A Costly Repast

Delmonico says the costliest private dinner he ever served was given by a well-known society man to ten of his friends, at a cost of only $500 a cover. The dinner was luxurious enough to be classical. The bills of fare he provided himself, and he insisted on the waiters, five in number, being dressed as sailors. He was a yachtsman, and he bought their clothes, and he sent for them next day to dress as sailors on his own vacht. The guests tasted every vinted liquor ever brought to America, and finished with a pousse cafe made of eleven wines. The bill of fare was the feature of the dinner. Before each plate sat a cut-glass basin, about twenty inches in diameter, and four inches deep. Each was nearly filled with water, perfumed with attar of roses. on the surface of which floated a half-dozen pond lilies. In the basin a perfect model of the yacht owned by the gentleman was placed. It was cut in red cedar wood, with cabin, rail, wheel for steering, brass works, main ropes, worked and trimmed with sailor knots, scraped pine masts and brooms, rigging of silken cords, colored as it would be in the prototype, and sails of satin. The sails carried the bill of fare. On the flying jib was the words, "Compliments of-." On the foresail was the name of the guest who sat before the little vessel, and on the mainsail were the names of the other guests. As the guest had occasion to consult it, he used a little gold oar that rested on the fingers of a siver naiad who peeped over the sparkling glass and held out both hands to grasp the oar. The bills of fare cost $150 each.

More people have read THE SUN during be year just now passing than ever before year just now passing than ever before e it was first printed. No other new er published on this side of the earth in h bought and read in any year by many men and women.

We are credibly informed that people buy

Because its news columns present in ractive form and with the greatest possil tractive form and with the greatest possib accuracy whatever has interest for huma kind; the events, the deeds, and misdeed the wisdom, the philosophy, the notable fo ly, the solid sense, the improving nonsense-all the news of the busiest world at preser evolving in sense.

revolving in space.

Because people have learned that in its remarks concerning persons and affairs THE SUN makes a practice of telling them the exact truth to the best of its ability three hundred and sixty-five days in the year, before election as well as after, about the whales as well as about the small fish, in the face of dissent as plainty and fearlessly as when supported by general approval. THE SUN has absolutely no purposes to serve, save the information of its readers and the furtherance of the common good.

save the information of its readers and the furtherance of the common good.

Because it is everybody's newspaper. No man is so humble that THE SUN is indifferent to his welfare and his rights. No man is so rich that it can allow injustice to be done him. No man, no association of men, is powerful enough to be exempt fron the strict application of its principles of right land wring.

Because in politics it has fought for a dozen years, without intermission and sometimes all his talone among newspapers, the fight that has resulted in the recent oversight that has resulted in the recent oversight that has resulted against Robeson. fight that has resulted in the recent over-whelming popular verdict against Robeson-ism and for honest government. No matter what party is in power. THE SUN stands and will continue to stand like a rock for the in-terests of the people against the ambition of bosses, the encroachments of monopolists, and the dishonest schemes of public robbers. All this is what we are told almost daily by our friends. One man holds that THE SUN is the best religious newspaper ever published, because its Christianity is undi-luted with cant. Another holds that it is the best Republican newspaper printed, be the best Republican newspaper printed, be-cause it has already whipped half the rascals out of that party, and is proceeding against the other half with undiminished vigor. A third believes it to be the best magazine of third believes it to be the best magazine of general literature in existence, because its readers miss nothing worthy of notice that is current in the world of thought. So every riend of THE SUN discovers one of its many sides that appeals with particular force to als individual liking.

It you already know THE SUN, you will observe that in 1883 it is a little better than ever before. If you do not already know THE SUN, you will find it to be a mirror of all human activity, a storehouse of the ror of all human activity, a storehouse of the choicest products of common sense and im-agination, a mainstay for the cause of hon-est government, a sentinel for genuine Jeff rsonian Democracy, a scourge for wi ess of every species, and an uncom ood investment for the coming year.
