has been a gain of 1,500 members by the Odd Fellow lodges during the year. William Albright the supreme secretary of the United Order of Foresters, is under $25,000 bonds, which are secured by the New York Fidelity company.

The first council of the American Legion of Honor in Iowa was instituted in 1879, and there are now 135 councils, with a membership of over 5,000 in the state. On Nov. 21st the R. W. Grand Encampment I. O. O. F. of Missouri, will hold its annual session at St. Louis; on the following days the grand lodge will be convened.

At a late session of the Masonic grand lodge of Missouri at St. Louis, there was an attendance of 700 on the last; the largest single day's attendance since its institution, sixty-two years ago.

According to the last report of the supreme secretary, Knights of the Golden Rule, there is a membership of 6,011, of which the first class has 344; the second, 956; the third, 3,281, and the senior, 1,430. There are 27 grand lodges, Knights of Pythias, in the United States, 1,673 subordinate lodges, and 110,963 members. The balances on hand in grand jurisdictions and subordinates aggregate $1,235,591.

The first grand lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen in the west met in Denver, Oct. 10th, with a large representation from Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona. The local lodge extended its hospitality.

The grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, of Missouri, convened in annual session at Carthage on Oct. 17th. The famous Golden Crown Drill Corps of St. Louis and other divisions of the uniformed rank throughout the state participated in a parade and competitive drill.

A Des Moines Odd Fellow, wishing to send his two motherless children to relatives in Virginia, placed the three-linked pin on each boy's coat and started them off alone. They attracted the attention of members of the order en route, who looked after them carefully, and they arrived safely.

Success. The sale of Syrup of Figs is simply immense. Everyone is taking it, and all admit that it is the best medicine ever used. Children cry for it on account of its pleasant taste, and grown people who have used it once never take anything else. Unlike other remedies for biliousness and constipation it never loses its power to act, and it always leaves the organs on which it acts stronger than before. Besides, one feels fresh and bright and realizes that it is Nature's own true laxative. W. E. Bennett druggist, is agent for Astoria. Hodge Davis & Co., Wholesale Agents, Portland Oregon.
