

The Daily Astorian

ASTORIA OREGON: TUESDAY - FEBRUARY 13, 1883

Men are created here for a great growth beyond," says W. B. ...

The London Engineer, which has lately discussed flying machines in a scientific way, comes to the conclusion that there is no combination of wings or arrangements of any kind which will enable a man to fly with his own strength.

Rev. Mr. Twine, has a system by which the horrors of sea sickness are prevented. He approaches the sufferer unawares from behind, places his hand upon the patient's head, and speaks in an assuring tone of voice.

Speaking for the south, the New Orleans Picayune says: "There is an extended belief that a reciprocity treaty with Mexico means annexation."

The diversity of laws between the different states of the Union is a constant inconvenience, and has led to frequent demands, daily growing stronger for an inter-state code, or such concerted legislation as will lead to uniformity in legal process.

During the recent trial of Jack Vincent at Chelalis for murder, while District Attorney McFadden was making his opening speech to the jury, Vincent and the deputy sheriff stepped out to get a drink.

The hope that a ten cent cigar can be purchased for five cents is prominent among the reasons why the St. Louis Post Dispatch wants a Mexican reciprocity treaty.

The report from the Atlantic coast that the ice sets unusually south from the frigid zone this season should occasion thankfulness in the reflection that we live on a coast where the Arctic current flows to the north, precluding any possibility of icebergs.

NUMBER ONE, Vol. 1, of the Chelalis Valley Fiddler has been received. It is a neatly printed seven-column paper, and starts out well in advocacy of the territory in which it is printed.

An Arizona dispatch says that West Travis, formerly sheriff of Lincoln Co., Nevada, is insane, and has been sent to Stockton. During his shrievalty the office was worth $50,000 a year.

Congress retains the duty on soap. It yields $169,000 revenue to the government annually. It costs the people $2,000,000 annually.

The total amount annually received or expended on Queen Victoria, and the other members of the royal family is $893,382.

The Southern Exposition will be held at Louisville, Ky., beginning August 1, 1883, and continuing one hundred days.

The eleventh annual meeting of the Oregon State Woman Suffrage association convenes in Portland to-day.
