ASTORIA, OREGON:

TUESDAY FEBRUARY 13, 1983

He Wanted a Kuss

Let me describe some of the experiences of a Pullman palace car. If the cars are full it is embarrasing to a shy man. What must it be to the fairer sex, demonstrative in their endearments both on the "cars" and steamboat, but this beats all. In the "sections" of a railroad car, as in a wooden hoose, even whispored remarks are very audible, especially at night when everything is still. For example, one evening, when we had retired, a low voice was suddenly heard

"Fannie-Fannie-give me a kiss, and say you forgive me." Then a little louder:

from the center of the car.

"Fannie-Fannie-1 can't go to sleep without you say you forgive me. Give me a kiss and say you forgive me."

At last the voice of the patient husband, regardless of the tittering from the surrounding partitions, spoke again:

"Fannie-Fannie-Fannie just one kiss and say you forgive me." At last the peppery old Indian officer down at the end of the car, popped his head out and shouted: "Oh, Fannie, for goodness sake! do give him a kiss and let us get some sleep."

Even then amidst the outbursts of laughter from the other passengers, you could hear the poor man catching a cartain lecture.

"There! I told you so! Now you see what you have done! I knew every one could hear you." But at last peace reigned, and possibly Fannie gave him the nar cotic kiss of reconciliation. Mr. E. Wenz, St. Boniface Pa., writes: I must recommend St. Jacobs Oil. I had a horse with Sweeny in the shoulder, and used this Oil three times a day, when WINES. the ailment was cured.

That's a common expres sion and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

> Wm. P. Marshall, of Logansport, Indiana, writes: " My wife has for many years been troubled from pain in her back and general debility incident to her sex. She has taken one bettle of Brown's Iron Bitters, and I can truthfully say that she has been so much benefited that she pronounces it the only remedy of many medicines she has tried."

Leading physicians and clergymen use and recommend BROWN'S IRON BIT-TERS. It has cured others suffering as you are, and it will cure you.
