SENATOR JONES and Represent ative Cassidy of Nevada have had frequent conferences of late in regard to the proposition to annex Idaho Territory to Nevada, except four counties, the residents of which are said to favor being annexed to Washington Territory. EMPIRE STORE Neither of the gentlemen proposes to do anything further than to agitate the subject this session, though they will both introduce bills next session looking to the annexation. It is thought the matter will be talked about during the sessions of the Nevada and Idaho Legislatures, and that both will be benefited by the proposed annexation.
