A "POME"

"Power Are" Wanted.
ASTORIA, Jan. 15, 1883.

Ed. ASTORIAN:

My "experience" in this city impels me to offer for publication the following:

TO THE "SEXTANT."

O sextant of the meeting house, which sweeps

And dusts, or is supposed to! and makes fires,

And lites the gas, and sometimes leaves a screw loose,

In which case it smells awful, worse than lamp oil;

And wrings the bell and toles it when men dyes,

To the grief of survivin partners, and sweeps paths

And for the serrasses gets $100 per annum,

Wich them that thinks deer, let 'em try it;

Gettin up before starlite in all wethers and Kindlin fires when the weather is as cold

As zero, and like as not green wood for kindlin

I wouldn't be hired to do it for no sum,

But O Sextant! there are I kermu-dity

Wich's more than gold, wich doubt cost nothin,

Worth more than anything except the sole of man!

I mean power are, I mean power are!

O it is plenty out of doors, so plenty it doant no

What on air to do with itself, but flies about

Scatterin leaves and bloin off men's hats!

In short, it's just as "fre as are" out dores

But O Sextant, in our church its scarce as buty,

Scarce as bank bills, when agints begs for mischuns,

Which some say is purty offen (taint nothin to me, wot I give int nothin to nobody) but O Sextant Uhest 500 men, wimmin and children,

Speshally the latter, up in a tite place,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

And O Sextant, you on brethes in and out,

Daring Escape.

A wonderfully daring escape was made last week by a prisoner from Millbank prison. The convict, Lovett by name, contrived to make a hole through his cell by picking away the mortar. This must have been the work of several weeks, if not months, and to conceal the signs of his work chere-head was used to replace the mortar until he was ready to make the attempt at escape. While at work in the yard upon one occasion he picked up and secreted a piece of thick old rope, and this he re-made and lengthened, adding to it strips from his clothes. All being ready for the attempt, he blackened his face with soot he had produced from the work-shop chimney, the idea being to make himself a chimney-sweep. The soot, mixed with water, was also used to rub into his prison garments, which being plentifully besprikled with broad arrows, would otherwise have looked suspicious. In lowering himself to the ground the convict fell a distance of thirty feet, through his rope breaking, and cut his hand severely; but this circumstance materially assisted his escape as he retained part of the rope in his possession and finding in the yard two pieces of plank, lashed them together, placed them against the wall and climbed up, then drawing his plank after him he laid them on the other side and slid down. So effectual was his disguise that he actually passed a number of police without exciting any remark. He was at liberty a week, and but for the efforts of his friends in "passing around the hat" to raise a subscription to enable him to leave the country he might still have been at large.—London Star.

SEEK

health and avoid sickness.

Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Manfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1882.

Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great weakness of my breast, with shortness of spirit, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief.

Though I would try Brown's Iron

Biters, I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. I can justly be called the king of medicine.

JOHN K. ALLEN.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is composed of Iron in soluble form; Cinchona the great tonic, together with other standard remedies, making a remarkable non-alcoholic tonic, which will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Malaria,

Weakness, and relieve all Liver and Kidney diseases.
