The first train from Portland and Eastward to Montana left that city at 4:45 yesterday afternoon.

Salem has a sensation. Bad boys spit on the windows, and the failure of a jury to convict some of the offenders may lead to civil war.

The two young men—Jarvis and Parker, who started from Honniss' place for Naselle, about two weeks ago have been given up for lost.

Gustav Hansen has enlarged his establishment, by the addition of another show window, a music room, etc., and contemplates still further improvement.

Mr. Tom Merry, whose brilliant productions are the weekly delight of thousands of readers, was in the city yesterday, to meet his son on the incoming steamer.

The Y. M. C. A. in San Francisco are going to give a free dinner to five hundred boys on Thanksgiving Day. The only conditions for admission are that the boys shall have clean faces and their hair combed.

In his Thanksgiving proclamation Governor Perkins, of California, closes by saying "God save the Commonwealth of California." The Republican papers publishing it put underneath, "California solid Democratic; amen."

Every one remembers the "Uncle Tom's Cabin" troupe and the "real bloodhounds," that were here last summer. The ferocious brutes got loose on a Davenport stage the other day and killed the donkey and another of the actors.

Turkeys have not as yet begun to arrive. One week from Thursday there will be several inquiries held upon bodies of those birds, the result of such post mortem examinations being the dissection of said bodies, with the customary verdicts.

The Andrews and Stockwell Pantomime troupe advertise their appearance next Monday and Tuesday. They have drawn large audiences at the Grand Opera House, San Francisco, and are favorably criticized by the press of that city.

Mr. P. L. Cherry, of this city has received the British consular agency for this city. In that capacity he represents the home government, occupying the same position in Astoria that Mr. Laidlaw does in Portland. It is a responsible post and one that has been well bestowed.

Since the elections on the 7th, all sorts of celestial pranks have been observed. Last week there were spots on the sun, and brilliant auroral displays, on Sunday night a lunar rainbow was to be seen, and now, from the southern country comes news of an earthquake. We are in the hands of Providence.

It is reported that Z. J. Hatch, the former proprietor of the steamer Yaquina, contemplates the building of another vessel similar to the one he lately sold, to be used in the trade between Yaquina bay and Portland. Another vessel will be put on that route, owned and run by a joint stock company, next season.

Dorsey and Patterson, the alleged highwaymen and murderers of Banker Cummings, in jail at Nevada City, Cal., recently petitioned the judge of the supreme court to have the "Oregon boots"—fifteen-pound leg manacles—removed from their legs, but the judge has declined to interfere, and the sheriff who has the custody of the prisoners, refuses to remove them. At night, to prevent suffering from cold on account of the irons, the prisoners take a heated brick to bed with them.

There is considerable changing around in the Portland newspaper offices. Jerry Colwell whose phantom form erstwhile appeared at stated and unstated hours in the Standard office, has been added to the Oregonian force: Judge Moreland has resigned his position as editor on the Telegram, so has F. M. Blake, formerly reporter for that paper; it is reported that Mr. Holman, and Mr. Levinson, both gentlemen of unusual journalistic ability will resign their present positions in the Oregonian office about New Year's; Chas. Whitehead, an experienced newspaper man will be the city editor of the new paper—The Northwest News.

Fine organs and pianos at Gustav Hansen's. Call and examine.

If peppermint and vanilla Taffy is what you like, go to Oerkwitz's as it is fresh this morning. Opposite Bell tower.

What Has Posterity Done for Us?

ED. ASTORIAN:
There was much satisfaction felt and expressed on reading Dr. Kinney's article in THE ASTORIAN, on the bridge road to Clatsop plains. Half the benefits of such a road cannot be told in a short article, but it is well understood by the people generally. Issuing bonds to build a road is right, too, for if the people paid all improvements as they were made, few would be made, and the next generation would have what was made for nothing. It is all right to build for our children and pay as we go, but when the next generation will probably be foreigners, and nothing to us, the question has a different face. This generation don't want to live without any of the comforts of life because the next generation, which will probably be Chinamen, would be obliged to help pay for some of the good things they had left to them.

I move we put the question by somebody circulating the petition. Hurry up, or the next generation will have it to build as well as to pay for. What a pleasant drive out from San Francisco by the Cliff House, along the beach and in by way of the Ocean House! [but then that macadamized road cost nothing.] Our beach is pleasant, too—and profitable.

RESIDENT.
—This morning appears an advertisement of Rev. David Wills' lecture at the Presbyterian church to-morrow evening. His subject "The glory of young men under sixty" is a novel one, and those who heard the reverend gentleman last Sunday will need no urging to hear him again to-morrow. The proceeds of the lecture are to be applied to the furnishing of the church.

To-night, at Liberty Hall, will be presented T. S. Arthur's temperance drama entitled "Ten Nights in a Bar-room." The cast of characters is made up of local talent; considerable time and trouble has been bestowed upon the rehearsals, etc., and the L. O. G. T., under whose auspices the entertainment is given, confidently expect to produce a result commensurate with their ability.

In Russia a newspaper man can't print an item till it has been officially endorsed by the government censor. Just fancy a local editor writing up an account of a shanghaiing affair, or the failure of a steamer to leave Astoria freight; the boys all standing around waiting for "copy," while the unfortunate l. c. had to skip around to the g. c. to have it marked "all right" before putting it into type.

The triennial committee of the Grand Com mandery of California, Knights Templar, is actively preparing for the triennial convocation of the order in the United States, which will be held in San Francisco next summer. Circulars have been issued, and inquiries have been made of the various commanderies regarding the number of Knights and ladies who may be expected to visit this coast during July and August. The fare to S. F. from Kansas City or Omaha, and return, has been set at the low rate of seventy-five dollars.

But little more was done on the docks yesterday than was absolutely necessary; the bad weather having a depressing influence on all our door workers. The State came in on time, and two other steamers arrived in from Hongkong, via Victoria, the Madras and the Volmer, with freight. They went up stream with the Argillshire; the Glenisbee cleared for the Lifey with flour; the fleet that is anchored in the bay ready to go out received another accession; the Miles started for Shoalwater bay, but concluded to wait till to-day.

Prof. Thos. J. Bryant (formerly of Indianapolis, Ind.) who is president of the well-known Bryant's Business College at St. Joseph Missouri, has published a "Chart of Double-Entry Book-Keeping," which is a practical "key" to the science. It is the result of many years' experience as accountant, counsellor and teacher, and contains information of great utility to every accountant, officer, attorney, teacher and such others as may have occasion to test the accuracy of books, financial statements or business calculations. It will be sent to any address on receipt of $1, by T. J. Bryant.

TAKEN OUT OF BED.
Dear Sir—I have to thank you for the great relief received from your "Favorite Prescription." My sickness had lasted seven years, one of which I was in bed. After taking one bottle I was able to be about the house.

Respectfully,
AMANDA K. ENNIS,
Fulton, Mich.

Heartily Recommended.
Don't condemn a good thing because you have been deceived by worthless nostrums. Parker's Gopher Tonic has cured many in this section of nervous disorders, and we recommend it heartily to such sufferers.—News.
