

The Daily Astorian

ASTORIA, OREGON: SATURDAY, JANUARY 20, 1883

Thermometer 36 degrees below zero at Cariboo...

Fred Hewitt, formerly employed on the O. R. & N. dock in this city...

The great fire in Portland yesterday is a warning to every one here to be careful that the disaster is not repeated in Astoria.

Dr. Wandory writes to have Mrs. ASTORIA sent to him at Pomona, Los Angeles Co., California.

The mayor of Taunton, Mass., has ordered the police force of that city to "visit the saloons as often as possible."

Captain Sewell and the second mate and steward of the ship El Capitán, recently tried in the U. S. courts for cruel treatment to sailors...

Jos. Lacy, the convict who recently escaped from Seaco, was caught a few days ago, and sent back to more comfortable quarters.

Columbia river freights are "way down" this season. The lowest yet reported are the Henry Villard, to load wheat for Cork at forty shillings...

Little is troubled over the fact that the teredo bores the piles and ruins them, and wants an establishment for the preservation of wharf timbers...

It was Thos. Jefferson who said, "I would rather live in a country with newspapers and no government, than in a country with a government and no newspapers."

Is it not possible that the railroad people have chosen an icy crossing for their ferry at the foot of Deer Island...

Yesterday's east wind smoothed the bar and two more of '83's wheat fleet went to sea—the Ekdale and Fulda.

The General Miles towed the Gardiol out of Gray's harbor, yesterday morning, and then came on to Astoria with 39,000 feet of lumber and some salmon...

The Chronicle, Call and Bulletin have sent us severally and individually nine printed sheets, each containing the new charter of the city of San Francisco.

Dr. Pierce's "Pellets," or sugar-coated granules—the original "Little Liver Pills," (beware of imitations)—cure sick and bilious headache...

"NOT GUILTY."

The Bain Case Concluded.

The jury in the case of John Bain charged with the murder of Alexander Lowrie Alexander, brought in a verdict of not guilty, at 6:40 last evening.

Jas. McCarty and Wm. Bannister were each sentenced to three years in the penitentiary yesterday morning.

Cold Weather.

The delicate tracing of the frost upon the windpane, though an unusual sight in Astoria, was a common one yesterday.

Temperance Billiards.

Having fitted up the rooms lately occupied by Carl Adler's Bazar, next to Geo. Hume's store, I would be glad to see any of my friends who wish a nice game of billiards or a good cigar in a quiet and orderly place.

Notice.

Any parties wishing to have graves in the cemetery cleared, can be accommodated by applying to M. CONLEY, City Sexton.

Frank Fabre's Oyster and Chop House.

Frank Fabre announces that he now keeps his house open all night for the accommodation of his patrons.

Art Needle Work.

Miss Clothier will soon be in Astoria, prepared to give lessons in Art needle work, Lace work, Kensington work and Etching.

A Big Blaze.

At a quarter to three yesterday morning a fire broke out in the Sunnyside Restaurant, in Portland, and before it could be checked extended to the large establishment of Corbett and MacLeay which was completely destroyed.

Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Clatsop County Bible Society will be held in the Presbyterian church this evening at 7:30.

A Weather Sharp.

On a Woodward avenue car yesterday one of our solid citizens, whose weather predictions have never been disputed since he was rated worth $50,000, remarked to an acquaintance that this was unusual weather for the last of December.

He had hardly spoken when an old man with a bundle under his arm hopped up and replied:

"It is, eh? I'd just bet you an even dollar that you are mistaken."

"Isn't this unusual weather?"

"No, sir! I'll bet you two to one that we had just such a December week three, five and eight years ago. Put up your cash."

"Oh, I don't bet on the weather; still I think such soft weather at this time of the year is singular."

"Bet you three to one it isn't singular!" cried the old man.

"I told you I wouldn't bet."

"Then don't be deceiving people with your weather talk! Bet you four to one you can't tell what the weather was in September."

The solid citizen was bluffed into silence for a moment, and then he remarked:

"Looks as if we might have snow."

"Bet you five to one we don't see a flake this week!" piped the old man.

"How can you expect snow when the air isn't cold enough to congeal this moisture?"

"Then it may rain."

"No it won't. Bet you six to one you never saw rain with the wind where it is!"

"Well, the barometer indicates a storm of some sort!" shouted the solid man.

"I'd take you on that, too, and bet you seven to one that it doesn't."

The prophet seemed about to haul out a dollar, but he changed his mind and fell back in his seat and growled:

"Maybe my thermometer doesn't stand at fifty-four degrees above."

"No, sir! No, sir! I'd bet you eight to one that you are at least three degrees out of the way. Come, now!"

But the solid man came not.—Free Press.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold every where, 25 cents a bottle.

A Fair Proposition.

Anyone suffering from habitual constipation, torpidity of the liver, colds, fevers, headache, restlessness, sleeplessness, indigestion or other ill arising from a disordered or inactive condition of the liver, stomach and bowels, and wishing to give Syrup of Pepsin a thorough trial, can buy it of W. E. Dement, druggist, who will agree to return your money if it fails to promptly relieve you satisfactorily.
